From Father Phil

My Dear Parishioners,

It is a joy to back with you again after my trip to England. Visiting towns associated with my formative years was gratifying. My old seminary visit brought me much joy as I visited the Pugin-designed chapel and the tiny side chapels built in the days when a large number of priests living together would celebrate individual masses daily at individual altars. The sacred images of martyrs reminded me of the preciousness of the gift of faith, while the gardens, with its circular path, which as a student I would walk daily, brought to mind the cyclic nature of life, death, and rebirth.

On returning home I witnessed again the energy and the commitment of staff, builders, and parishioners to the renewal of our parish. I am grateful for a vision that was shared and is coming to fruition. Like the man in today's gospel, we might say that we have built bigger barns, but we do not sit back and say, if you will permit me to paraphrase: "We have many good things; let us rest, eat, drink, be merry."

I would like to suggest that a model to protect us from such complacency be Dorothy Day, co-founder of the Catholic Worker Movement. She writes of the need to go out and find Christ in the poor:

How do we know what we believe?

How do we know we indeed have faith?

Because we have seen his hands and his feet in the poor around us. He has shown himself to us in them. We start by loving them for him and soon we love them for themselves, each one a unique person, most special!

Dorothy Day, "The Mystery of the Poor," Catholic Worker (April 1964): 8.

May the Blessed and the Saints bless us and our endeavors as we enter our church building once more.

With every good wish and prayer for you and our parish,

Fr. Phil Lloyd

Pastor

Getting Ready for the Move

In anticipation of returning to the Church, we will present a series of articles to help St. Theresa Community prepare for the move into the Church. See below for the seventh article of the series.

Come Let Us Adore Him – The Art of Kneeling

In our life as Catholics, we use lots of different physical postures and movements to reflect what is happening to us on the inside. At the Our Father, we are standing, hands folded for some, hands extended in the ancient prayer position for others and hands holding hands in a position of universal embrace. Each posture reflects a difference in the way and what of our prayers.

Kneeling in the liturgy is associated with a variety of interior attitudes – including penitence, adoration, and humility according to the HarperCollins Encyclopedia of Catholicism.

The General Instructions to the Roman Missal has a lot to say about posture in the Mass,

42. A common bodily posture to be observed by all those taking part is a sign of the unity of the members of the Christian community gathered together for the Sacred Liturgy, for it expresses the intentions and attitudes of the participants and also fosters them.

43. In the dioceses of the United States of America, they should kneel beginning after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) until after the Amen of the Eucharistic prayer except when prevented on occasion by ill health or ... for another reasonable cause.

44. The faithful should kneel after the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) unless the Diocesan Bishop determines otherwise.

While we celebrate Sunday Mass in the gym, we had a reasonable cause not to kneel on the gym floor and so have made it our practice to stand in unison and with reverence through the Eucharistic prayer and after the Lamb of God. Now, however, as we return to the Church complete with kneelers, we will return to the normative practice of the Church in the United States which is to kneel during the Eucharistic Prayer and after the Lamb of God. It may take some getting used to kneeling as it took us a while to get used to standing. The important thing is to hold onto the ideals of unity and noble simplicity that are reflected in the shared action of adoration that is kneeling. So in humble adoration, let us kneel when we go back to celebrating Mass in the Church.

Please avoid parking on the grassy area along the side of our fence on Rodrigo Street.

UNBOUND

We greatly appreciate the opportunity to share the good news of serving the poor through the kindness and generosity of St. Theresa Catholic Church parishioners.

Take Home a Piano of Your Own

Parishioners interested in buying a baby grand piano may be able to serve their needs while offsetting the parish's cost of buying a new electronic piano keyboard for our 5:30 Sunday Mass.

We are selling the piano that we currently use in the gym in order to help us buy the new keyboard. (Don't worry, we will maintain the piano that we currently have in the new church choir loft. The 5:30 Sunday Mass group will play downstairs and use the electronic keyboard.).

We encourage interested parties to look at the piano after any Mass in the gym, and to contact

Enrique Benitez at
