The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

On the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, which marks our return to Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, the Latin words for “the Body of Christ.” In the most recent revision of our liturgical rites, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The Gospel of Mark describes Jesus’ Last Supper with his disciples as a celebration of the Jewish feast of Passover. The Jewish celebration of Passover is a memorial to and a ritual participation in the defining moment of Israel’s history. It celebrates God’s deliverance of his people from slavery in Egypt. The Passover meal includes many ritually important elements, such as unleavened bread, lamb, and bitter herbs. Each food item recalls an aspect of the Exodus event. The instructions for the preparation of this meal are carefully prescribed in the Law of Moses. It is a central obligation of the Jewish faith tradition to celebrate this meal and to give thanks to God for his deliverance and protection.

The Gospel reminds us that the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ’s sacrifice on the cross. We believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the elements of bread and wine. Each time we celebrate this sacrament, we prepare for the Kingdom of God. This celebration, as the Second Vatican Council taught us, is the source and summit of the Christian life.

Walk Beside Me

A Word of Encouragement to Parents with Young Children at Mass

The beautiful work of raising children comes with its share of sometimes unrelenting stresses. Just think of all that it takes to come to Mass children in tow, arriving with a sense that for one hour there will be peace, only to find this is our child's time to cry! Every parent knows that feeling. Right in the middle of the homily, the consecration, or that moment of silence after communion, our children decide to voice their opinion. Of course, parents don't plan these distractions.

Fear not, there is an antidote. When your child screams – either in anger, hurt, or play – we encourage you to take them out of the gym, our temporary Church. Walk for a bit, share some calming hugs and kisses, and return when your child is calm. God understands your absence for a few minutes. You are not “missing Mass” by taking your child out for few minutes. Instead, you are exercising a great act of kindness toward your fellow parishioners. We wouldn't let our children scream at the movies, let's not let them scream at Mass. Of course, we can not control their screaming, but when it happens, we do have a simple solution -- going outside with our child to return when all is calmer.

As always, we are grateful for every parent and every child including infants and toddlers. Jesus continues to tell us to let the children come unto me. So do not let this word of encouragement discourage you from joining us for Mass.

CCSC Helps Students With Exams, Glasses

The Christian Community Service Center helped hundreds of local students see more clearly this academic year through its Louise J. Moran Vision Care Program.

Volunteers were trained and conducted initial eye screenings at school campuses in the fall semester—nearly 1,000 children received screenings. After the screenings, 464 students were transported to the University Eye Institute at the University of Houston for comprehensive examinations. Over 90% of these children, 417 students, received prescription eyeglasses.

If you would like to volunteer for this program and are available on occasional weekday mornings in the Fall, please contact Youth Services Manager Cathy Brown at 713-961-3993 ext. 215 or seasonal@ccschouston.org to learn more.
