A Message From Our Pastor

Our Gospel readings for the last several weeks have been a continuous reading of Mark's account of the life and ministry of Jesus. Most scripture scholars would agree that Mark's Gospel was the first to be written and in fact serves as the structure around which Matthew and Luke's narratives would be created. So then, what we are reading in these weeks is fundamental to the Christian's earliest understanding of who this Jesus is and what he came to do.

So, what have we seen so far? There has been a recognition of Jesus as something new, something different than the people had ever encountered before. There has been a call to come and follow him. There has been conversion. This weekend we witness healing. And next weekend Jesus will continue his work of restoration and rehabilitation with the healing of the leper. Then, our routine readings will be disrupted as we begin Lent.

But while we still are in our continuous reading of Mark, it is worth considering; how have I recognized Jesus in my life? How has he called me to come and follow him? How is he trying to deliver me from those bad habits and sins that hold me back from being fully alive? Where is he trying to offer me healing in my life? How is he trying to restore my dignity and worth?

Mark moves fast and with urgency. We should receive and respond in kind.

With the tenderness, compassion, and mercy of the loving Savior,

-Fr. Dalton

FIRST READING - Leviticus 13:1-2,44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head. "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

SECOND READING - 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

GOSPEL - Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

Key Scriptural Passage...

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. (Mark 1:32-34)

Questions for Discussion:

Adult: When have you felt the sadness of Job? When have you felt the joy of those who witnessed the healing works of Jesus?

Child: What could you do this week to comfort someone who is sad?

Think of prayer as a focused conversation between two people who love each other. There is no right way to pray. It is most rewarding when you talk to your loved one as often as possible, giving Him the best of your attention. Pope John Paul II said, "Pray any way you like, so long as you do pray." God is always ready to listen.
