Holy Week by Dr. Brant Pitre

Triduum: A Spiritual Pilgrimage

Gospel of Luke: Luke broadens the net of Christianity and writes for a gentile audience. His focus is the people outside the house of Israel that they see the Truth is Christianity and convert. With the faith in its infancy in the world, Luke is concerned with demonstrating the legitimacy of Christianity and Christ as the archetype of living life in God.

The Spirit takes a greater role in Jesus' ministry. After Jesus' baptism, Luke writes that Jesus, "filled with the Holy Spirit...was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days to be tempted by the devil" (Lk 4:1-2a). Luke begins Jesus' ministry in the synagogue of Nazareth where Jesus reads from the prophet Isaiah and then proclaims the fulfillment of this passage in him: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord" (Lk 4:18-19).

The savior coming with mercy and justice to bring the poor and outcast into the community is seen in the parables Luke presents such as the lost sheep, the lost coin, the lost son and the persistent widow, as well as, parables only found in this gospel—Lazarus and the rich man, the rich fool, and the good Samaritan. Luke's vision of the mission is that everyone come to see that Jesus has come for them and that they have faith in him.

Luke also writes a "second volume" to his work—Acts of the Apostles—where he continues the Spirit's work now through the apostles. The Spirit descends upon them and they pick up Jesus' mission to all the world. This mission is now our mission, which through Baptism we receive the Holy Spirit who prompts us to act in bringing the Gospel to the world.

Pray For The Sick...

FIRST READING - Acts 10:34, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

SECOND READING - Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

GOSPEL - John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Key Scriptural Passage:

Jesus emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: How will you try to imitate the obedience and humiliation of Christ during this holy week?

Child: What could you do to show respect for Jesus this week as the church remembers his death and resurrection?

Holy Thursday Collection for the Education of Our Diocesan Seminarians...

On April 6, at the celebration of the Evening Mass of The Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, a collection will be offered for the education of our future priests. With your continuous generosity, and a bequest received several years ago, the diocese should be able to fund the cost of educating our seminarians without adding an additional amount to our Diocesan Services Appeal campaign. Please assist your parish and our diocese in helping to educate our future priests. These men, we pray, will one day be ordained and will be serving us in our parishes.

The Pontifical Good Friday Collection...April 7

Pope Francis asks parishes to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. Please be generous.

How To Celebrate Holy Week... During the weeks of Lent, we have prepared for this final week by fasting, praying, and almsgiving, all with the purpose of opening ourselves more fully to God's presence in our lives. During Holy Week, we walk with Jesus, we suffer with him, we die with him, and finally, we rise again: new creatures, brought deeply into the joy of redemption and new life now, and we pray, forever. On these days, we are offered a gift: Biblical symbols and liturgical gestures that help us to enter into the salvific events of Jesus' death and resurrection. We don't just watch, but we participate in each of them as strive to follow Christ more closely.

Prayer for Holy Week... Father, we now enter into the mystery of your Son's passion, death and resurrection. Jesus suffered for our sins. Let me join the sufferings of my life to the passion of your Son. Wash me clean of sin and prepare me to celebrate with joy, your Son's resurrection. He is the promise of life eternal. His holy cross has redeemed the world. Your Son, Jesus Christ, suffered and died for us. In his name, have mercy.

Pro-Life Corner... There is no greater injustice in the world today than the shedding of the innocent blood of unborn children. We will never be able to build a culture of life if we do not respect the dignity of the human person. We must build our society as it once was founded, upon respect for life and the right to life.

Strength for the Journey... Saturday, April 15, 2023
Sacred Heart Catholic Church Family Center in Hallettsville from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (doors open at 9:30 a.m.) Snacks and lunch will be provided. There will be a good will offering basket.

Coping with the death of a child is very difficult. Parents are in a place they have never been before, often overwhelmed by the grief that follows. Grief does not end in a prescribed number of days, weeks, months, or years. We are a group of parents who have suffered the loss of a child, and will walk this grief journey with you, whether your loss is recent or in the past. This day will include an opportunity to listen to other parents whose children have died, speakers, clergy, as well as meeting others on their grief journey. Participants are not required to share anything this day and may remain silent and listen if they would like. Our team realizes it takes strength and courage to walk through the doors of this retreat.
