From the desk of Father Barnes

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

One of the things that can be difficult with getting sick is that we often need to depend on the help of others. This can be a great challenge, especially in a culture that promotes strength and self-sufficiency.

It can even seem that we are a burden on others and this can lead to devastating consequences such as Euthanasia in end of life situations. Yet this type of thinking and acting flows from a misunderstanding of who we are and the way God created us.

Not only are we called to be strong and to serve others and to give love, but we are also called to receive God's love and to receive His love working through other people.

Each week we receive Holy Communion which requires humbling ourselves in order to be enlightened and helped by God. We, of course, are called then to respond to His love by sharing what we have received, but the first step is to humbly receive love.

By cultivating this disposition of receiving love and guidance and strength in Holy Communion, we develop the capacity to receive help and love from others. This requires humility which is the foundation of the spiritual life.

Also, by being able to receive love from others, we are giving them an opportunity to grow in charity.

Hence by both receiving and giving love, we are promoting the culture of life!

God bless,

Fr. Barnes

ENROLLMENT IS OPEN!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: What are the "fruits" of holy Communion?

Answer: The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life.

The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What else is there to give when one has already given away their body and their life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all they have has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the one who is the embodiment of stewardship. Then, you must ask the question of yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts but by everyday acts, by everyday people, practicing Everyday Stewardship.

SOCIAL GOSPEL MINISTRY
The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents.

Over the coming weeks we will give brief reflections and highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

THE DIGNITY OF WORK AND THE RIGHTS OF WORKERS
The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected—the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.
