ROSARY FACTS – DID YOU KNOW? The string of beads used to pray the Rosary is called a rosary, which comes from the Latin word 'roserius' meaning garland of roses. The word bead comes from an Old English word 'biddan', which means to pray or to entreat. Using beads to pray dates back to early Christianity when clergy members would use knots or beads to help keep track of prayers. The Men's Rosary Group will meet on Sunday, September 10th, at Still Creek Vineyards, beginning at 6:00 pm.

DISASTER RELIEF FOR MAUI: May we keep those affected by this disaster in our prayers. Donations to assist in the recovery efforts can be made directly through Catholic Charities USA at www.catholiccharitiesusa.org or telephone 1-800-919-9338.
