THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Walking the Camino

Was it a coincidence that my 500-mile pilgrimage along the Camino Francés began on May 30th, the Feast of the Ascension?

That day I walked up the Pyrenees, not unlike the apostles who came to the Mount of Olives, where Jesus ascended into Heaven to be with God.

I came to the Camino to be with God. For the next 34 days, daily encounters with the divine ensued. Evening pilgrim masses took place in ermitas (small village churches), or in ornate cathedrals in the cities which blessed people of all ages from all over the world set out on foot in search of a spiritual awakening in gratitude and reflection for the physical challenge.

Friendships were forged over café con leche and tortilla española. Foot remedies and tips for lightening one's pack were exchanged. Ears were lent as stories were shared and hearts were opened.

Three months after arriving in Santiago, the Camino lives in me, in more ways than I know. I walk without a destination and I listen. I have realized that we are all on the Camino and everyone's Camino is different.
