From the desk of Dr. Krocak, Principal

Dear Holy Cross Families and Friends,

It is with great joy that I reflect on the amazing Catholic Schools' Masses that our Holy Cross students participated in and experienced this week. I was able to attend Mass at each of our three parishes on Sunday, and witnessing over 60 of our students serving as lectors, musicians, gift bearers, ushers, greeters, and servers really drove home for me not only the value, but the beauty of Catholic education. Perhaps you were able to experience that amazing day with us!

In conversation with many of you through the morning and into the afternoon, and in listening to our priests and speakers at Mass, I felt renewed hope and promise in all that Holy Cross has to offer each and every student who walks through our door. I was reminded several times that there is no better opportunity to teach the faith than in a Catholic school, where Christ Himself is revered as the True Teacher.

I am so proud of our wonderful students and the many contributions of all those who make Catholic education possible: dedicated teachers, school staff and volunteers, committed parents, our pastors, and, in a special way, generous parishioners and benefactors. Thank you for all you do to support Catholic education at Holy Cross.

Another thank you goes to the St. Nicholas and Lonsdale Knights of Columbus and to the Most Holy Trinity Men's Group who so graciously hosted the Catholic Schools Week pancake breakfast, and for their donation of their time, the food, and their energy. This generous gift of service to our school is much appreciated!

May Saint John Neumann, in his love for Catholic schools, guide and bless us as we work together to ensure that our schools continue to serve us for generations to come.

In Christ,
Dr. Constance L. Krocak

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As the Church continues through this difficult time in history, we are called to be heralds of hope, and our hope is in Jesus Christ. For it is Jesus Who makes all things new, and it is Jesus Who has the power to heal and to save us from evil.

We participate in the life of Christ as Christians. We are grafted onto Christ, and we are made sons and daughters of God through Baptism, called to share in His mission of bringing the Good News into the world. With that in mind, we have been discerning if there is something we can do as a parish to show our support for those harmed by sexual abuse by priests. After consultation with the parish council and finance council, I have approved a check we sent for $3000 to the victims of sexual abuse in this Archdiocese.

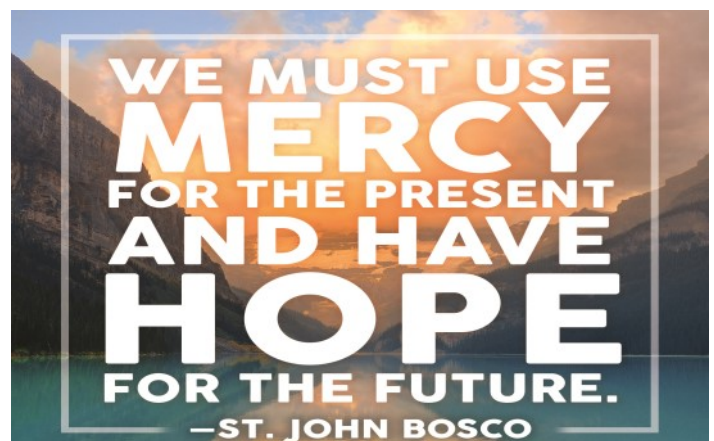

The rationale behind this is not that our money will heal the victims and our offering is not that large considering it will be spread out to the victims, not just one victim. The idea is that we want to show our support with this small token. And we do not want to forget that those who have been wounded are still out there, and it is important for us to remember them in prayer.

Please know that this offering is not something we have been asked to do by the Archdiocese. We have no claims against our parish, and we are not legally being asked to give anything. The money we have sent is a very small gesture that will help us remember that we need to continue praying for the healing of victims of sexual abuse.

For if we believe that Jesus Christ created us from nothing, we must believe that He has the power to heal. And this is the message we must demonstrate through our actions.

God bless,

Fr. Barnes

Lord, Let it be You who lives in me today.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Today's Gospel is one of tension and contradiction. We enter the scene at the local synagogue. It is near the beginning of Jesus' earthly ministry, and he has returned home to Nazareth for a short while. There, in the midst of the men who watched him grow up and who played with him as a boy in the dusty streets, Jesus proclaims that he is the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecies of Isaiah. The response is understandably mixed. "All spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, 'Isn't this the son of Joseph?'"

Jesus reminds them - none too gently - of the Israelites' rejection of the prophets throughout history. Not only did the people ignore Elijah and Elisha, but they worked miracles among the pagans instead. Then comes the rage. "They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong."

No one likes to be reminded of their own faults. In the deeply religious Jewish society, nobody wanted to be the unfaithful one. Jesus exposes the sins of the community, and it drives them not to conversion, but to rage. We can consider our own time. How often, when someone is contracted, do they quickly resort to anger, name-calling, and undermining the reputation of the other? How quickly we want to destroy! This Sunday, we ought to consider our own lives. Do we listen to the prophetic voices around us, even when they threaten to upturn our expectations? If we hear something difficult, something that reminds us of our own sin, do we accept the opportunity to prayerfully ponder? If we allow ourselves to be open to the prophetic voices in our own lives, we'll notice that God speaks through the unexpected, if we have ears to hear it.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If you feel strongly about something, you might want to share your thoughts and feelings with others. When that something has to do with things such as food, art, or travel, others might show an interest, so the conversation is enjoyable. However, when that something is politics or religion, watch out! The conversation can quickly turn to debate and then to anger. That can be anything but enjoyable.

The Gospel does not always lead to joy when initially presented. Sometimes, it convicts us and makes us see the error of our ways. Other times, it seems what is asked of us is too hard and requires us to step out of our comfort zone. When Jesus spoke the truth about the Kingdom of God, not everyone cheered. That was never a reason to be silent.

Stewardship living allows us to give witness to the Gospel with few words. Our actions speak very loudly. However, no one should ever be left to wonder why you and I would choose to do the things we do. What a shame it would be if you passed away and at your funeral people commented on how great a person you were, but they had no idea you were a Christian. People need to understand the "why" of what we do. The truth is that there is great joy in being a disciple of Jesus Christ. Don't rob others of the chance to know that joy for themselves.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: My neighbor is just beginning to explore the Catholic faith but was raised agnostic. I grew up believing in God, praying, and attending Mass. How does one start from scratch as an adult to develop a relationship with God?

Answer: Start on a personal level! How did you and your neighbor become friends? How did you begin to discuss such a personal topic as faith? Communication, spending time together, and getting to know each other are essential to forming the bonds of a relationship. Personal prayer is essential to our relationship with God. We can't be close to someone we don't know! Invite your friend to explore the stories of Jesus in the Bible. Introduce them to the lives of the saints, especially ones you think they might be interested in.

Your neighbor might also have questions about the Catholic faith that you don't know how to answer. If your friend hasn't yet enrolled in RCIA classes, invite them to Mass at your parish. Introduce your friend to the faith formation director to make a connection. Personal support can be helpful as well, especially if few of your neighbor's current friends are practicing their faith. Connect your neighbor to other people in your parish living their faith well. The good examples of other faithful people could help your neighbor to feel welcomed and supported. Our Church is vibrant and alive!
