SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

INTRODUCTORY RITES

*The Mass begins with the Processional Hymn.
The celebrant and other ministers enter in procession and reverence the altar with a kiss.
The altar is a symbol of Christ at the heart of the assembly and so deserves this special reverence.*

The celebrant invites the gathered assembly to pray and, after a brief silence, proclaims the prayer of the day. The Opening Prayer gives a context for the celebration.*

Almighty and merciful God, may no earthly undertaking hinder those who set out in haste to meet your Son, but may our learning of heavenly wisdom gain us admittance to his company. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

*The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts and the altar.

Blood of Christ. The celebrant blesses and praises God for these gifts and places them on the altar.*

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Be pleased, O Lord, with our humble prayers and offerings, and, since we have no merits to plead our cause, come, we pray, to our rescue with the protection of your mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PREFACE DIALOGUE      Pew Missal, page 11

*After a brief introductory dialogue, the celebrant begins the Preface.
The Preface tells of the wonderful actions of God, both throughout history and in our lives, giving thanks to God for all these things.*

We have entered the most important part of the Mass. This sequence of prayers contains the consecration which is the heart of the Mass. By the power of the Holy Spirit, through the words and actions of these prayers, the priest accomplishes the great work of the Mass: bringing Christ Himself down upon our altar, so that we may offer Him to God. Our gifts of bread and wine, representing ourselves, are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ. Then the priest offers Christ, and ourselves in union with Christ, to God.

MEM. ACCLAMATION      ICEL Chant- Save us...      Pew Missal, page 39

COMMUNION RITE

The Communion Rite begins with the Lord's Prayer. Jesus taught this prayer to his disciples when they asked how to pray. In this prayer, the people join their voices to pray for the coming of God's kingdom. We ask God to provide for our needs, forgive our sins, and bring us to the joy of heaven.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Replenished by the food of spiritual nourishment, we humbly beseech you, O Lord, that, through our partaking in this mystery, you may teach us to judge wisely the things of earth and hold firm to the things of heaven. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.      STAND

The Shape of the Liturgy

On Jordan's Bank the Baptist Cries

Advent does not have an official patron saint, but if it did that saint would surely be John the Baptist. This is evident both through our reading from Sacred Scripture, and through our hymns, one of which is the well know "On Jordan's Bank the Baptist Cries." John the Baptist's announcement "Prepare the way for the Lord" (Matt. 3:3, a quote from Isa. 40:3) is the basis for this Advent hymn. Stanzas 1 and 2 apply that message to people today; stanza 3 is a confession by God's people of their need for salvation; stanza 4 is a prayer for healing and love; stanza 5 is a doxology. This much-loved Advent text is laced with various scriptural phrases.

The original version of the hymn tune Winchester New by George Wittwe first appeared in 1690. The text of this hymn was written by Charles Coffin (died 1749) who was a Catholic and composed a total of 95 hymns in French; they are noted for their simplicity and healing character. The Rev. John Chandler, an Anglican clergyman who in died 1876, was one of the most successful translators of hymns, composed the music for this hymn.

And the message of John the Baptist for the people of his day who came from Jerusalem and the surrounding country side to hear him preach in the desert: John consistently did one thing. He pointed people to Jesus and told his hearers to be prepared for his arrival. And surely that is John's message to us in our own day, especially considering the secular society, the culture, and the world we live in which man has for all intents and purposes become God, the only sin is inconvenience, and there are no longer any absolutes of right and wrong, good and bad, healthy and diseased; and there are no longer set any boundaries for our behaviour, all of which Pope Benedict XVI defined as the "Dictatorship of Relativism."
