Advent Quadrupled...

"Advent" comes from the Latin word adventus, which means "arrival." During the awesome Season of Advent, the Readings at Mass point to two arrivals. Toward the beginning of Advent, the Readings focus on Christ's future arrival at the end of time, an event known as "the Last Day," "the Day of the Lord," or "the Day of Judgment." Then we will be reunited with our bodies to receive the full consequences of what we had chosen in life, in either heaven or hell. The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes this event in these words:

678 Following in the steps of the prophets and John the Baptist, Jesus announced the judgment of the Last Day in his preaching. Then will the conduct of each one and the secrets of hearts be brought to light. Then will the culpable unbelief that counted the offer of God's grace as nothing be condemned. Our attitude about our neighbor will disclose acceptance or refusal of grace and divine love. On the last day Jesus will say: "Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." [Matthew 25:40]

Then, as we get closer to Christmas, the Readings point toward his coming to earth as a baby almost two thousand years ago. As we say in the Nicene Creed, Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. The full divinity of this little baby is described by Saint John at the beginning of his Gospel in these beautiful words:

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God...And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only-begotten Son from the Father...And from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known" (John 1:1, 14, 16-18).

There are two other arrivals of Jesus Christ. One is our meeting with him at the end of our life, when we will receive from him eternal judgment—either to hell or to heaven, with the possibility of going to Purgatory on the way to heaven. Here's how the Catechism of the Catholic Church describes what the Church calls "the Particular Judgment":

1021 Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ in his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. The parable of the poor man Lazarus and the words of Christ on the cross to the good thief, as well as other New Testament texts speak of a final destiny of the soul -a destiny which can be different for some and for others.

1022 Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven-through a purification or immediately, -or immediate and everlasting damnation.

"At the evening of life, we shall be judged on our love." [St. John of the Cross]

Finally, there is the arrival of the Lord throughout this life. We have fantastic opportunities to encounter him every day—including in the Most Holy Eucharist, the Gospels, other people, circumstances, individual prayer, and in many other ways. Jesus wants us to meet him. Let's not miss his arrival.

Your fellow pilgrim through Advent,
Father Rudolph

40 Hours Devotion

Dec. 2 — Dec. 4, 2022

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament begins in Church
Friday, December 2, 4 p.m.

Adoration
Please join us all weekend, day and night!

Closing Service
Sunday, December 4, 4 p.m.
This year we will be incorporating Ave Verum Corpus at the beginning of the closing service (Approx. 30 minutes) Evening Prayer, Reflection, and Benediction.

40 Hours Devotion is a special time of prayer made before the Blessed Sacrament affirming our belief in the Real Presence of our Lord in the Holy Eucharist.

We ask that all parishioners sign up for at least one hour if possible. This is important because it is life changing to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. It is also important because this is a communal effort and everyone united in prayer will increase the honor shown our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and make for a greater impact on the community.

You may sign up for an hour or more in the book in back of church, by contacting the parish office, or by signing up online here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30e0d4ea9a729a3fb6-40hours1>

Please note: All regularly scheduled adorers will keep their assigned hours and may also sign up for additional hours.

Saint of the Day – Saint Maximus of Riez

Maximus was born around the beginning of the fifth century near Digne, in the Provence region of what is now southeastern France. His Christian parents brought him up to cherish his faith, and no one was surprised when, as a young man, he applied to the monastery of Lérins and was received by the founder and abbot, Saint Honoratus. In 426, when Honoratus was made bishop of Arles, Maximus succeeded him as abbot. He was known for his good influence on the monastery and for miracles, which attracted crowds from the mainland. (The monastery of Lérins is on an island off the coast of the French Riviera and is still occupied by monks.) Maximus successfully managed to foil the attempts of the clergy and people of Fréjus to make him their bishop by hiding for some days in a nearby forest. But his efforts to avoid becoming bishop of Riez by escaping in a boat were not so successful. Eventually he submitted, and was received enthusiastically by the clergy and people. As bishop, he continued to observe the monastic rule as far as he could, retaining the same love of poverty, spirit of prayer, and humility for which he had been known at Lérins. Saint Maximus of Riez, pray for us! IT IS A PRIVILEGE TO PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS!

Seven Sister Apostolate has a mission to pray for individual priests in small groups of only seven. Each woman chooses a different day of the week and offers one Holy Hour. Thus, the priest receives a Holy Hour every day. It is a blessing for the priest and the intercessor! St. Nicholas has had a Seven Sister group praying for the pastor of our parish since 2011. The apostolate would like to cover each of our diocesan retired priests with a group praying for them, the diocese currently has 94 retired priests and only 6 of them have a group. If you feel called to pray for them, please check out <https://sevensistersapostolate.org/> or contact Kathy Chlan for more information at ronkathychlan@gmail.com

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION

One of the most important aspects of the Fatima message was Our Lady's request for the First Saturday devotion. In the July 13, 1917 apparition at Fatima, Our Lady said to the children, "You have seen hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace." She came expressly with the request for this devotion when she appeared to Lucia on December 10, 1925, in Pontevedra, Spain, where she was preparing for religious life. Our Lady repeated the message and promised to assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who:

- go to Confession (usually within the week before or after the First Saturday),
- receive Holy Communion on the First Saturday itself,
- recite five decades of the Rosary,
- meditate on the Mysteries of the Rosary for an additional 15 minutes,
- do all of these things with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and
- do these things on the First Saturday of five consecutive months.

Our Lord revealed to Sister Lucia the meaning of the five Saturdays emanating from the five ways in which people offend and blaspheme against the Immaculate Heart of Mary as follows:

1. Against her Immaculate Conception.
2. Against her Perpetual Virginity.
3. Against her Divine Maternity, while refusing to receive her as the Mother of Mankind.
4. By those who try to implant in the hearts of children indifference, disrespect and hate against the Immaculate Mother.
5. By those who insult her directly in her Sacred Images.

We invite you to join us for our First Saturday devotion on Saturday, December 3rd immediately following our 8am daily Mass. Our parish has acquired 50 new booklets, Treasures of First Saturday Devotion, by Father Andrew Apostoli, C.F.R, to use for the reflections and prayers. Confession will be offered during this time.

Our Parish School News

THE SEASON OF GIVING IS UPON US!

We would be incredibly humbled to receive any blessings from you during this time. Your gift will allow Holy Cross Catholic School to bridge the per-student gap between what is received in tuition and fees and the actual cost to educate a Holy Cross student; We have gone to the max already this year in our investments in the curriculum:

- New science curriculum in the middle school
- New grammar textbooks for 4th-8th grades
- Finishing the math adoption in middle school
- New history curriculum for 2nd-6th grades
- Equipping and buying the curriculum for a Montessori preschool

We're meeting enrollment growth with greater staff and better resources. More than ever, we all are called to make a difference as we work aggressively to preserve Catholic, traditional education for all who want it. Not a subject is taught without adherence to the truths of our faith of the moral compass represented by the mystical Body of Christ. Through prayer and planning, we hope you will discern how to share your blessings with Holy Cross Catholic School. With your help, we can and will continue to shape our community's future.

Any donations given in a family or student's name will go directly to their 2022 -2023 fundraising requirement.

Please click the link below to donate and spread the word to your family and friends this holiday season!
