Dear Parish family,

I have always loved the message in the bible story of young Samuel. In the book of 1 Samuel 3:1-10, Samuel heard someone calling him in the night and went to answer the call he thought was from Eli. After the third time Eli realized that Samuel was hearing God and instructs him to listen and answer God. This story illustrates so beautifully how important it is to have time for stillness and silence each day in your life so you can hear God.

When I was in high school, I was invited to help teach the pre-school program at St Nicholas which resulted in a passionate awakening for volunteer ministry work at the parish. Over the past 45 years I have often said “Here I am, Lord” when asked to volunteer as a catechist in almost every grade and sacramental preparation classes. One of my most treasured volunteer experiences was being a part of the initial team that started the Youth Group at St. Nicholas and cultivated its growth for many years. It was during this time that I realized God was calling me to more. With strong support from so many friends, my family, and especially Ron, I followed God’s call and began down a new path to obtain a degree in Theology and later become the Director of Religious Education for our three communities. It has been an incredible journey, and I thank God for the many gifts and blessings that guided me in this work. Those blessings include the many volunteers who have given their time and talents to pass along the faith. It has been a real gift getting to know so many families from all three parishes.

Often, we pray for things we want but do not always stop to listen to what God’s will is for us. Over the last year, I have been praying and listening. It was mid-February when I talked to Father Barnes about a July 1st retirement date. One of the questions I struggled with early in the decision process was, “how do you retire from the ministry of serving God’s Holy Church?” I found great peace when the answer to this question became clear in prayer. While I am retiring from employment, I will continue to serve God as a volunteer, which can happen around my priority of being available to my husband, children, and grandchildren. As I shared with our pastors, my love for teaching and sharing the faith is as strong as ever, and I am happy to help serve when needed in the future as a member of St Nicholas and the parish communities.

March brought about a big change in ministry with the onset of the Coronavirus crisis and the “stay at home” order. My decision to retire was made prior to the unforeseen circumstances we face today. It certainly is not the way I envisioned finishing out my last year with all our sacramental preparation programs and celebrations on hold. – but I thank you for hanging in there through all the changes. I know it has not been easy, as we continue to work on the next steps.

I want to sincerely thank all of those who have supported me and the religious education of our children over the last ten years.

In Christ,

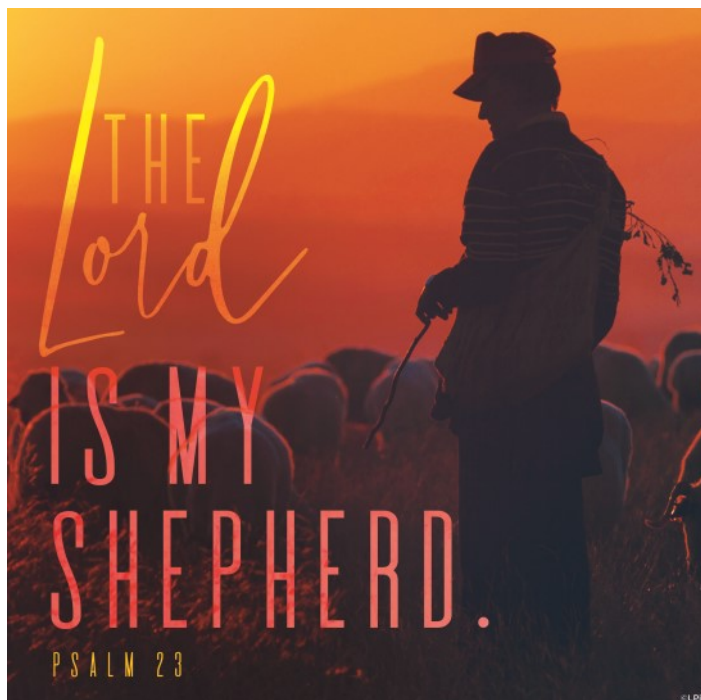

Kathy Chlan

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

With whom do we converse and listen to the most? Believe it or not, the answer is ourselves. We are constantly having conversations with ourselves, and sometimes we even get caught! Our inner conversations reveal the truth about ourselves. We really cannot hide from ourselves, although we often pretend we can. By conversing with ourselves, we find solutions to our challenges, problem solve, work through our relationships, formulate opinions, run through dress rehearsals of possible conversations, and wrestle with and determine our system of priorities and values. What other voices affect the conversations we have with ourselves?

Often, voices from our past continue to haunt us. These voices cause us to mistrust our judgment, harbor anger, and cling to our fears of rejection, failure, being wrong, and the like. It is in these inner conversations that we face what holds us captive — our limitations, weaknesses, sinfulness, and stubborn ego preoccupations. We often go about our lives putting out one fire or another, keeping ourselves preoccupied and busy, and trying to stay on top of things. Intentionally or unintentionally, we find ourselves wandering off. We turn around and can no longer see our home. We look down at our feet and realize we have lost our anchor. Feeling scared, out of place, desolate, unsettled, and lonely, we realize that we are lost.

We listened to the wrong voices! In the midst of everything competing for our attention, the voice of the One who could truly call us home got muffled. We didn't hear it. As our inner dialogues continue to play out, the one voice we need to consult — even before our own — is God's. He is the Good Shepherd who can keep us safely where we need to be. As we graze through the stuff of our lives, we must constantly remember to look up, be attentive, and stay focused. Our habits of prayer are the only thing that can properly root us and keep us grounded. Contemplating God's presence and developing an inner awareness of love incarnate, we will then find ourselves praying unceasingly as the days and nights and the ebbs and flows of our of lives unfold. Suddenly, the inner conversations we are constantly having are no longer just with ourselves or with voices that can lead us astray but with the Trinity, who desperately wants us to stay home.

