A person with long dark hair, seen from behind, wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and a tan canvas backpack. They are standing on a hill or mountain, looking out over a vast landscape under a dramatic sky with soft, warm light from a low sun, creating a hazy, golden glow. ### From Liturgical Publication, Inc.

Many people in our world are hungry and thirsty. This hunger and thirst go well beyond physical needs for food, security, and shelter. Many are emotionally and spiritually parched, too. Behind every act of violence is a soul who hungers. People live with relationships that actually starve them. They are abused, exploited, disrespected, laughed at, and marginalized. There is a lot of confusion and inner pain that needs to be acknowledged and expressed. We all long to be understood and loved, even when our inner demons or who I am make it difficult to be. Do you live with inner confusion and pain? Folks often wander through life without any real direction or purpose and take their cues from what seems satisfying or popular at the moment. The deeper dots of our lives can easily remain unconnected, and we can find ourselves without grounding, purpose, or real happiness. Life becomes shallow and without real purpose as we hunger and thirst for an ultimate love.

It's easier to see the physical hungers and thirsts. We try to respond to these as best we can. Much more needs to be done. With all that God's earth can provide, nobody ought to face sleep at night with a belly that's empty. It's sinful. It's unjust. But isn't all hunger unjust? It doesn't need to be, and it should not be. Just as no one ought to be physically hungry and thirsty, there is really no need to be emotionally or spiritually deficient either. If we have more privileges at our fingertips, it is easier to try to satisfy our emotional and spiritual hungers and thirst by acting on impulse or self-indulgence, carelessly following passions, or by seeking self-destructive ways to dull the ache of emptiness.

Folks need to know where to look for nourishment and need the right friends to help them find it. We may not think that we have enough to respond to and to satisfy all of the needs, but we do. It doesn't take much. Five loaves and two fish provided for a huge crowd. With God, all things are possible. Our faith provides the direction for where God's children must go to find the nourishment they seek. It also tells us how to structure life so that justice and equity can be a reality for all. It also tells us how to respond to pain, sinfulness, and confusion. Come to the water and then help another get there.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Power of a Simple Action

I remember seeing a story on a morning news program about a little girl who wanted to give an elderly man in a grocery store a hug. She had no way of knowing that this man had just lost his wife of many years and now felt so very alone and depressed. Her reaching out to the man seemed odd to her mom at first, but the girl was so insistent about giving a hug she moved the shopping carts close together so the exchange could take place. No one knew that from that moment on the little girl would ask to visit her new friend at least once a week for the next four years until he passed away. In an interview soon after the initial encounter, the man said, "I haven't been this happy in some time." Imagine the joy that relationship brought to them both over the years!

It was just a moment. It was a simple gesture. Yet, it had a large impact that no one could have predicted. You never know what will result when we give just a little of ourselves. That uncertainty too often leads us to hold back or refrain from the simple actions of love or gestures of generosity that could come so easily for us if we wanted. We should never doubt the power of a simple random act of kindness. Generosity does not need to be grand to make a big difference. The time is now, and the opportunity presents itself often to plant a small seed that God can water and nourish so that something beautiful can grow.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Why do Catholics need to go to Mass every Sunday?

Answer:

The heart of the Church's instruction that we are to attend Mass on Sundays goes back to the Third Commandment: "Take care to keep holy the sabbath day as the LORD, your God, has commanded you" (Deuteronomy 5:12). Although the Jewish People celebrate the Sabbath on Saturday, the first generations of Christians began to observe the sabbath on Sunday, recognizing how important it is for Christians to celebrate the day that Jesus rose from the dead. As the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults observes, "Sunday extends the celebration of Easter throughout the year ... It makes present the new creation brought about by Christ" (364).

The focus of our Sunday should be the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass. This is our time to be formed by God's Word and nourished at the table of the Lord, becoming prepared to live out and share our faith in the week that follows. In his encyclical, Dies Domini, Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us that Christians "cannot live their faith or share fully in the life of the Christian community unless they take part regularly in the Sunday Eucharistic assembly" (no. 81). This is why the Church teaches us that Sunday Mass is a non-negotiable part of being a Christian (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2192).

Beyond being a time of worship, we should also remember that Sunday is intended to be a day of rest, when we make time for recreation, for sharing meals, and enjoying the company of friends and family. Sunday is given to us as a day to take stock of and enjoy the blessings that God has given us (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2187). Pope Francis reminds us, "The day of rest, centered on the Eucharist, sheds its light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor" (Laudato Si', no. 237).

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What do you really hope and hunger for? We are most familiar with our physical hungers and cravings as they are quite obvious. What we don't always realize is that we also have emotional and spiritual hungers. Many are starving for acceptance and love. Many others hunger for a sense of purpose, more focused direction, and deeper connection and meaning. Our hungers can easily get confused. We think we are in need of one thing but are actually being driven by another. We need to recognize and pursue our spiritual hungers. If we do not do so, we will attempt to fill these needs with lesser, and not always healthier, things. God, ultimately through the Eucharist, is the only One who can quench our more profound thirsts. Have we discovered this yet?

Area News &amp; Events

Hello fellow parishioners of St. Nicholas!

My name is Annie Bunnell and I've been a parishioner at St. Nicholas all twenty-one years of my life. I am the 8th of 9 kids and was homeschooled my whole life. I spent two years at the University of Mary in North Dakota and was studying Psychology and Catholic Studies. While at school, the Lord put mission work on my heart and so I joined a Catholic organization called NET Ministries! NET is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to Challenge Young Catholics to Love Christ and Embrace the Life of the Church. NET is an acronym and it stands for National Evangelization Team. This organization has teams that travel throughout the country putting on retreats for middle and high school youth!

This past year I had the amazing opportunity to serve as a missionary on a team to put on retreats. My mission year was such a life changing experience! The Lord blessed us all so much and it was quite beautiful to see Him work through us and for us throughout our time serving on the road – and even now after that! After serving one year traveling around the country reaching out to youth and spreading the Gospel message, the Lord has called me to another year of mission work! This year, I'm excited to announce that I'll be working in St. Paul at the NET Ministries headquarters as a schedule assistant on our scheduling team!

Because NET is a nonprofit organization, we as missionaries are asked to raise $6,000-$7,000. This is a small amount compared to the amount it takes to house us, feed us, and care for us as missionaries, which is $22,000. So, I'm asking if you would like to partner with me in this mission - to be part of spreading the Lord and His love to others around our country! You can donate by going to the NET Ministries website at www.netusa.org/supportamissionary, typing in my name under the missionary line and following the prompt from there! You also have the option of donating one time or making it a monthly donation. Thank you for your consideration and generosity in advance - every little bit counts! There's no donation that's too small! If you're not able to support me financially, please hold me and the ministry in your prayers! Thank you so much for your love, support and prayers and know of my continued prayers for all of you!

Annie Bunnell
