A Message From Our Pastor

Father's Formed.org Suggestion of the Week

Search the Title

Be Not Afraid Family Hour

God the Father sent His son into the world entrusting them to two faithful people who desired nothing more but to glorify God. With the gift of His Son and the grace of faith in Mary and Joseph, God offered all of humanity the epitome of family. Their life together models the right relationship to which we can all aspire in our own families in order to grow in grace, share God's love, and glorify Him.

We first focus on the Holy Family soon after we celebrate its beginning with the nativity of our Lord, Jesus Christ. The Sunday following Christmas is the day we celebrate their feast to focus our hearts on faithful family life. Then in February, the month after we honor the Holy Name of Jesus, we look to the Holy Family for assistance to grow closer to God in our own family life. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph inspire us to reach for holiness together that together we might glorify God in our lives more fully and all receive the gift of eternal life in Heaven.

The Holy Family helps us to live God's love for each other and in the world. We see how they lived as family and call upon their assistance in prayer that we might emulate their holiness in offering back to God what He has given us. The Holy Family also prays for and with broken families that right relationship be restored through the grace of God the Father through Jesus His Son.

The goal of all this is, as stated earlier, is to receive the gift of eternal life in the unveiled presence of God. Let us ever pray for our family and as a family:

Grant us, Lord Jesus, ever to follow the example of Your holy Family, that in the hour of our death Your glorious Virgin Mother together with blessed Joseph may come to meet us and we may be worthily received by You into everlasting dwellings, who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING - Sirach 15:15-20

If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him. Immense is the wisdom of the Lord; he is mighty in power, and all-seeing. The eyes of God are on those who fear him; he understands man's every deed. No one does he command to act unjustly, to none does he give license to sin.

SECOND READING - 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Brothers and sisters: We speak a wisdom to those who are mature, not a wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away. Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written: What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him, this God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

GOSPEL - Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raqa,' will be answerable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool,' will be liable to fiery Gehenna. Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Settle with your opponent quickly while on the way to court. Otherwise your opponent will hand you over to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Amen, I say to you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny. "You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into Gehenna. "It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife must give her a bill of divorce. But I say to you, whoever divorces his wife - unless the marriage is unlawful - causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

You are the light of the world

Key Scriptural Passage:

Jesus said, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: In what way might you be hiding the light of Christ from others? What could you do to improve this?

Child: How can you let the light of Christ in you shine for others this week?

Growing in Faith...

One Minute Meditation...Flee Temptation

Christians are meant for Heaven. Yet, the world can work against our efforts for holiness. St Peter tells us "to escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires." (2 Peter 1:4) Ask God often to protect you from sin, to give you the wisdom and courage to make good choices and, become sensitive, to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. God will reveal when you've messed up, and rejoice with you when you get it right.
