Spiritual Notes:

The prophet Isaiah admonishes the people for their sinful behavior. In the verses before our reading, we learn that they are carrying out their own pursuits on fast days rather than doing the will of God. The prophet calls them to share bread with the hungry, house with the oppressed and the homeless and clothe the naked as ways to observe God's laws. If they do these things their light shall rise for you in the darkness, and they will come to know God's blessings. Paul writes to the Corinthians that he did not come with sublimity of words out of wisdom. He does not claim the status of a great orator. What he preaches is the mystery of God, which can only be understood with the aid of the Spirit. His message rests on the power of God, who raised Christ from the dead. His message is concerned with Jesus Christ, and he crucified. For the nonbelievers, Christ crucified does not make sense, but for the believer, it is the means of our salvation. Our faith rests not on human wisdom but on the power of God. You are the salt of the earth, Jesus tells us in today's Gospel. In Jesus's world salt is very valuable, being used in sacrifices as a preservation and to add flavor. But its usefulness can be lost, and then it is thrown out and trampled underfoot. Jesus goes on to say, You are the light of the world. A light's purpose is to illuminate. So too your light must shine before others, not that others will praise us for our good deeds, but that they may glorify your heavenly Father. As children of God, we are called to bring God's light into the world, leading others to praise God.

For Reflection: What can I do to make holy days and fast days more focused on God and my faith? How can I better fulfill my vocation to be salt of the earth and light of the world?

Help us in that endeavor, as we strive to work together - ordained, religious and laity. Please make our parish amazing, through Your power and Your grace. Amen.*

Notas Espirituales:

Malaquías es el último libro del Antiguo Testamento católico. Fechado en el siglo V antes de Cristo, las palabras del profeta anticipan una nueva era. Malaquías se encuentra con mucha maldad en medio de su pueblo. Incluso después de su regreso del exilio y la restauración del templo, que no andan en los caminos de Dios. Malaquías anuncia la venida del Día del Señor, precedido por “mi mensajero” que “preparará el camino delante de mí”. Este mensajero será como “fuego purificador”, la purificación de las personas. El escrito de la carta a los Hebreos habla de Jesús como uniéndose a nosotros a través del sufrimiento y la muerte. Jesús liberó a “los que por el temor a la muerte / habían sido sometidos a la esclavitud”. Cristo está presente como un sumo sacerdote compasivo y fiel” cuyo sacrificio trae como propiciación por nuestros pecados. Esperamos con él, la luz de Dios a las naciones, para nuestra salvación. Su presencia en el mundo trae la luz y la vida. El Evangelio de Lucas representa a María y a José como piadosos, Judíos observan cumplir una ley en Éxodo requiriendo, hijos primogénitos estar “consagrado al Señor”. Lucas combina dos requisitos diferentes de la ley: la presentación de Jesús en el templo y la purificación de María. Su purificación requiere una ofrenda de “un par de tórtolas o dos pichones”. Al llegar al templo, se encuentran dos individuos piadosos que reconocen la importancia de Jesús. Simeón declara que Jesús es el Mesías prometido; Ana, la profetisa, reconoce a Jesús como el que va a traer “la redención de Jerusalén”.

Para la reflexión: ¿De qué manera la luz de Cristo brilla en mi vida? ¿Cómo puedo yo, como Ana, difundir las buenas nuevas de la venida de Cristo a los demás?
