Candidates Corner

If This Actor Can Spread the Good News, Why Not You? Are you familiar with the word stigmata? For Roman Catholics, it describes the appearance of bodily lacerations, scars and pain in locations corresponding to the wounds (for example on his hands, wrists, and feet) that Jesus suffered from his crucifixion. A few great Catholic saints, such as Francis of Assisi and Padre Pio, bore the stigmata on their bodies and suffered pain for years. A new movie has just been released about the early life of Saint Padre Pio, and the film stars Shia LeBeouf, who seems an unlikely candidate to play the great saint. LeBeouf had a reputation as a Hollywood bad boy for issues with drugs, alcohol and alleged abusive behavior. With his world spinning out of control, he even considered taking his own life. So how could a person like that portray Saint Pio? With God anything is possible, and He can use anyone to lead people to Christ. As proof, Bishop Robert Barron, the well-known Catholic cleric and theologian, recently interviewed LeBeouf, (Bishop Barron Presents | Shia LeBeouf - Padre Pio and the Friars - YouTube), and the content is enormously interesting, entertaining and informative. Strikingly, it is a real-life demonstration of what God can do in a person's life no matter how far away from the Lord they have been or how much they have lived in the world and for themselves. Amazingly, Shia LeBeouf is now a practicing Roman Catholic after previously having little faith and believing everything in life was up to him. Consider watching the interview. It takes about ninety minutes. You, too, can hear LeBeouf's sincerity and passion as he tells Bishop Barron about the Capuchin priests and sisters who helped him turn his life around and helped his spiritual journey to Christ and the Catholic faith through their love and kindness. Our baptism calls us to be like the Capuchins and LeBeouf. Tell others about Jesus and how He died for us because of His great love. If Shia LeBeouf can now proclaim his love of God, you, too, can lead people to Christ and Catholicism with your words and actions. Take the leap and answer this casting call. Maybe even consider the next Alpha! —J.T. Tuscan ☺

In your charity, please remember the souls of those who passed away, especially Roy A. Geer. A blessing service for Roy was celebrated by Msgr. Gilbert at the Dennis Daugherty Funeral Home on Thursday, September 1st. We ask God to welcome Roy and all who have gone before us into the joy of everlasting life and bring comfort and peace to their families. †

a journey of faith

RCIA—The acronym RCIA is often confusing for Catholics. This information is intended to explain RCIA and to invite you to participate... by inviting someone to attend, by attending yourself, or by joining the RCIA team.

RCIA—The letters stand for the RITE of CHRISTIAN INITIATION for ADULTS.

We welcome you... those that are not Catholic who come to Mass frequently with a Catholic friend, spouse, or family member; those that remain at home when other family members come to Mass; those that are Catholic but no longer active in practicing their faith; those who have an interest in the faith; and those Catholics hungry to learn more about the teachings of their faith. The first several weeks in the RCIA program is called INQUIRY... If you or someone has an interest, you are invited to attend the INQUIRY sessions to determine if you wish to continue. There is no fee, no books to buy, no commitment to finish the journey, no promise to become Catholic. Just come with a heart open to the Holy Spirit and allow the Holy Spirit to guide you henceforth. Consider asking someone you know to give RCIA a chance—in so many cases we have learned that the invitation or suggestion was all that someone was waiting for—to be asked—to be invited! Be that person that plants the seed... be that person that invites! In addition, we welcome new team members... you don't have to be an expert in theology or Catholic doctrine... all you need is the desire to share your faith journey with others, and to help participants in their faith journey... the Holy Spirit takes care of the rest. ☺

YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE

The Diocese of Greensburg and Pennsylvania Law requires that you have all of your trainings/clearances updated every five years in order to volunteer here at St. Mary, Mother of God Church.

To obtain or update your clearances, please go to: www.dioceseofgreensburg.org and scroll down to the bottom of the page. On the right side you will see "obtain your clearances". Click on that and you will be directed to all of the clearances/trainings needed. When you click on any one of them, you will be directed to the link. If you need help in obtaining any of the above, please call the Administrative Office at 724-295-2281. If computer assistance is required, please call Claudia and she will set-up an appointment for you in the office. There are significant penalties involved for not following the law. In order to protect the children, you, the Church and our staff and the diocese, it is of the utmost importance that this task be accomplished. ☺

Congratulations to Catherine Federline, daughter of Raissa and David Federline (niece of Rev. Thomas Federline), who is participating in her aspirancy with the Sister Servants of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus in Cresson.

She will spend the next six months becoming accustomed to the life in the convent. ☺

THE RELUCTANT SAINT: THE STORY OF ST. JOSEPH OF CUPERTINO

Maximilian Schell stars as "the flying friar," St. Joseph of Cupertino, in this story of the humble Franciscan friar. In Cupertino, Italy, Joseph's peasant mother convinces the reluctant Abbott to accept her son into the monastery. With the support of the kindly local Bishop who sees in him a great deal more than others do, and by a series of miraculous incidents, the simple but pious Joseph is ordained a priest.

DRAWING STRENGTH FROM OUR LADY OF SORROWS BY KIMBERLY HAHN

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, wife of Dr. Scott Hahn and mother of six, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.

LEADERSHIP MINISTRY

When we pray "Thy kingdom come", we acknowledge God's reign over all mankind. Jesus represents His kingdom on earth. We ask to be drawn into His kingdom in heaven at the end of time as we work toward heaven by living our lives as He wishes us to live them. "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven" - with these words we petition God that we may know and carry out His will in this life and for all mankind to do so as well. We need to prepare, to be ready for the kingdom of God.

Heavenly Father

Your loving providence accompanies us on our life's journey.

Thank you for the many gifts you have given us.

We ask that you continue to call sons and daughters from our families and parishes to serve as priests, deacons and consecrated men and women in the Diocese of Greensburg.

Send your Spirit upon us so that many will respond with great love to your call to service and leadership in your Church.

Give to those you have chosen the faith of the apostle,
the vision of the prophet, and the courage of the martyr.

Through the intercession of our Diocesan patroness,

Our Lady of the Assumption, help us to be faithful disciples of your Son by following the example of Mary.

Make us generous in sharing ourselves and our talents for the sake of your Kingdom on earth.

We ask this through Christ the Risen Lord.
