

Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Founded in the good news of Christ that “God so loved the world that he gave (us) his only Son” (Jn 3:16) and knowing that he (Christ) “came that we might have life—life in all fullness” (Jn 10:10) and rooted in Jesus’ command to “Love one another as I have loved you” (Jn 13:34), we the members of Christ the Redeemer Parish commit ourselves:

- To foster an understanding and sharing of Christ’s message
- To celebrate the glory of God in liturgy which recognizes our diversity and calls us to oneness in God’s presence
- To challenge the faithful to respond to Christ’s call to meet the needs of all people with compassion and charity.

INITIATIONRITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS (RCIA)Third Sunday of Easter

Again, we hear in the First Reading from Acts how the Apostles have taken to heart the Risen Jesus' message "Do not be afraid" as they are brought before the Sanhedrin and are "rejoicing that they have been found worthy to suffer the dishonor for the sake of the name."

The Gospel of John gives us another encounter with the Risen Lord, who appears on the shore, not just to the "doubting Thomas" of last week, but to Peter and John, the first Apostles who ran to the empty tomb when they heard Mary's news that first Easter morning.

Jesus offers them breakfast of bread and fish reminding them of his wondrous deeds and goes further to address Simon Peter, who professes his love for Christ.

May our Easter Joy embrace the abundance of what Christ offers to us and our neophytes, aware of the risks we may face, but also aware of God's abundant mercy, forgiveness of sins, and responsibility for the needs of the flock.

If you are an unbaptized adult or have an unbaptized child over the age of 7 interested in becoming catholic through the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and communion or are from a different denomination and interested in becoming Catholic, please contact Jay Cuasay, Director of Faith Formation at 703-430-0811 ext. 130 or jay.ctr@gmail.com.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia.
Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
