Candidates' Corner

Preacher to Who...??? When you are experienced, skilled and knowledgeable, your employer often wants you to keep working well after retirement age.

It makes good business sense, but it's also logical in the Church as well. That's why a cardinal in Rome has performed his job since 1980. The cardinal is Raniero Cantalamessa and his job is Preacher to the Pope. Did you know that such a position existed? It has since 1555, and the typical preacher does this job for about five years. Amazingly, Father Cantalamessa has served three different popes – Pope Saint John Paul II, the late Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis – operating for 43 years! Moreover, he is the longest standing papal preacher in 468 years! Why does the Pope need a papal preacher? Simply stated, the spiritual journey of a Pope requires continued growth even after his inauguration. I first saw this Capuchin friar in an Alpha video, where he endorsed Alpha and its focus on Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. While he speaks with a thick Italian accent that often requires closed captioning, the movie camera captures his robust love of Jesus and the joy of the Gospel that the cardinal radiates. In fact, he is now the subject of a feature documentary, entitled Preacher to the Popes. However, the point of the documentary is not to praise the modest and humble charismatic cardinal but rather to bring together Christians from different faith backgrounds. The film's executive producer, Deacon Darrell Wentworth, explains that the cardinal “is the only person in the world that is commonly recognized as authentically authoritative in every Christian tradition”. In addition, Wentworth exclaims that “Everybody loves this guy because he's just a humble man who has a grounded, authentic understanding of Patristics (writings of the early Church fathers)”. You have an opportunity to see this lovable and joy-filled cardinal by taking part in the next Alpha sessions at Saint Mary's that begin on Thursday, March 2nd. Register on the parish website by clicking on the Alpha link on the homepage. You can view the documentary with a subscription to Cmax.tv, which offers Christ-centered content. —J.T. Tuskan ☞

How and Why to Pray the Rosary

As we celebrate Our Lady of Lourdes this week, we invite you to learn more about the Rosary! Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. John Sehorn as they discuss how they pray the Rosary and how it has changed their lives!

Bakhita: From Slave to Saint

Bakhita: From Slave to Saint tells the incredible story of St. Josephine Bakhita. Originally born in Sudan, Josephine was kidnapped by slavers and was eventually sold to a merchant in Italy. By the grace of God, she lived a heroic life of forgiveness and mercy which led her to become a saint.

Next Saturday, February 11th, is the feast day of Our Lady of Lourdes. The Virgin Mary appeared to a young girl, Bernadette Soubirous, in a grotto in Lourdes, France while she was gathering firewood with her sister and a neighbor. Our Lady appeared to her seventeen more times and asked for prayer and penitence for the conversion of sinners. On one occasion, Mary asked her to drink from the muddy water of the spring in the grotto. While she drank, the water became increasingly clear. This grotto is now a Shrine, and the water is said to have healing properties. This site is visited by millions of people each year. ☺

Eucharistic REVIVAL

Registration is now open for KNOW HIM: The Last Supper and the Gift of the Eucharist, set for Thursday, March 9th, at 2:00 and 6:00 P.M. at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Greensburg. This experiential event, part of the Diocese of Greensburg Eucharistic Revival efforts, begins with a prayer service led by Bishop Larry J. Kulick followed by a keynote address regarding the gift of the Eucharist from Monsignor Raymond E. Riffle, Vicar General of the Diocese of Greensburg and Rector of Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Greensburg. Afterward, attendees will make their way through the rooms at Christ Our Shepherd Center for an unforgettable Eucharistic journey. One room will feature a life-sized print of The Last Supper mural created by Italian Renaissance artist Leonardo da Vinci, along with an explanation of its scriptural nuances from art historian Liz Lev, a former didactic consultant for the Vatican Museums. Another room will feature Monsignor Michael J. Begolly, Pastor of Mother of Sorrows Parish, Murrysburg, discussing his recent pilgrimage to the Holy Land and preparing to receive the Eucharist. Father Christopher J. Pujol, Parochial Vicar of Blessed Sacrament Cathedral Parish, will lead a discussion and demonstration in another room about the significance of washing feet. Bishop Kulick himself will discuss the bread of life and the symbolism of Easter bread while guests sample paska bread. This event is free of charge as part of the Diocese of Greensburg's Eucharistic Revival efforts. Seating is limited. The public is welcome. Please visit: DioceseofGreensburg.org/EucharisticRevival to register. ☺

Men in the Diocese of Greensburg are invited to get out of their comfort zone and make Catholicism a way of life at "THE WELL – BE NOT AFRAID", the Diocesan Men's Conference, Saturday, March 25th, at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Greensburg. It will be a day of inspiring speakers, Eucharistic Adoration, Reconciliation and Mass celebrated by Bishop Larry J. Kulick. Cost is $50.00 and includes lunch. Scholarships are available through the Diocesan Francis Fund. Register now at: DioceseofGreensburg.org/TheWell. ☺

February Faithful Challenge: FORGIVENESS

"Forgiveness is the essence of love which can understand mistakes and mend them." – Pope Francis Throughout the month of February, Bishop Kulick is challenging the faithful of the Diocese of Greensburg to offer and seek forgiveness.

"What I'm asking you to do is reflect upon how you have harmed or even how you have been harmed by somebody, and make an outreach for reconciliation and forgiveness," Bishop Kulick said. "It may be as simple as making a phone call, sending a text or writing a letter. Or maybe just performing a kind deed of charity in reparation for sins you have committed."

Each month throughout 2023, Bishop Kulick will issue "Faithful Challenges" as part of the National Eucharistic Revival.

Challenge yourself to reach out by:

- Writing a letter
- Sending a text
- Making a phone call
- Performing a kind deed

Eucharistic Revival is a three-year process initiated by the USCCB to invite the faithful to reflect upon the mystery and meaning of the sacrament of the Eucharist in our lives. While much of year one involves providing devotional and formational opportunities for parish and Diocesan staff, you, too, can be a part of Eucharistic Revival right now! Visit the Diocese of Greensburg Facebook page every Thursday to participate in a Faithful Challenge, and hopefully you will feel yourself growing in a relationship with Christ. Visit the Eucharistic Revival resource page at DioceseofGreensburg.org/EucharisticRevival for videos, prayers and gathering dates. Consider Bishop Kulick's invitation to become an intentional disciple this year!

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Heavenly Father

Your loving providence accompanies us on our life's journey.

Thank you for the many gifts you have given us.

We ask that you continue to call sons and daughters from our families and parishes to serve as priests, deacons and consecrated men and women in the Diocese of Greensburg.

Send your Spirit upon us so that many will respond with great love to your call to service and leadership in your Church.

Give to those you have chosen the faith of the apostle, the vision of the prophet, and the courage of the martyr.

Through the intercession of our Diocesan patroness,

Our Lady of the Assumption, help us to be faithful disciples of your Son by following the example of Mary.

Make us generous in sharing ourselves and our talents for the sake of your Kingdom on earth.

We ask this through Christ the Risen Lord.
