Beginning the week of February 22nd, we will be offering a five week program at our parish that will help you to experience Christ's Passion and Death as you never have before. In No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ's Passion, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his Agony in the Garden to his Crucifixion on Calvary. Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today. We are offering two in person sessions: one on Monday mornings at 9:00 and the other on Thursday evenings at 7:00. We are also offering an "at home study" for those who need another option. All information and registration information is on our website at: www.stmaryfreeport.org. There is also a flyer in today's bulletin with all details. The deadline to register is February 7th.

Yawn.... How ordinary — Last Sunday marked the official closing of the Christmas season with the feast of the Baptism of the Lord and Monday marked the start of the 1st week in Ordinary Time. Although we celebrate the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time this week, it is anything but ordinary. The word ordinary comes from a Latin word Ordinalis which means “numbered” and that is exactly what happens. Ordinary time will now last until Ash Wednesday and will pick up again after the feast of Pentecost and then conclude the day before the 1st Sunday of Advent, which is on November 28th, 2021. Ordinary time is a beautiful and rich time of the year in which we have the opportunity to remember and reflect upon the ministry of Jesus. This is the meat and potatoes time of our faith in which we become nourished and fed with the parables and simple teachings of our Lord. Our greatest desire and resolution this year is to become an ordinary disciple of Christ. But we are not to confuse with this term as meaning something that is not special. We are unique in our Father’s eyes since He has known us from our mother’s wombs. God not only knows us but has loved us “with an everlasting love” (Jeremiah 31:3). In our culture, we are tempted to look at people in the headlines, the influencers and sports stars, as towering mountains and ourselves as something small and insignificant. However, even Abraham Lincoln noted that “God must love the common man...He made so many of them”. The greatest battles and wars of all history were not won by a General or King, but by the common soldiers whose determination and sacrifice made the victory possible. Saint Peter reminds us that we are a “chosen race” and “God’s own people” being called “out of darkness into His marvelous light” (1 Peter 2:9). Jesus said, “Let your light shine before men” (Matthew 5:16), so others will see the Gospel message in the Faith that I live, the Hope that I proclaim, and the Love that I show my neighbor. After hearing that “The Mass is ended” each Sunday (or daily), we march onto the field of battle as we walk out of the doors of Saint Mary’s, for that is when the real struggle begins. The eyes and ears of countless souls are upon each and every one of us because so many in this world are listening, longing, and even aching for a word of hope. In preparation to be an “Everyday Disciple” of the Lord, we can follow these three great tips that this Sunday gives us. First, we must be attentive and “wait patiently for the Lord” (Psalm 40:1). Just as the prophet, Samuel, did in the first reading, we must be open to the voice of God in our lives, even when we slumber in the ordinary time. When God unfolds His plan for us in the circumstances of our lives, we can answer “Speak, for your servant hears” (1 Samuel 3:9). Second, it is in the hearing of the voice of the Father that we can become changed and forged into the disciple He so wants us to be. In the gospel reading, Andrew and John, while listening to John the Baptist, hear and respond to his teaching when he announces “the Lamb of God” is in their midst (John 1:36). God’s voice comes to us in many ways, but it is often through another that His message is delivered. Third, just as they responded to John’s guidance, we must follow the One they had been seeking. When we make the decision to follow Jesus and respond to His “come and see”, we cannot help but desire to draw others in the same direction. We find out how a life, lived in His presence, is extraordinary. If we have an open heart and willing spirit, the Great Craftsman will mold us into a vessel that will carry His word to a soul in need. Our lives can be one that will lead someone irresistibly toward the greatest truth in this world. It is then that we will become not just another ordinary disciple. †

FORGED All men of the parish are asked to consider joining the FORGED (Men’s Group). Contact Tim Fogarty at: (Men’s Group) tpfogarty618@gmail.com to become a member or to discuss becoming a member.

FORGED also encourages all men of the parish to sign up to attend both the Virtual Diocesan men’s conference THE WELL on Saturday March 20th and the in-person Men’s Conference now scheduled for September 25th. Following is the information on both events. The virtual seminar on Saturday, March 20th is free to anyone who wishes to attend and will be available on the Diocese of Greensburg website and Facebook Pages. The event theme is “Jesus is Knocking, Open the Door!” and will run from 9:00 —11:30 A.M. It will feature two dynamic speakers: Author and speaker Mike Aquilina of Bridgeville, and Fr. Boniface Hicks, O.S.B., Director of Spiritual Formation at St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe. Interested men are asked to register for this free event so they are able to receive detailed information. Registration can be found at: www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/THEWELL. The in-person Men’s Conference is planned for Saturday, September 25th. Men who registered for the 2020 conference and want to remain registered for the in-person 2021 conference do not need to take any action; those men are automatically registered for both the virtual seminar and the in-person conference on September 25th. Each will be contacted ninety days prior to confirm their attendance. New registrants are encouraged to e-mail: THEWELL@dioceseofgreensburg.org for additional information. †

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Heavenly Father

Your loving providence accompanies us on our life's journey.

Thank you for the many gifts you have given us.

We ask that you continue to call sons and daughters from our families and parishes to serve as priests, deacons and consecrated men and women in the Diocese of Greensburg.

Send your Spirit upon us so that many will respond with great love to your call to service and leadership in your Church.

Give to those you have chosen the faith of the apostle, the vision of the prophet, and the courage of the martyr.

Through the intercession of our Diocesan patroness,

Our Lady of the Assumption, help us to be faithful disciples of your Son by following the example of Mary.

Make us generous in sharing ourselves and our talents for the sake of your Kingdom on earth.

We ask this through Christ the Risen Lord.
