Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 23, 2023

A Message From Our Pastor

Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as [children] of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church, and made sharers in her mission: "Baptism is the greatest sacrament of regeneration through water and in the word" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1213).

There is no wonder then, why baptismal fonts have always been central to our Christian churches. Although without any evidence, I suspect the original baptistery of St. Philip's was located under one of the bell towers where the bathrooms are now. A picture dated, May 4, 1981, shows the font near the St. Joseph altar, where the organ is currently sitting. Now we have our baptismal font with running water and immersion pool, and we have a leak.

Unfortunately, this leak is not new, and many attempts have been made to seal it over the decades. In an effort to save the current font, soon we will begin a project of chipping out the tile and creating a fiberglass shell for both the upper bowl and lower pool. We will then cover the fiber glass with stone or tile, so that our font does not look like a bathtub.

If the damage caused by the leak to the frame of the font and/or the floor of the church is more than expected and would necessitate the rebuilding of the structure, we will remove the current font altogether and proceed with a new baptismal font in a more traditional style without plumbing or running water.

At the center of this decision-making process is the preservation of both our church building and the living history of this parish, as well as the dignity of the sacrament of Baptism.

With the tenderness, compassion, and mercy of the loving Savior,
-Fr. Dalton

FIRST READING - 1 Kings 3:5,7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?" The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this— not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right— I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

SECOND READING - Romans 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

GOSPEL - Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. "Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

Key Scriptural Passage...

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. (Romans 8:26)

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: What weakness can the power of the Holy Spirit help you overcome?

Child: When will you need the help of the Holy Spirit this week?

DEAREST Lord, teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve You as You deserve: to give, and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labor and not to ask for reward, except that of knowing that I am doing Your will.

Catholic Rural Life... Calendar of Blessings...
 Blessing of Visitors and Guests...

Summer is a time of vacations and visitors, when people travel to see relatives and friends. Hospitality is a cornerstone of rural life, a trademark of these summer days. This hospitality can become a cornerstone of rural spirituality as well. This blessing prompts us to greet God in the people who come to see us, to proclaim their visits a blessing to us, and to recognize that our homes and farms are indeed holy places where God can be encountered. This blessing works well when visitors are preparing to depart. Everyone gathers in the yard or a large room. The visitors are asked to stand together, and the family host members encircle them for the blessing rite.

Opening Prayer: O God, you have made us your guests in this world, the earth you created for all. We remember how you sent your angels to Abraham and Sarah to be received as guests. By their hospitality, Abraham and Sarah received a message of hope and life.

Bless us and our hospitality. May our guests be a blessing to us and reveal your presence to us. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Closing Blessing:

O Wondrous God, you are never far away. Again and again, you reveal your presence among us. Look with favor on our guests, who during their stay with us have opened our eyes to the mystery of your love and grace. Like our ancestors in the bible, we have received these guests through the fellowship of table: food, drink stories and sharing.

Through them, we have participated in the companionship which mirrors the relationship between you and your people. As Abraham and Sarah were visited by your angels, we too have felt your presence through our guests.

Bless these holy pilgrims with safety in their travels, wonderful adventures in your good world, warm welcome from all they meet and a happy return home when that time comes. May all their touch witness the wonder of your presence.

Bless us, O Lord of Hosts, for you became a guest to reveal the truth of your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Strength for the Journey Coping with the death of a child is very difficult. Parents are in a place they have never been before, often overwhelmed by the grief that follows. Grief does not end in a prescribed number of days, weeks, months or years. We are a group of parents who have lost a child, and will walk this grief journey with you whether your loss is recent or in the past.

Monthly meetings take place from 6:30-8:00 pm at Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church, 108 S. 6th Street, Ganado.

Meetings include the opportunity to pray, listen to presentations by clergy and other parents who have lost a child, and meet others on the grief journey. Participants are not required to share anything, and may just remain silent and listen if they'd like.

Upcoming Meeting Dates: August 8, Sept 12, Nov 14, and Dec 12, 2023.

Please also save the date for a weekend retreat Oct. 13 - 15, 2023 at the Spiritual Renewal Center in Victoria. information, please contact Patricia Hoelscher 979-257-9984, phoelscher@victoriadiocese.org Or Deacon Larry Hoelscher 979-578-3934
