

A person wearing a red cap and dark clothing stands on a grassy hill, looking out over a vast landscape. In the background, there are large, rugged mountains with patches of snow or light-colored rock. The sky is a mix of blue and pink, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

Transfigured...

The Transfiguration of Jesus Christ on the mountain (Matthew 17:1-13, Mark 8:31-33 and Luke 9:28-36) reveals some things about heaven. One is its luminous quality. In the Transfiguration, Jesus was seen as shining like the sun. Saint John saw the same thing in his vision of Christ when he was in exile on the island of Patmos, as he describes in the Book of Revelation. Other people have seen a similar brightness when the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to them, described as not only bright light, but also beauty greater than anything that is merely earthly. Sometimes holy people still living on earth have been seen to have the same light—maybe that's where the custom of putting halos on saints in art comes from.

The light and beauty of heaven come from God. In fact, He is the Light of heaven. As Saint John puts it in his description of the New Jerusalem in heaven, "Night shall be no more; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light" (Revelation 22:5).

The physical brightness and beauty of God and the saints—readily apparent to everyone in heaven but sometimes apparent to the eyes of the body even in this life—has a counterpart in the spiritual brightness and beauty that can only be seen by the eyes of the heart, so to speak. Have you ever noticed that some people have a kind of radiance about them? It's a kind of peaceful serenity and genuine joy that's never an act, but comes from deep within. I'm reminded of a phrase I read in a book once. A young man was described as having "the radiance of purity." That's purity of mind, soul, and body. They go together.

If you aren't there yet, don't despair! You too can have the radiance of purity. Jesus said, "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened" (Matthew 7:7-8). Of course, that's if we are asking something in accord with what God wants. As Saint John tells us: "And this is the confidence which we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will He hears us. And if we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of Him" (1 John 5:14-15). We can be sure that Our Lord wants us to be pure. Jesus said, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" (Matthew 5:8). If we are really pure in heart, we will also be pure in mind and body.

While we can be sure of such a victory if we sincerely ask God for it, sometimes His gifts come only after a struggle, for our own good, both for our spiritual growth and to help us have compassion for, and empathy with, other people in their struggles.

However arduous the journey, we can be sure that the Lord wants all of His disciples to be transfigured like Him—to share in the Light of Heaven, His own Light, by becoming like Him. All of us have many opportunities for this to happen—for example, Mass and other times of prayer, reading Sacred Scripture, helping others, supportive Christian friendships, and focusing on God and His goodness instead of on ourselves and our problems. Saint John describes this process for us beautifully: "See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him. Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. And everyone who thus hopes in Him purifies himself as He is pure" (1 John 3:1-3).

Saints of the Day – Saints Justus and Pastor

According to the story that has come down to us, Justus and Pastor were two brothers who lived in Spain during a persecution of Christians under Dacian, the governor of Spain for the Roman Emperors Diocletian and Maximian. Dacian came to the town of Complutum, now Alcalá de Henares, and began to torture followers of Christ. Justus and Pastor, one thirteen, the other nine, wanted to share in the victims' glory. They ran from class in their public school and declared that they too were Christians. The persecuting judge was furious to see children defying his authority, and had the boys severely whipped to try to curb their enthusiasm. To the surprise of the spectators, Justus and Pastor encouraged each other and still defied Dacian. At his command, they were beheaded. Their relics are enshrined at Alcalá, and they are the patrons of that city and of Madrid. Saints Justus and Pastor, pray for us! ## OUR LADY HELP OF CHRISTIANS

Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God and our Mother, Mary, thou seest the attacks that are everywhere made by the devil and the world upon the Catholic faith, in which, by God's grace, we intend to live and die, in order that we may gain eternal glory. Do thou, the Help of Christians, renew thine ancient victories and save thy children. They entrust to thee their firm purpose never to give allegiance to societies hostile to our holy religion, do thou, who art all holy, present to thy divine Son our good resolutions and obtain for us the grace we need to stand firm in their observance, even to the end of life. Console the visible Head of the Church, sustain the Catholic bishops, protect the clergy and people who proclaim thee Queen; by the power of thine intercession hasten the day when all nations shall be gathered at the feet of the chief Shepherd. Amen.

Our Parish School News

Thank you, parishioners, for praying for good and holy teachers and staff members. God has been answering our prayers as we have exciting news to announce that we have 7 new wonderful new hires and only one or two more to go to make the recruitment campaign a success. About one-half of our hires are in the midst of long and illustrious careers. We are so fortunate to sign them on with us. They will be complimented by some equally promising candidates right at a crossroads in their careers. Most importantly, they are all men and women of God. We look forward to introducing them to you as the year progresses. The hiring of these team members would not have been possible were it not for the flexibility of our current faculty, who have generously volunteered to teach certain subjects and give up others. With two of our new hires ready to hit the ground running in administrative roles in key areas of need, we are more than ready to take on all previously planned school improvement goals and strategies.

What else has been going on this summer? Kudos to Ron Peiper who has been busy fixing up the school with several projects and to Gene Tupy who has been helping with various jobs also. There has also been a committee consisting of Father VanDenBroeke, myself, Mr. Smith, a school board member, and some experts within our parent community meeting about school safety (lockdown drills, building security, emergency plans). We are excited for the results of our planning to be implemented. Rose Rynda was even busier than normal as we're taking on our 3-year Archdiocesan audit. Many of our teachers are still quite busy helping me plan the school year and getting all our scheduling, teacher on-boarding, summer school, and student planning done so that we have everything ready for the year. Summer Stretch, led by Bridget Leirer and Maria Eischens, has met or will be meeting 8 times with about 15-20 participants most Wednesdays. They have been doing service projects in the morning and fun trips in the afternoon.

God Bless,

Jim Grogan, Principal
