Twenty - Third Sunday in Ordinary Time September 10, 2023

A Message From Our Pastor

Without a doubt, the theft of the tabernacle and the Blessed Sacrament at St. Robert's last weekend has shaken our small town. It leaves us wondering how this could happen, here, where we are supposed to be safe. Unfortunately, the sinfulness, brokenness, and addictions of others has consequences on those around them. All we can do, is to be proactive in seeking and ensuring the safety, security, and Divine Protection of ourselves, our homes, and our church.

On the front line of our parish, stand the greeters, ushers, and other members of our hospitality team. These men and women serve as the face of our church, warmly welcoming those who come to worship with us, while also being vigilant and watchful eyes for us. Of course, after offering that small town hospitality as people arrive, the ushers are entrusted with the responsibility of our monetary offering to God. For this reason, we will return to taking up the collection, which will be sealed in a security bag, and placed into a safe until Monday morning. Please consider assisting in this holy duty as a regular greeter and usher and be generous if asked to help?

Can your family help carry up the gifts? We will also begin, once again, bringing up the offertory to the altar. This offertory procession represents our offering to God, not just bread, wine, and the collection, but offering back to God all the blessings we have received during the week, we place our hearts on the altar there next to the bread and wine, soon to become the Body and Blood of Jesus. Each week, there will be a sign-up sheet at the entrance of the church. Please be a part of the liturgy in this way?

The church is our home, we all have a part to play here. These are two ways to be active parts of our parish family, in helping the home run smoothly, safely, and effectively.

With the tenderness, compassion, and mercy of the loving Savior,

-Fr. Dalton

FIRST READING - Sirach 27:30-28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

SECOND READING - Romans 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

GOSPEL - Matthew 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

Key Scriptural Passage...

Jesus said, "If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone."
(Matthew 18:15)

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: What have you been able to overcome because others patiently loved you?

Child: How can you help another person do the right thing?

Twenty-Second Anniversary - A Prayer of Remembrance
September 11, 2001

Almighty and Ever-Loving God, we remember 9-11-01, and pray for all those who were affected by the terrible events of that day. We remember, with love and respect, all of those who went tragically to their deaths. We remember those who still suffer from their injuries of that day twenty-one years ago and pray for their recovery. We remember the still grieving families and friends and all who lost loved ones. Gracious Lord, comfort all who mourn, embrace all those in sorrow, give courage to all who suffer. Continue to console them in the hope that all who trust in You will find peace and rest in your Eternal Kingdom. Bless them with Your presence and surround us all with Your love.

God of peace, who vindicates all injustice, bless all those defending and protecting our country and its ideals of freedom and liberty. God of all nations, look with love on this world and on its people. Restore tranquility to all nations and bless the work of Your creation. Heavenly Father, answer our prayer and bring us hope through Christ, Your Son. May your kingdom of justice and of peace reign and may the earth be filled with Your glory. Amen.

35th Annual Catholic Conference
REGISTRATION is open.
The cost is $35.00 which includes lunch.

Saturday, September 23, at
St. Joseph High School,
Victoria

Deadline to register is 9.14.23

This year's conference keynote presenters: Father Juan Molina and Bishop Brendan Cahill will offer guidance along with the Church's vision for being one in Communion, one in Participation, and One in Mission, in the world in which we live. There are workshops for adults; liturgical ministers, catechists, parish administrative assistants, parents, grandparents, and all who are interested in spending a day with others, while learning and growing in the Catholic faith.

Prayer for Catechists.. O Word of God, help those who catechize to turn their faces to you, that they might know the Father and feel your redemptive love through the presence of the Holy Spirit. O Word of God, when the Father spoke, the world was created, life began, and love was brought into the world. Help catechists to count the blessings of the loving Father in their midst, to be filled with our kindness, and to know the fruits of their labor. O Word of God, may the works of their hands and hearts prosper. Make them towers of strength that can withstand all of the buffeting winds encountered during this coming year. May they be beautiful in your eyes, a beacon of hope for all who seek know you. Bless their labor, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Bring those whom they catechize to faith in Jesus' name. Amen.

Catechetical Sunday
September 17, 2023

This year's theme reminds us of the invitation we receive from the Lord Jesus to follow Him and the promise that He doesn't want to add to our burdens; He wants to lighten them.

A Word From Pope Francis... The great gossip is the devil, who always goes about saying bad things about others, because he is the liar who seeks to separate the Church to distance brothers and sisters and not create community. Please, brothers and sisters, let us make an effort not to gossip. Gossip is a plague more awful than Covid!
