YOUNG CHURCH MOVEMENT & FAITH FORMATION

HOT TAKE

When was the last time you shared your faith with someone you knew was not a Catholic or even a Christian at all? I do not mean the last time you told someone that you were Catholic, but rather, when was the last time you took the time to share the Gospel message with someone who was a nonbeliever? Today's Psalm tells us, "Go out to all the world and tell the Good News." This is a command that appears consistently throughout the Scriptures. It is not a suggestion or something optional for us to consider, but a clear demand. Furthermore, today's Gospel states that the gate to heaven is narrow. This means that hell is real, and unfortunately, some people will end up there. This is not meant to scare you. In fact, it is quite the opposite. We have nothing to fear if we are following the way of Jesus Christ and His Church. We can be confident that we will be saved if we remain faithful. With that being said, the Gospel emphasizes the urgency of spreading this message. Its words are the difference between eternal life with God for those who believe and eternal separation from God for those who do not. Imagine if you had billions of dollars and never gave a single gift, meal, or card to the people you cared about most. Imagine letting them struggle through life while knowing you could help but choosing not to share anything. I think for most of us this would be unthinkable to do. Yet, how often do we let the people we love struggle or live in sin and darkness when we have the hope of the Gospel but do not have the courage to share it? We have the words of Jesus, the words of eternal life. Maybe part of the reason the gate to heaven is narrow is because we are not willing to open it any wider. I hope you will be encouraged this week to "Go out to all the world and tell the Good News." God bless!

-David

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 24, 2025

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as He went and making His way to Jerusalem. Someone asked Him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them, "strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough."
