Faith & Culture

In our world culture we can very easily get lost in our own self and overthink about the struggles that have come our way. We turn our gaze so tightly on ourselves that we begin to think of ourselves as an island that no one can possibly understand our plight. This only serves to deepen our gaze solely on ourselves. Which continues a vicious cycle of self-destruction. We need to break the cycle, or better yet, not enter it at all. As many billboards on the roadside say: "Jesus can help."

Pope Francis spoke how Jesus as the remedy and prevention in his address to the people on April 23 before the Regina Coeli. His words were on the encounter of the two men walking back to Emmaus with Jesus. These men realized after Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of the bread: "Were not our hearts burning [within us] while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?" (Luke 24:32). Jesus walked with them physically to Emmaus as well as spiritually through their struggles with the one they thought the Messiah and their disappointment at his death. The Holy Father, in his address, encouraged us to give a brief examination of the day with its successes and pitfalls. He stated, "Only in this way can he take us by the hand, accompany us and make our hearts burn again."

Like the men sadly walking back to Emmaus, our daily struggles can get us down, but Jesus can help reframe the day's events to celebrate the highs more and see the good God can bring out of the lows. God took the lowest of lows—Jesus' death—and created the highest of highs—humanities redemption. When we give our troubles over to God, He can bring good to our lives from them.

FIRST READING - Acts 6:1-7

As the number of disciples continued to grow, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, "It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." The proposal was acceptable to the whole community, so they chose Stephen, a man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit, also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them. The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly; even a large group of priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

SECOND READING - 1 Peter 2:4-9

Beloved: Come to him, a living stone, rejected by human beings but chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it says in Scripture: Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion, a cornerstone, chosen and precious, and whoever believes in it shall not be put to shame. Therefore, its value is for you who have faith, but for those without faith: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone that will make people stumble, and a rock that will make them fall. They stumble by disobeying the word, as is their destiny. You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

GOSPEL - John 14:1-12

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Key Scriptural Passage:

The shepherd goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. (John 10:4)

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: How are you a shepherd to those in your care?

Child: What will you do this week to show you are a Christian?

Sunday, April 30 is World Day of Prayer for Vocations... Prayer for Seminarians... O God, Father of all Mercies, Provider of a bountiful Harvest, send Your Graces upon those You have called to gather the fruits of Your labor; preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service of you. Open the hearts of Your children that they may discern Your Holy Will; inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves to serving others in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ. Teach all Your faithful to follow their respective paths in life guided by Your Divine Word and Truth. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, and Saints, humbly hear our prayers and grant Your Church's needs, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Vocations Prayer... Workers For The Harvest...

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Growing in Faith... from Scripture...John 10:1-10; Trusting the Good Shepherd...

In this Scripture passage, Jesus used the image of a shepherd to reveal who He is, how He cares for us, and more importantly, how He want us to relate to Him. The image of a shepherd was a powerful choice.

A good shepherd knew each sheep in his care individually. He never left his flock. Many sheep-pens didn't have doors, so the shepherd would sleep in the entry way to prevent enemies from getting to his flock. Predators would have to go through him first. If a sheep got lost, hurt, or was attacked, the shepherd took care of it, even risking his life for the sheep. Jesus' illustration is clear. Without the constant care, guidance, and protection presence of the shepherd (God), the sheep (us) wouldn't survive. That's uncomfortable because it means we're dependent and vulnerable. But the deeper truth is that Jesus, our Shepherd, knows us each personally.

Our Shepherd heals us, provides for us, and protects us, event to offering up His own life. He asks us to trust Him and ultimately, lead us Home.