CHICKEN COOKOUT UPDATE

Recently we have discussed what actions to take in regard to the Chicken Cookout with the Chairs of the Cookout, and also with the Parish Council. The unanimous decision has been to cancel the Cookout this year due to the ongoing Corona Virus situation. Part of that conversation included possibly doing a raffle at some point either this summer or later if necessary. Also discussed was the idea of having the raffle drawing at a picnic later in the summer. Again due to the virus this may need to happen at our parish picnic in the Fall, or at the Gala in early December, or even at next year's Cookout. It will probably be difficult to try to schedule another large event this summer once things open up. We already have functions on hold at the church (aka First Communion, Confirmation, a funeral, and a wedding). Another consideration is all of the private events that our parishioners are going to be scheduling and attending (weddings, funerals, bridal and baby showers, graduation parties, birthdays, etc.). Once we know more about what the State is allowing for activities, we will let you know the plan in regard to the raffle.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Give Yourself Completely

Recognizing the Voice of Jesus

When my wireless provider introduced HD Voice, the voice I heard on my phone was unbelievably clear, and it felt at times like both the caller and I were in the same room. The best aspect of this feature is that it didn't cost the customer any additional fees, and it didn't require any changes to the phone. I could say it was free, but I suspect I was already paying for it in my monthly bill anyway. At least it felt free.

The clearer the voice calling you, the easier it is to recognize who it is on the other end of the line. In John's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the gatekeeper who opens the gate and calls for his sheep. They respond because they know his voice. Others try to lure the sheep when the gatekeeper is not there, but the sheep find their voices unclear or unfamiliar.

Jesus is our gatekeeper. But unlike receiving something for free from a wireless company, to be able to hear his voice we need to pay attention and practice listening. By developing a stewardship way of life that is mindful and prayerful, we become attuned to his voice and are able to discern when the call is from our Lord and when it is from an imposter. It is great to talk about all the things we can do and all the gifts we can share, but if we are not listening for his call to hear where our offerings are needed, we can end up like a lost sheep searching for the gatekeeper.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

I have a friend who says she doesn't need to attend Mass because she prays to God every day. What are your thoughts on this justification?

Answer:

If the only reason for going to church were to talk to God, your friend might be right. Prayer is not something limited to a physical place or even a holy place. If the sole purpose of the Church were prayer, it would be a narrow purpose indeed. The Church is a community of believers, formed by "one Lord, one faith, one Baptism." It is an outward sign of our faith in God instituted by Christ, and the purpose of the Church is to give us grace, that is, a share in God's life.

Coming to Mass is not really for God's sake, but for ours. If we believe that Jesus is truly present in the holy Eucharist, then we will want to be in his presence. We will want to be fed by him. Our daily prayer and good works are strengthened by our authentic encounter with our Lord. For Catholics, it is at Mass that we celebrate the source and summit of our faith. If this is true, why would we ever stay away?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK INVITE PARISHIONERS TO REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading

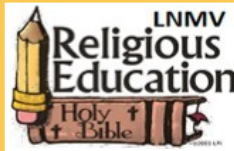

Luke tells us that Peter often testified: "Save yourself from this corrupt generation." How is this message still applicable today?

Second Reading

Peter asserts that the virtue of patience in one's suffering is a grace from God because Jesus modeled patient suffering. How does the exercise of this spiritual disposition help bring peace of mind?

Gospel Reading

Using the metaphor of sheep and gatekeeper, Jesus teaches his disciples the importance of remaining focused on his voice. Why do you think people are so easily distracted from other voices?

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When you wake up in the morning, whose voice is the first one you listen to? Your own?

Someone else's? Or God? We all listen to someone and follow some sort of guidelines and principles. If it is a secular voice that propels us to get up in the morning and take up the task of the day's agenda, then we may find ourselves off track. The advice found in the Acts of the Apostles was as true then as it is now, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Most of what we listen to in secular voices is off the axis of truth and distorted. It may sound attractive, but it is deceptive at best. Many have gone astray like sheep and need to return to the Good Shepherd. Only Jesus can offer us the gate of life, and only Jesus as the Good Shepherd can really motivate us to take on the challenges of life. If we don't recognize his voice, we can risk facing destruction.

Jesus, I trust in You!

Our Parish School News

Holy Cross is excited to invite you to be a part of our school community this fall! Registration is open and we encourage you to consider Holy Cross for your children.

We know that many things have changed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and many families are feeling an economic pinch. It is in times like this that we need to support each other. Holy Cross would like to offer some support by offering several new tuition programs for new families:

- For current Holy Cross families. If you refer a new family with students in Kindergarten - 8th Grades and that family registers, you will receive a $1,000 tuition credit.
- For families new to Holy Cross with students in 2nd-8th grades you will receive a $1,000 tuition credit.
- And the most exciting tuition incentive is for new families with students in Kindergarten or 1st grade your tuition is 100% free.

To give you an example for new families: If you have a child in 3rd grade and a child in 1st grade, you would receive a $1,000 tuition credit for your 3rd grader and free tuition for your 1st grader.

"This is an amazing opportunity and I encourage you to take advantage of this support Holy Cross is offering." Father Barnes

Eucharistic Adoration

The devotion to the Eucharist in our parish is a witness and a blessing. Many of our adorers fall into the "at-risk" category in regards to the Corona Virus (COVID-19). For this reason we have decided to suspend Eucharist Adoration at this time. This will remove the mandatory need for having an adorer present around the clock and relieve those that are vulnerable regarding the Corona Virus (COVID-19).

STEWARDSHIP OF TITHE

We appreciate your financial support, especially during this very extraordinary time. Every gift that you make helps advance our mission of making Jesus Christ known and loved and maintains the financial health of our parish operations.

Here's how you can continue to help:
