"WELL DONE MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT"

In the parable of the talents, the landowner gives different quantities of money to three servants and asks them to invest. Two invested and got a return. The third buried the money and was criticized for not showing any initiative and not showing any return on the investment. This parable is intended to be applied to us. How have we put to use the gifts that God has given to us to further his kingdom? How much of my income is wasted on areas that are ungodly? Well, maybe it's time to change that. Do we invest in family and friendship? If not, maybe we can do better in that area. When have we stepped out in faith and supported a ministry, a person who is doing charitable works of mercy? How have we stepped out and put ourself on the line for God? This parable is one to get us thinking. All we have is from God. What are we doing with it?

En la parábola de los talentos, el terrateniente da diferentes cantidades de dinero a tres sirvientes y les pide que inviertan. Dos invirtieron y obtuvieron un retorno. El tercero enterró el dinero y fue criticado por no mostrar ninguna iniciativa y no mostrar ningún retorno de la inversión. Esta parábola está destinada a ser aplicada a nosotros. ¿Cómo hemos utilizado los dones que Dios nos ha dado para promover su reino? ¿Cuánto de mis ingresos se desperdicia en áreas impías? Bueno, tal vez sea hora de cambiar eso. ¿Invertimos en la familia y la amistad? Si no, tal vez podamos hacerlo mejor en esa área. ¿Cuándo hemos dado un paso de fe y apoyado a un ministerio, a una persona que está haciendo obras caritativas de misericordia? ¿Cómo hemos dado un paso adelante y nos hemos arriesgado por Dios? Esta parábola nos hace pensar. Todo lo que tenemos es de Dios. ¿Qué estamos haciendo con ello?

The Mass 101: Incense: Part II: When can incense be used?

Incienso: Parte II: ¿Cuándo se puede utilizar el incienso?

El incienso se utiliza para significar santificación, purificación y elevación de las oraciones. Teniendo esto en cuenta, el incienso se puede usar en muchas ocasiones en la Iglesia, pero se usa más notablemente en la Misa y cuando se expone el Santísimo Sacramento (adoración). Para la Misa no es obligatorio, pero en ocasiones solemnes como Navidad y Pascua, puede elevar la ocasión.

Incense is used to signify sanctification, purification, and the lifting up of prayers. With these in mind, incense can be used on many occasions in the Church, but is most notably used at Mass and when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed (adoration). For Mass, it is not required but on solemn occasions such as Christmas and Easter, it can elevate the occasion.

In the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, incense may be used during the entrance procession; at the beginning of Mass, to incense the altar; at the procession and proclamation of the Gospel; at the offertory, to incense the offerings, altar, priest, and people; and at the elevation of the Sacred Host and chalice of Precious Blood after the consecration. The priest may also incense the Crucifix and the Paschal Candle if present.

During funeral Masses, the priest at the final commendation may incense the coffin, both as a sign of honor to the body of the deceased, which became the temple of the Holy Spirit at Baptism and as a sign of the faithful's prayers for the deceased rising to God.

During adoration, the Blessed Sacrament which is exposed in the monstrance is incensed two times. The first is when it is exposed in the monstrance (exposition) and at the end before the Blessed Sacrament is put back into the Tabernacle (benediction).

The usage of incense adds a sense of solemnity and mystery to the Mass. The visual imagery of the smoke and the smell remind us of what is beyond us and the mystery of the Mass linking heaven with earth and allows us to enter into the presence of God.

En la Instrucción General del Misal Romano se puede utilizar incienso durante la procesión de entrada; al inicio de la Misa, inciensar el altar; en la procesión y proclamación del Evangelio; en el ofertorio, para incensar las ofrendas, el altar, el sacerdote y el pueblo; y en la elevación de la Sagrada Hostia y cáliz de la Preciosa Sangre después de la consagración. El sacerdote también puede inciensar el Crucifijo y el Cirio Pascual si están presentes.

Durante las misas fúnebres, el sacerdote en la recomendación final puede inciensar el ataúd, tanto como signo de honor al cuerpo del difunto que se convirtió en templo del Espíritu Santo en el bautismo, como como signo de las oraciones de los fieles por el difunto resucitado. a Dios.

Durante la adoración, el Santísimo Sacramento que está expuesto en la custodia se inciensa dos veces. La Primera es cuando se expone en la custodia (exposición) y al final antes de que el Santísimo Sacramento sea devuelto al Sagrario (bendición).

El uso de incienso añade una sensación de solemnidad y misterio a la Misa. Las imágenes visuales del humo y el olor nos recuerdan lo que está más allá de nosotros y el misterio de la Misa que une el cielo con la tierra y nos permite entrar en la presencia de Dios.

Park and Play:

Last week Fr. Mike introduced our campaign to construct a covered play area and provide more parking. It is a joint campaign from the church and school and is a much-needed project to help the kids play without getting soaked, to enable us to do more activities outside and to increase our parking area so we can more easily access the church grounds. Please make a pledge and help support the campaign with your prayers, enthusiasm, and contributions. Our goal is to raise $500,000 for this project. If we all do our part we can look forward to a much-needed addition to our school and church.

Estaciona y juega

La semana pasada el P. Mike presentó nuestra campaña para construir un área de juegos cubierta y proporcionar más estacionamiento. Es una campaña conjunta de la iglesia y la escuela y es un proyecto muy necesario para ayudar a los niños a jugar sin empaparse, permitirnos realizar más actividades al aire libre y aumentar nuestra área de estacionamiento para que podamos acceder más fácilmente a los terrenos de la iglesia. Por favor, haga una promesa y ayude a apoyar la campaña con sus oraciones, entusiasmo y contribuciones. Nuestro objetivo es recaudar $500,000 para este proyecto. Si todos hacemos nuestra parte, podemos esperar una adición muy necesaria a nuestra escuela e iglesia.

PETITION TO ST. JOSEPH

St. Joseph,

You know the yearning in the hearts of married couples pursuing adoption. They have so much love to give and wish to share that love with a child.

As you took Mary and Jesus into your home at Nazareth, may the grace of parenthood also be granted for such as these. We beg your intercession before the Father.

St. Joseph, foster father of Jesus, pray for us.
