Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Founded in the good news of Christ that "God so loved the world that he gave (us) his only Son" (Jn 3:16) and knowing that he (Christ) "came that we might have life—life in all fullness" (Jn 10:10) and rooted in Jesus' command to "Love one another as I have loved you" (Jn 13:34), we the members of Christ the Redeemer Parish commit ourselves:

- To foster an understanding and sharing of Christ's message
- To celebrate the glory of God in liturgy which recognizes our diversity and calls us to oneness in God's presence
- To challenge the faithful to respond to Christ's call to meet the needs of all people with compassion and charity.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR ENGLISH K-6 DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
Dear Parents,
Please register your precious ones so that they may attend "faith formation" this year! God has given us deep love in our lives . . . Jesus Christ and the love that flows between Him and Our Father...this love is the Holy Spirit! We invite you to bring your children to religious education to learn and put into practice our faith. We want to teach our children how to love and care for creation, neighbors and to learn about prayer, morals, and sacraments. We want each of our children to be prepared for the Sacraments and to receive the "real Presence of Love" in the Eucharist. Please register your children so we can plan our classes. Let me know if you have any questions; I'm here to help.
Blessings,
Hunter

INITIATION

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS (RCIA)

…the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.

In the First Reading, Elijah struggles at the point of death to journey through the desert. He rests beneath a broom tree and an angel ministering to him bids him eat of a hearth cake and drink from a jug. Twice he does this, dozing in between. He is then able to rise and complete his journey 40 days through the desert to the sacred place of God, Mountain Horeb.
Continuing where we left off last week, the Jews respond with questions and doubts to Jesus' proclamation, "I am the bread of life." Like other Gospel stories, they see him as the carpenter's son from Nazareth, nothing particular remarkable. But he reminds them that even their remarkable ancestors ate bread from Heaven and died. The bread that he offers is different. It is his very being and reason for existence. And he will give of his flesh for the life of the world.

Do you believe that God labors to sustain and enable you and that the Lord, even now, offers you your very life to live completely? Do you wish to know more about this awesome relationship with God?

If you are an unbaptized Adult or have an unbaptized child over the age of 7 interested in becoming catholic through the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and communion? Are you from a different denomination and interested in becoming Catholic? Please contact Jay Cuasay, Director of Faith Formation at 703-430-0811 ext. 112 or jay.ctr@gmail.com.
