LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Numbers 21:4B-9

With their patience worn out by the journey, the people complained against God and Moses, "Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in this desert, where there is no food or water? We are disgusted with this wretched food!" In punishment the LORD sent among the people saraph serpents, which bit the people so that many of them died. Then the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned in complaining against the LORD and you. Pray the LORD to take the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people, and the LORD said to Moses, "Make a saraph and mount it on a pole, and if any who have been bitten look at it, they will live." Moses accordingly made a bronze serpent and mounted it on a pole, and whenever anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 78:1BC-2, 34-35, 36-37, 38

Do not for - get the works of the Lord.

1. Hearken, my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable, I will utter mysteries from of old. R/.	2. While he slew them they sought him and inquired after God again, Remembering that God was their rock and the Most High God, their redeemer. R/.	3. But they flattered him with their mouths and lied to him with their tongues, Though their hearts were not steadfast toward him, nor were they faithful to his covenant. R/.	4. But he, being merciful, forgave their sin and destroyed them not; Often he turned back his anger and let none of his wrath be roused. R/.
--	---	---	---

SECOND READING Philippians 2:6-11

Brothers and sisters: Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

L- le- lu- ia, al- le- lu- ia, al- le- lu- ia.

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your Cross you have redeemed the world. R/.

GOSPEL John 3:13-17

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

The Shape of the Liturgy

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

September 14th, the feast day of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, is the day the Church celebrates the discovery of the True Cross of Jesus Christ. A very interesting historical account surrounds this ancient feast day. The Roman Emperor Constantine's mother, St. Helena, went on pilgrimage to the Holy Land to locate where the events in the life of Jesus Christ occurred, and to preserve the relics of the Faith that remained there. One of her goals was to find the place of Jesus' crucifixion and the very Cross on which he was hung.

Through interviewing many locals and with the assistance of the Bishop of Jerusalem, St. Macarius, she discovered the spot and found the True Cross which had been hidden. According to a church historian, the identity of the True Cross was confirmed by a miraculous healing through the prayer of St. Macarius. The date of this discovery and miracle, according to tradition, was 3 May 326 A.D. St. Helena had a church built on the original site of Jesus' crucifixion, burial, and resurrection, known as the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Her son Constantine dedicated this church on September 14 in the year 335 A.D., and to this day, the Stations of the Cross in Jerusalem (or the Via Dolorosa), still end at this very spot.

The Church has a long tradition of venerating the Cross, always having crucifixes in prominent places. Veneration the Cross is a liturgical tradition on Good Friday. It is also why Catholics keep crosses and crucifixes in their homes, usually on their wall or above their doorway. A cross or a crucifix put in a place of honor is a sure mark of a Christian home. If you don't have a cross or crucifix in your home, consider choosing one on this special feast day, have it blessed, and place it in a prominent place in your home where it can be honored and venerated as a reminder of the price Our Lord paid for our salvation.

"Lift High the Cross", our processional hymn today, was written in 1887 by the Rev. George Kitchen, Dean of Winchester Cathedral. He was inspired by the story of the Emperor Constantine's conversion to Christianity after seeing a cross with "In hoc signo vinces" (in this sign conquer) on it. He had the Sign of the Cross placed on the shields of his soldiers, and indeed under this sign, and although vastly outnumbered, he won the Battle of Malvern Hill, defeating his rival and making his Emperor of Rome. To honor Christ his Victor, he built a church on the spot, the Church of the Savior (known today at St John Lateran). This hymn was intended as a festival hymn, and is often sung during Lent and Holy Week, and on 14 September. The hymn tune or music is programmatic: the music reflects the words so that when we sing "Lift high the Cross", the music also goes from low to high. The beautiful and inspiring words of this hymn need no explanation. Following Constantine's example, may the Sign of the Cross enable us to conquer in the "battles" and crosses we all encounter from time to time in our own lives, may this Sign inspire us to walk more closely in the foot steps of Our Lord.
