Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

From the desk of Father Barnes

Justice has been defined as giving someone their due. The woman in the Gospel, in accord with the Law, deserved death. Yet justice without mercy becomes cold, it becomes hard, it needs to be tempered. Jesus helps us to understand justice, for in Him mercy and justice perfectly reside, they are not in opposition. Jesus did not overlook what the woman had done, He said to her, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more" (Jn 8). He didn't overlook the fact that she needed to change, yet he was merciful.

Lent is a very good season to reflect on how just we really are, especially if we are tempted to condemn others. Note that the only one left standing with the woman was Jesus, the only one who had not sinned. And of course He did not stone her to death, but rather lovingly called her to repentance.

Before we condemn any one else, let's consider how just we have been. Do we do perfectly the work for which we are remunerated? Do we fully pay what we owe people for services rendered? Are we responsible in the way we exercise those rights and duties that can influence the activities of the institutions to which we belong? Do we make good use of our time at work? Do we defend other people's good name? Do we stand up for those who are weakest? Do we quash defamatory criticisms which may sometimes spring up in our midst?...This is how we show our love for justice" (In Conversation with God. Scepter. Volume 2, p. 229).

Justice is giving someone their due, yet we are called to be merciful in our application of justice when it comes to faults of others, while being diligent when it comes to giving others what we owe them.

God bless,

Fr. Barnes

Confirmation folders are due and must be turned in by March 16 unless special arrangements have been made with Mrs. Chlan. Interviews for Confirmation students in Year 2 (10th Grade) will begin April 6 and continue throughout April. Our 10th graders will be confirmed at the Cathedral in St. Paul on Tuesday, May 24 at 7:00pm.

R.C.I.A.
The elect are those not baptized but are preparing to enter the church at the Easter vigil. The scrutinies are celebrated during the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent for only the elect. The scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. During the week, the elect will be presented with The Creed and the Lord's Prayer. We ask the parish to keep praying for our elect and candidates who are all preparing to enter the church at the Easter Vigil.

Dead Theologians Society: Grades 9-12 are invited to attend the meeting of the Dead Theologians Society. The next meeting is Sunday, Apr. 10 from 6:00-9:00 p.m. at the St. Nicholas Campus. (Confirmation students, this will count for one Faith Enrichment event.)

Lord, Let it be You who lives in me today.

Did You Remember Your Gift?

It is only natural when you are invited to a party – whether it is birthday, anniversary, homecoming or any other celebration – to think about the gift that you will bring. Even when the invitation says, "No gifts, please," most of us still show up with a bottle of wine or a box of candy or some other token of our affection. We bring gifts to show our gratitude for being invited and to show our love for the one being honored and celebrated. So, when God Himself invites you to the greatest celebration of all – the celebration of the Eucharist – do you bring a gift? Do you take time to wrap it in an envelope? Do you select a gift that truly reflects your gratitude for being invited to be a part of God's family? Do you bring a gift that shows your love for the crucified Jesus, who we remember at every Mass? The invitation to the Mass does not say "No gifts, please." In fact, since God first called the Israelites to be His people He taught them, "No one shall appear before the Lord empty-handed, but each of you with as much as he can give, in proportion to the blessings which the Lord, your God has bestowed on you." - Deuteronomy 16:16-17

Did you remember your gift?

Everyday Stewardship

I had a conversation with my daughter about the responsibility she had to cultivate her God-given gifts and to give back with increase to God. She wanted to argue that just to be proficient in the use of those gifts was enough. Of course, she was just fifteen at the time and as a typical teenager had no real desire to push much harder than necessary. I don't think she was ready to understand the value of perseverance and pushing onward to a goal. As she gets older and increases in maturity I pray for her to really become committed to becoming the best she can be at whatever she does, because I know she has been given many gifts.

Being committed to growing in maturity as a disciple is an important characteristic of an Everyday Steward. This is a commitment to striving to be better today than we were yesterday, and better tomorrow than we are today. We are also committed to getting back up and trying again when we fail to be the person God created us to be.

No one reading this is perfect. No one reading this has achieved a level of spiritual maturity to the point that we make the right call every time. But hopefully many of us are committed to working hard toward spiritual growth. Jesus asks each of us to work hard to become the saints God created us to be, just like he asked the woman caught in adultery in John's Gospel to go forth and sin no more. He knew she had failed along the way, but not to get up and change her life would be the real sin. It is sin that keeps us from truly cultivating that which we have been given. However, God is committed to us and offers second chances. We need to be committed to him.

Q & A Lent always seems to help me renew my relationship with God and strengthen my religious practice. Do you have any suggestions as to what I could do to achieve that the rest of the year?

The obvious answer may seem to be to do whatever you do during Lent all year round. But part of the power of Lent is that we focus as a community on renewing our faith and preparing for Easter. Our Lenten practices have a purpose and a goal. Therein lies the secret. When we focus our efforts on one virtue, or try to change one bad habit, or seek to deepen our understanding of one aspect of faith, we focus our efforts and give our full attention to what we are trying to accomplish. We tend to be more successful achieving our goals. More importantly, it has a ripple effect in our lives: one thing changes or is added to the spiritual mix of our lives and many aspects are changed.

All too often we leave our spiritual growth to chance and the practice of faith to habit, and then wonder why we have no sense of growth or progress. Think of it in terms of exercise. We walk, lift weights, bend and stretch to attain the maximum benefit from what we do. In addition, to keep those benefits, we eat healthful food and get enough vitamins and rest. Spirituality requires the same kind of attention: we pray, fast, read the Bible, receive sacraments, and do charitable work to maximize the benefits of practicing faith. Keeping Lent year round keeps us in spiritual shape!

Our Parish School News

Principal's Corner

Dear Parishioners,
If you are like me, I'm sure you've noticed that over time, society has changed: our lives have become so busy. Our students' lives have become so busy. There seems to be less time available to fit in all of the things we want to do, and even less time available to fit in all of the things we need to do.

Sometimes we think we are so busy that we don't even take time to pray. Even though we know that prayer gives us a wonderful sense of peace and promise, sometimes we feel we are simply too busy!

In reflecting on this dilemma that is running through our society, I came across a prayer to share with everyone who is feeling that they are too busy to be still:

"Help me to slow down, Lord, right now, before I think of something else that I should be doing – as if it really is more important than you. Let me sit in the quiet peace of your presence and soak up all that you have to say to me. Give me the patience and perception to do nothing else for these next few moments except to be totally, completely, and wonderfully centered on you! Amen."

May the peace of Christ be with you all.

Dr. Constance L. Krocak
Principal
