Powerful Pun...

"You are Peter and on this rock I will build my church and I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven." These words, in Latin, fill the circumference of the base of the interior of the dome of Saint Peter's Basilica in Vatican City. The letters are enormous, about 6 ½ feet high. Black on a gold background, the letters are lit up by the light from 16 large windows.

These words from Matthew 16:18 contain a pun in the Greek version of his Gospel. "Peter" is Petros and "rock" is petra. We don't know if the pun is from Jesus or Matthew. Simon Peter probably knew Greek, so it wouldn't be surprising if Jesus used some Greek words with him. That's because in Galilee, where Simon lived, like in most of the lands around the Mediterranean Sea in the First Century, Greek was the common language, like English is in most of the world today. He probably knew some Greek to communicate with his customers and neighbors. Jesus, in his Divine Nature, knew all languages. Maybe Jesus liked puns. Or maybe Matthew did.

Back to Saint Peter's Basilica—of all the words that could have been put in this conspicuous spot on the building, why "You are Peter and on this rock I will build my church and I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven"? Or, to be more exact: "TV ES PETRVS ET SVPER HANC PETRAM AEDIFICABO ECCLESIAM MEAM ET TIBI DABO CLAVES REGNI CAELORVM." (Latin used "V" for both our English "V" and "U" at the time.)

Why? Because the gift of the papacy is one of the greatest gifts, after Himself, that Jesus Christ gave to his Church!

The quote in the dome is part of a larger phrase of Jesus, which is part of this Sunday's Gospel:

Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Peter had just told Jesus that he was the Christ, the Son of the Living God. Our Lord gave Peter a lot of responsibilities in response as leader of the Church under him—as we say, "the Vicar of Christ." "The keys" in the Jewish tradition refers to governance, as we see in this Sunday's First Reading. So does "binding and loosing." As part of this Jesus gave Peter the command to strengthen his brothers, and the call to feed Christ's flock. Would Jesus have meant this only for Peter? Of course not! He intended this gift to continue through the office of the Pope—the Bishop of Rome—until the end of time, to benefit all Christians. By God's grace, the Pope is a guardian of the unity of the Church, her openness to the Holy Spirit, the purity of the deposit of the faith, and the worthy celebration of the sacraments for all Christians. I just wish all Christians knew that already! Let's keep praying.

The Roman Emperor Constantine had the first Saint Peter's Basilica built beginning around 330. It took 30 years to build and lasted almost 1300 years. The present Basilica of Saint Peter was begun in 1504 and completed 107 years later. It is still in good shape, a beautiful church for an even more beautiful faith. With God's help, let's do our part to pass it on to our friends and neighbors and the next generation.

Your fellow pilgrim through this life,

Father Rudolph

St. Nicholas News & Events

St. Nicholas Parishioners,

We are so very excited to get this “small group leader formation” started here at our parish! By agreeing to attend these 7 sessions, please know you are not committing in anyway to being a small group leader. It is merely a call to discern where/if the Holy Spirit may be calling you to take on a more active role in possibly leading or help lead a certain small group or ministry. In the least, by attending these small group sessions, we as community, will be growing in holy wisdom and relationship. This is just simply fabulous!! We hope to see many of you sign up for more info and receive complete schedule by following this link:

<https://lnmvtriparish.flocknote.com/SmallGroupFormat>

Quick important dates to note:

- Sept. 9/10 - info sheet available & team will be available to talk with.
- Sept. 15 - deadline to sign up for leader formation series.
- 7 formation series dates all beginning at 7pm @ St. Nicholas:

Sept 26, Oct 3, 10, 24 & 30, Nov 7 & 14

Please be praying for all of us to be open and answer whatever call the Holy Spirit may be needing us to answer for Him! Any questions please don't hesitate to call the parish office @952-461-2403 or ask any team member.

Saint of the Day - Blessed Domenico of the Mother of God

Domenico (“Dominic” in English) Barberi was born the last of eleven children into a peasant family near Viterbo in Italy on June 22, 1792. He taught himself to read and write, entered the Passionists, and was ordained a priest at Rome in 1818. Early on he had a strong desire to dedicate his ministry to work in England. This was supported by a vision Domenico had in 1814, when he was still a novice, and a message from Jesus. Eventually he was able to go to England, where he was assigned to a parish at Lane End, Staffordshire, and began preaching missions.

At first Domenico was ridiculed for his poor English and less than elegant appearance, but people—especially the poor—were soon impressed by his voluntary poverty and his Christ-like response to the persecution that came his way. For example, one time when stones were thrown at him, he picked them up and kissed them. He also developed a reputation for being able to do miracles. For example, in spite of his poverty, it seemed like he was endlessly giving alms to the poor. And there's a story that a shoemaker who had met Domenico went home, drew a cross on the wall of his house and hurled things at it, while mocking Domenico. Suddenly his arm withered in front of the horrified gaze of his family. Soon people were falling silent when Domenico passed by in the street, children knelt to receive his blessings, and mothers held their babies out to be blessed.

Saint John Henry Newman was received into the Catholic Church by Domenico on October 8, 1845. Earlier that day, he wrote the following to some friends about Domenico: “I am expecting this night Father Dominic, the Passionist, who, from his youth, has been led to have distinct and direct thoughts, first of the countries of the North, then of England. After thirty years’ (almost) of waiting, he was without his own act sent here. But he has had little to do with conversions. I saw him here for a few minutes on St John Baptist’s day last year. He is a simple, holy man; and withal gifted with remarkable powers. He does not know of my intention, but I mean to ask him admission into the One Fold of Christ...” Blessed Domenico of the Mother of God, pray for us! "AVE VERUM CORPUS" - RETURNING, FALL OF 2023!

Our popular "Ave Verum Corpus" events return this Fall, following a summer break. "Ave Verum Corpus" (Latin for "Hail, True Body") is a two-part Eucharist event held in the main worship space of our beautiful Church. Part one combines Eucharistic Exposition & Adoration with Classical Sacred Music presented by the St. Nicholas Choir. Part two is a Vespers service (Evening Prayer, from Liturgy of the Hours) which concludes with Benediction. Many who have attended past events describe the experience as deeply spiritual, unique, and a powerful way to enter into His Real Presence. What a great way to celebrate this year of Eucharistic Revival!

Our Fall events will be held on Friday Evenings at 7pm (Sept. 15, Oct. 13, and Nov. 10). We are very pleased and excited to announce that Archbishop Hebda will be present at our Nov. 10 event! More details to come. Mark your calendars. Tell your friends and family.

If you are interested in becoming involved in our music ministry for "Ave Verum Corpus" please contact Ryan Flicek, our Director of Music Ministry or the Parish Office.

Have you been thinking about becoming Catholic?

Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic? Or is there someone you could invite to consider it? It's as simple as asking if they would like to learn more about the Catholic Church and take classes.

The information night for the OCIA program (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, formerly RCIA) is scheduled for Thursday, September 21, 7pm, at Holy Cross Catholic School.

OCIA is for all who desire to become Catholic or to learn about what the Catholic Church teaches, as well as for those who grew up Catholic but did not receive all their sacraments (Baptism, Confirmation, Penance, and Eucharist).

For more information, please contact Mary Rose Rynda at lnmvre@holycrossschool.net
