Practice Gratitude for a Healthy Spirituality and Life. This past Christmas, I gave stocking stuffer gratitude journals to my family. That’s because I started keeping one several years ago after hearing a homily suggesting one as a reminder of God’s gifts. Remember that gratitude (or thanksgiving) is a response to a gift, and all of our gifts come from God. Importantly, Eucharist (from the Greek) means thanksgiving, our Sunday liturgy expresses great gratitude to God, and Sacred Scripture is full of examples in both the Old and New Testament. Here’s my experience with the journal. Each night before bed, I write down ten things from that day for which I am grateful in a notebook. They could be big items, like living through two heart catheterizations a few years ago, or small things like playing with my granddaughters. While my journal didn’t start with ten items, my daily gratitude writings have helped to make me a more joyful, calmer and healthier person while also drawing me closer to Christ, the giver of all good gifts. But the benefits are not just my opinion. For example, psychology studies have shown that grateful people sleep better, have fewer aches and pains and deal with stress more effectively. They are also happier, more optimistic and have a widening circle of friends. Catholic author and Dynamic Catholic CEO Matthew Kelly says that gratitude is a beautiful way of expressing generosity and that generous people can help themselves and the world flourish. What do some well-known Catholic saints say about gratitude? St. Therèse of Lisieux wrote that “Jesus does not demand great action from us but simply surrender and gratitude”. Saint Teresa of Calcutta said that “The best way to show my gratitude is to accept everything, even my problems, with joy”. And Saint Vincent de Paul said, “We should spend as much time thanking God for His benefits as we do asking Him for them.” So, why not consider beginning your own gratitude journal? Begin with three items, move to five and eventually to ten. It could make for a wonderful 2023 and/or a great Lenten activity to continue throughout the year. —J.T. Tuskan ☺

PROTECTION OF THE UNBORN

Monday, January 23rd is a Day of Prayer for the Protection of the Unborn.

We are called to observe this day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting and/or giving alms.

The following is a prayer that can be said:

We praise and thank God for His goodness in creation, especially for the gift of life. We know that each life is precious and created in His image. We ask for protection for each sacred human life that He creates.

Amen.

Are you asking yourself, what is ALPHA? ALPHA is a series of twelve sessions that explore life, faith, and meaning. The format is basic: eat a meal, watch an energetic video presentation, and participate in a small group discussion. There is no charge. There is no pressure. There is no follow-up. And there is no required knowledge of what it means to be a Christian or to be Catholic. ALPHA is meant for you if you have sat at mass and silently worried about a friend, or relative, or spouse who has fallen away from the church. Maybe you know someone who feels lost. Or you, a family member or friend is hurting. If any of these scenarios resonate with you, come, and join us this spring for ALPHA. Each ALPHA session explores an aspect of the Christian faith and they are delivered from young, engaging speakers in high energy videos. Each discussion is intended to be a conversation that seeks to unpack the issues raised in the talk. There is no obligation to say anything, and there is nothing that cannot be said. So, come and see, come and share, come and explore. Lives will be transformed. ALPHA is going to be on Thursday Nights beginning March 2nd at 6:30 P.M. The sessions will take place in the Fellowship Hall. Come and explore ALPHA. Learn what others think about life's big issues. And enjoy some great food and fellowship! To register, please visit: www.stmaryfreeport.com. ☞

The Catholic Church has Fathers of the Church! They are called Fathers because they "fathered" the early church. They were leaders in the early church who taught, defended and developed Catholic doctrines. There are only about one hundred Fathers in all. To be a Father of the Church, they had to have antiquity (meaning they lived within the first 800 years of the Church, referred to as the Patristic Era.) doctrinal orthodoxy, personal holiness, and approval by the Church. Doctrinal Orthodoxy refers to "right teachings"; they preserved for us the teachings of the Apostles who received their teaching from Christ. Some of them were cranky old men, hotheads, pacifists, monks, and poets. They protected the church against heretics and preserved the truth. This seems like ancient history, but they are still relevant today. ☞

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Heavenly Father

Your loving providence accompanies us on our life's journey.

Thank you for the many gifts you have given us.

We ask that you continue to call sons and daughters from our families and parishes to serve as priests, deacons and consecrated men and women in the Diocese of Greensburg.

Send your Spirit upon us so that many will respond with great love to your call to service and leadership in your Church.

Give to those you have chosen the faith of the apostle,
the vision of the prophet, and the courage of the martyr.

Through the intercession of our Diocesan patroness,

Our Lady of the Assumption, help us to be faithful disciples of your Son by following the example of Mary.

Make us generous in sharing ourselves and our talents for the sake of your Kingdom on earth.

We ask this through Christ the Risen Lord.
