Spiritual Notes

The Book of Wisdom, dated to the century before Christ, served as a text to enlighten and encourage the Jewish people in Jesus' day. Today's reading emphasizes God's mercy and supremacy. God, who is "master of might" judges "with clemency." We are called to learn from God's example of leniency that those who are just must be kind. Master over all, God is also lenient to all, giving us reason to hope that we would allow repentance. As the maker of all, God does not desire us to perish, but to share in eternal life. Matthew presents us with another of Jesus' agricultural parables today, though the message is quite different from last week's. In the parable of the weeds among the wheat, we encounter the notion of God's judgment. In the Old Testament, the image of a harvest is employed as a metaphor for divining judgment; this imagery is familiar to Jesus' disciples. Although we might look to pull up the weeds sown among the wheat, God allows the good and the bad to exist side by side, "until harvest." This is a sign of God's mercy, for there is a possibility that the sinner will repent - the "weed" will become "wheat." God's patience anticipates the conversion of sinners. Paul writes that in our weakness, we experience the assistance of the Spirit who intercedes for us. On our own, we are inadequate; "we do not know how to pray as we ought." Our salvation depends on God. This is why we are a people of hope called to live lives of righteousness and to entrust ourselves to God's mercy.

For reflection: Have I experienced God's patience in my life? What does it teach me? What is my approach to the "weeds" I encounter in life: judgment or mercy?

Walking with Moms in Need

The Parishes of Tuscarawas County recently joined a nationwide effort to increase outreach and support for pregnant and parenting mothers entitled, "Walking with Moms in Need." You are invited to follow our journey. We are also inviting you to join us in prayer for all of the mothers and families who are in need of support. But mostly, we are inviting you to join us in forming the most expansive network of people who want to do better at "Walking With Moms in Need."

To follow us, use the forms located in the vestibule to provide your name and email address. If you prefer, you can also share that information with us on our local website at WWMINTusc.com. Once a month, we will provide updates, progress reports, and stories of how we as a community can participate in the "Walking with Moms in Need" program.

To learn more about the nationwide initiative, you can visit walkingwithmoms.com.

Thank you for joining us in this important journey!

Leave a Legacy of Love and Faith

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field... He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom." – MATTHEW 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all "good seeds." We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

Learn how you can put God in all things by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

What does it mean to form my conscience?

Catholics have a long tradition of engagement in the public square. Sometimes that engagement requires making difficult moral decisions that impact our own lives and those of others. Our conscience can help guide the decisions we make. The Second Vatican Council guides us: “Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one’s] heart more specifically: do this, shun that” (Gaudium et Spes 16). However, our conscience doesn’t just come to us when we are born. We must work throughout our lives to form it through prayer, learning, and conversation.

How do I form my conscience?

It takes time to form our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular, real-life situations. The Church teaches that it is important to work continually on conscience formation so we can be prepared to make decisions whenever the opportunity arises. Some specific ideas to form your conscience are:

- 1) Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
- 2) Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
- 3) Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
- 4) Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 18).

Additionally, it is important to consider how our community of faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

- 1) Seek the prudent advice and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
- 2) Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
- 3) Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
- 4) Regularly partake in an examination of conscience to hear God’s voice in your life.¹

Doing the work of forming our consciences can seem daunting. Fortunately, we have many church teachings that can help us in this important task. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is an important resource for U.S. Catholics and helps us prayerfully reflect on how we can apply Church teaching in our civic life. “Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere “feeling” about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil.”²

Here are some questions for further reflection:

1. When has my conscience guided me to “do good and avoid evil”?
2. What are some key resources I can use to form my conscience?
3. Forming conscience is a “lifelong task.” What do I do to regularly form my conscience? What more should I do?

Notas Espirituales

El libro de la Sabiduría, fechada en el siglo antes de Cristo, sirvió como un texto para iluminar y animar al pueblo judío en los tiempos de Jesús. La lectura de hoy hace hincapié en la misericordia y la supremacía de Dios. Dios, que es "maestro de poder, los" jueces "con clemencia." Estamos llamados a aprender del ejemplo de la clemencia de Dios "aquellos que son justo debe ser bondadoso." Amo sobre todo, Dios también es "clemente para todos," que nos motiva y nos esperar a que nos arrepintamos. Como el creador de todo, Dios no desea que nos perdamos, sino que compartamos en la vida eterna.

Mateo nos presenta otra de las parábolas agrícolas de Jesús hoy en día, aunque el mensaje es bastante diferente de la semana pasada. En la parábola de la cizaña entre el trigo, nos encontramos con la idea del juicio de Dios. En el Antiguo Testamento, la imagen de una cosecha se emplea como una metáfora para el juicio divino; esta imagen es familiar a los discípulos de Jesús. Aunque podríamos mirar arrancar las malas hierbas por abajo entre el trigo, Dios permite que los buenos y los malos convivan, "hasta la cosecha." Este es un signo de la misericordia de Dios, porque existe la posibilidad de que el pecador se arrepienta que "la mala hierba" se convertirá en "trigo." La paciencia de Dios prevé la conversión de los pecadores.

Pablo escribe que en nuestra debilidad experimentamos la ayuda del Espíritu quien intercede por nosotros. Nosotros mismos somos insuficientes; "nosotros no sabemos cómo debemos pedir en la oración." Nuestra salvación depende de Dios. Es por ello que somos un pueblo de esperanza, llamados a vivir una vida de rectitud y confiarnos a la misericordia de Dios.

Para la reflexión: ¿He experimentado la paciencia de Dios en mi vida? ¿Qué me enseña? ¿Cuál es mi enfoque de las "malas hierbas" que encuentro en la vida: el juicio o la misericordia?

Por favor, recuerde en su oración, a todos los enfermos, al salir de casa, y la recuperación de nuestra parroquia. Además, orar por aquellos que sufren de condiciones físicas o mentales.
