LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading - 2 Chronicles 5:6-10, 13-6:2

King Solomon and the entire community of Israel gathered about him before the ark were sacrificing sheep and oxen so numerous that they could not be counted or numbered. The priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place beneath the wings of the cherubim in the sanctuary, the holy of holies of the temple. The cherubim had their wings spread out over the place of the ark, sheltering the ark and its poles from above. The poles were long enough so that their ends could be seen from that part of the holy place nearest the sanctuary; however, they could not be seen beyond. The ark has remained there to this day. There was nothing in it but the two tablets which Moses put there on Horeb, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with the children of Israel at their departure from Egypt. When the trumpeters and singers were heard as a single voice praising and giving thanks to the LORD, and when they raised the sound of the trumpets, cymbals and other musical instruments to "give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever," the building of the LORD'S temple was filled with a cloud. The priests could not continue to minister because of the cloud, since the LORD'S glory filled the house of God. Then Solomon said: "The LORD intends to dwell in the dark cloud. I have truly built you a princely house and dwelling, where you may abide forever."

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4ab, 8-9

✠ 8. c

LET us go re-joic-ing to the house of the Lord.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD."
And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem. R/. | 2. Jerusalem, built as a city with compact unity.
To it the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD. R/. | 3. Because of my relatives and friends
I will say, "Peace be within you!"
Because of the house of the LORD, our God,
I will pray for your good. R/. |
|---|---|---|

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17

Brothers and sisters: You are God's building, According to the grace of God given to me, like a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building upon it. But each one must be careful how he builds upon it, for no one can lay a foundation other than the one that is there, namely, Jesus Christ. Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy.

Gospel Acclamation - Ezekiel 37:27

My dwelling shall be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people. R/.

Gospel - John 2:13-22

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money-changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his Body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

The Shape of the Liturgy - The Dedication of the Church

"Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." Psalm 96:2

Today, the anniversary of the dedication of our church building here at St. Mary's is an especially graced occasion. It is an occasion to grow in faith as we contemplate the beauty and holiness of this house of prayer we are blessed with. It is a holy place, made a holy because the building together with the Altar were blessed by the bishop when the building was completed and ready for use as God's House of Prayer. It continues to be made holy by the Masses said on its Altar, the baptisms, confirmations, confessions, funerals, Stations of the Cross, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and the countless votive candles burned, to say nothing of the private prayers we all make all during our lives in this holy place.

The church building reminds us of the beauty of heaven and of God our heavenly Father; it lifts our thoughts to the transcendent. Beauty is an attribute of God, and we are surrounded in beauty throughout the church. As we enter, our attention is immediately drawn to the Altar where the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is celebrated, and to the Tabernacle sheltering the Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The holy water font at the door of the church in which we make the Sign of the Cross reminds us of our baptism in Christ. The ceiling of the church where the congregation sits looks like a boat turned upside down. It is called the nave which comes from the Latin word for ship, an early Christian symbol of the Church. This reminds us of the Ship (or Bark/Barque) from the Gospels, when the Twelve Apostles on several occasions were out in a boat on the Sea of Galilee, a storm would come up threatening to capsize and drown them, but Jesus would appear and "still the storm." May the Lord through his Church continue his work of stilling the storms which sometimes arise in our own lives.

Stained glass windows often speak to us of the life of Christ our Savior. Statutes of the saints, our prayer partners, remind us that we are not alone in our spiritual journey through this life on our way to sainthood. The Stations of the Cross remind us of the suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ, the price He paid for our salvation. The Confessional reminds us of the mercy of God and of his tremendous love for each of us. The organ, the king of instruments, leads and supports our music. The smell of incense reminds us of the Presence of God here in His House, and of our prayers rising to Him. Actually, everything in a church helps to teach us the Catholic Faith.

All combine to present us with an other-worldliness, a transcendence. You know instinctively that this is a place of quiet, a place of reverence, a place of peace and dignity, a place set apart, a holy place, a place which makes the spiritual life easily accessible for our growth in holiness and conversion of life. It is a place which makes a person want to pray. May we all celebrate the dedication of St. Mary's this year with a renewed sense of thanksgiving and of how much we are blessed through this our holy place of worship and praise.

Liturgy of the Eucharist at 8:30 AM in Incarnate Word Chapel is optional.

ST. MARY'S PARISH FESTIVAL - SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2022

Believe it or not, it is already time to start preparing for the Parish Festival. Your help is needed as we prepare for the festival during October before the busy Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays in November and December.

1. Donations for the Raffle - Consider making a monetary donation to the raffle. Typically, we have Visa gift cards as our prizes along with other special gift cards. Donations of all sizes are welcome and may be combined with other donations to make bigger prizes. Unless you have a specific request or arrangement, allow us to buy the gift cards. You can drop off your raffle donation at the parish office or in the collection plate with a note on it.

2. Meal Expenses - Remember that delicious BBQ brisket meal from past festivals? We have Mike Pozzi booked for this upcoming festival for the same wonderful meal.
