OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the faithful of St. Titus Parish, in communion with our Holy Father and our Archbishop, proclaim to everyone the Good News that Jesus Christ is the Light of the World who offers eternal salvation to all who follow him. Baptized into Christ Jesus and confirmed by the Gift of the Holy Spirit, we desire to share this Light by proclaiming the Gospel for forgiveness and reconciliation to every person.

We are united in our Church's Teachings and in the variety of the gifts, services and ministries that we use to strengthen the Kingdom of God.

NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to continue with the next five good reasons to go to Mass. They are:

6) People need our prayers. We can pray for people at any time. However, when we pray for them during the Mass, we are doing this in a most special way. The Mass brings us together in the Body of Christ and we become one in the Communion of Saints. It is part of the cosmic dimension of the Mass where heaven and earth are united by reaching across time and space.

7) We need to stand up for what we believe. Being a follower of Jesus is counter cultural. At every Mass, we have the opportunity to stand up and proclaim what we believe publicly. We admit that we believe in God, in Jesus, in the Holy Spirit, in the Catholic Church, and the Communion of Saints, in the forgiveness of sins, and in life everlasting. It is a powerful statement and an opportunity to recommit ourselves.

8) We need to acknowledge that we make mistakes. At every Mass, we have the opportunity to review the past week. We admit that we have sinned in thought, in word, in deed, and what we have done and what we have failed to do. We see God's forgiveness and we are sure that God still loves us.

9) We need ritual in our lives. The Mass is a ritual. That is through the repetition of prayers, movements, and the changing of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, we are formed, disciplined, and consoled. The "sameness" of the Mass carries us along the spiritual journey. The "sameness" of the ritual allows us to be transformed on a soul level, even if we are unaware of what is happening.

10) We need to experience something bigger than ourselves. When we go to Mass, we share in the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. When we offer our ordinary lives to God through Jesus, we enter into God's great plan for the world. We are strengthened by the Eucharist and are sent out into the world to bring the good news. The Mass gives meaning and purpose to our lives; it helps us to develop a sense of wonder and awe. It allows us to see that there is something bigger than ourselves.

Having these positive attitudes about going to Mass can surprise us. Research studies have shown that people who go to church every week are: less likely to suffer from depression; less likely to abuse drugs or alcohol; more likely to have a solid sense of right and wrong; and more likely to live a longer and happier life. So why not spread the Good News!

May God, through the intercession of St. Titus, bless us! Love and Prayers, Msgr. Nicolo

Deacon Claude's Corner— Trying to Make Some Sense Out of Suffering—Week 6 Conclusion

The other day, I read Litany for the Anxious and Suffering written by Hannah Marie Fowerbaugh for Evangelization and Culture, the Journal of the Word on Fire Institute. Following is this litany, hopefully serving as our prayerful conclusion to Trying to Make Some Sense Out Of Suffering:

From the temptation to doubt Your goodness, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the temptation to doubt Your presence, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being abandoned, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being forgotten, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being undervalued, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being misunderstood, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of the future, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the anxiety of feeling overwhelmed, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the anxiety of feeling helpless, deliver me, Jesus.
 From the anxiety of not knowing how long-suffering will last, deliver me, Jesus.

That Your silent love does not mean absence, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That You are present and share in my suffering, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That my life is carefully held in Your hands, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That You watch over all my life, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That You waste nothing to bring me closer to You, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That You understand everything I go through, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That Your plans for my life are good, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That my weakness is an invitation to Your strength, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That You are my helper, Jesus, grant me Your peace.
 That my trials will not exceed Your help, Jesus, grant me Your peace.

For a heart sustained by Your love, remain with the me, Jesus.
 For a heart reliant on Your strength, remain with me, Jesus.
 For a heart trusting in Your mercy, remain with me, Jesus.
 For a heart responsive to Your grace, remain with me, Jesus.
 For a heart wrapped continually in Your peace, remain with me, Jesus.

“Hannah Marie Fowerbaugh is an author, artist, and creative woman passionate about finding beauty and joy in daily life. Her book, Wholeheartedly: Litanies to Rediscover Your First Love encourages readers to seek an authentic personal relationship with Jesus.”

Deacon Claude

Do not be anxious about anything,
 but in every
 situation, by prayer
 and petition, with thanksgiving,
 present your
 requests to God.
 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts
 and your minds in Christ Jesus.

PHILIPPIANS 4:6-7

PARISH PRAYER*Almighty God,

behold I approach the Sacrament of your Only Begotten Son
as one sick, unclean, blind, poor and needy.
I beg Your generous mercy to heal my sins, blindness and poverty, so that I may receive the Bread of Angels, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords with reverence, humility, contrition, purity and faith.
May it advance the Salvation of my soul
so that I may be counted among Your chosen.
O, most loving Father, grant me your beloved Son,
whom I now receive veiled in this Sacrament, so to behold His Face
at last revealed.
Amen.

St. Titus, pray for us.

St. Michael the Archangel, usher of God's mercy and protector against terrorism, pray for us.

The normal Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel will be recited following the Parish Prayer.

ST. TITUS OUTREACH PROGRAM

St. Titus Parish has been making casseroles for St. John's Hospice in Center City Philadelphia for over 25 years. On an average day, SJH serves 57 casseroles to hundreds of residents and day service guests. Casseroles are donated by 47 parishes in the area including our parish.

The casseroles are the "Main Course" of a complete, hot meal that is served to hundreds of God's poor and homeless who come to St. John's for their daily bread. Please do not feel restricted to the recipes which can be found on the recipe sheets near the casserole pan in the vestibule. Your favorite recipe is most welcome! So are store bought casseroles such as Stouffers or Oncor. St. John's provides us with pans and lids for your dishes. If you provide your own, please use a standard "half tray". Each casserole serves 6-8 men. Each month, St. John's picks up the dishes from our freezer.

Here are some useful hints:

- Please bring your casseroles frozen to church and put them in the freezer located in the vestibule of the Social Hall. If the door to the Social Hall is locked, please leave the casserole with a sacristan or maintenance.
- Prepare your recipe so that it can be eaten with a plastic "spork" (a combination spoon and fork).
- Please mark the lid with the main ingredients and date you prepared your casserole.
