Role Reversal...

Saint Athanasius, in his work On the Incarnation, written in the fourth century, states: "God became man so that man might become God." This statement, which is in a way a summary of the Gospel, is related to this Sunday's Gospel. How so?

Well, even though God became man first in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, he has continued to become man ever since then—not in the flesh anymore, but through empathy. This is revealed in our Savior's explanation of the Day of Judgment as a separation of "the sheep" from "the goats." The sheep are those who fed the hungry, gave drink to the thirsty, welcomed the stranger, clothed the naked, cared for the sick, and visited those in prison. The goats, in contrast, are those who failed to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, care for the sick, or visit those in prison. Jesus states that the sheep are the righteous, who will go to eternal life, while the goats are the accursed, who will go off to eternal punishment (Matthew 25:31-46). In this context, Our Lord states that what they did for others, they did for him, and what they failed to do for others, they failed to do for him. As Saint Teresa of Calcutta used to say, Jesus Christ appears to us in the distressing disguise of the poor.

That's God continuing to become man. How does that relate to man (human persons) becoming God? Well, by coming to us in the disguise of those in need, God gives us the means to become like him.

In the Old Testament, we find God feeding the hungry Israelites manna and quail in the desert. He causes water to come out of a rock when they are thirsty. He welcomes strangers, like Ruth, into his Chosen People. He clothes Adam and Eve with animal skins. He heals Miriam and Naaman of leprosy. And he sets the Israelites free from slavery.

In the New Testament, we find Jesus continuing this pattern. He feeds five thousand hungry people with five loaves and two fish. He offers those who are thirsty for love, truth, and salvation, like the Samaritan woman, the living water of the Holy Spirit. He invites people from all nations to become part of his Church. He covers the nakedness of sinners' shame and guilt with his compassion and forgiveness. He heals the sick of their illnesses. And he frees those in slavery to sin and fear of death.

By allowing hunger, thirst, immigration, insufficient clothing (on account of poverty, immodesty, or human trafficking), illness, and imprisonment, we are given the great gift of people we can show love to in practical ways. And the more we love, the more we become like God, because God is love (1 John 4:8).

Isn't that awesome? God—not out of any necessity, but purely because he wants to—experiences all the hunger, thirst, loneliness, vulnerability, illnesses, limitations, and frustrations we human beings suffer from so that we can experience the joy of loving like he does.

As we enter the Season of Advent a week from now and anticipate the arrival of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ two thousand years ago, and again at the end of time, let's not overlook his arrival among us every day in the person of those in need. Our response to him will be his gift to us.

Your fellow pilgrim on the Way,

Father Rudolph

Saint of the Day – Saint of the Day – Saint Nikon Metanoiete

Nikon was born in Pontus, in what is today the nation of Turkey. When he was still a young man he left home and went to a monastery known as Khrysopetro, where he spent twelve years living a life of prayer and penance. Then Nikon's superiors, having noticed that the spiritual conferences he gave were so effective, decided to send him out of the monastery to preach. He went as a missionary to Crete, which the Christian Byzantine Empire had recovered from Muslim Arabs a few years before, in 960. There Nikon brought back to the Christian faith many people who had converted to Islam. After many years ministering in Crete, he went on to the Greek city of Sparta, where he built three churches and a monastery, and then on to other parts of Greece. Nikon came to be known as "Metanoiete" (Greek for "Repent!") because that is the word with which he began all his homilies. His preaching was said to have been confirmed by miracles. Nikon died in a monastery on November 26, 998. Saint Nikon Metanoiete, pray for us! SAVE OUR CHURCH BUILDING!

If it gets cold enough this winter for frost, ice, or snow, please resist the admirable temptation to put salt or any other kind of de-icer on the new steps on the south side of the church. The temperature was too cool to seal them when they were completed, so using anything other than sand to make them less slippery could damage the concrete. Thanks in advance, Father Rudolph.

OFFICE VOLUNTEERS

Rooted presents a beloved tradition in a new light.

This new 22-episode series guides Catholics through a daily Advent reflection using the Jesse Tree model traditionally practiced by families. Each seven-minute episode introduces the ancestors of Jesus Christ, shares a Scripture passage, and offers an engaging, practical reflection.

Hosted by Dr. Scott Hefelfinger, Rooted helps viewers apply the passage and related teachings to each day of Advent, guided by the Church's teaching. Episodes begin on December 3, the First Sunday of Advent, and end on December 24, the Fourth Sunday of Advent.

Drawing Closer to God prepares your family for the Messiah's coming.

Journey through Advent with the whole family! Join art teacher Ms. Kim as she teaches children to draw different scenes from the Christmas story, including the Annunciation, shepherds' visit, the Nativity scene, and more. With compelling storytelling, Ms. Kim points out key details from Scripture and Catholic tradition.

As kids follow along and learn new art skills, they also learn to see the connections between the big picture of God's story and their place within it.

Our Parish School News

THE SEASON OF GIVING IS UPON US!

We would be incredibly humbled to receive any blessings from you during this time. Your gift will allow Holy Cross Catholic School to bridge the per-student gap between what is received in tuition and fees and the actual cost to educate a Holy Cross student; We here at Holy Cross Catholic School have invested heavily in ensuring that our school will be the best it can be. In addition to the investments that were made these past few years, we have made the following new investments this year:

- Vice Principal/Math Coach
- Early Childhood Director
- Academics: continuing our curriculum adoptions/empowering teachers to take us to the pinnacle of achievement (by all measurements)
- Average Years of Experience for Teachers up to 22 years (two-fifths of them having Master's degrees); this is our greatest accomplishment and will have far-reaching effects for years to come
- We have done everything in our power to ensure that Catholic identity and our Christian culture are our greatest priority: two of our teachers are in an intensive two-year catechetical institute that will result in a certificate of Master Catechist; our commitment to taking our student to the parishes lets us have Mass at a Church and participate with the parishioners who support us so generously--the extra busing expenses are worth it; our teachers are so dedicated to the Eucharist that we were able to get three more weekday Masses on the liturgy schedule
- We continue to dedicate numerous resources and FTE's to religious instruction and spiritual formation

We're meeting enrollment growth with greater staff and better resources. More than ever, we all are called to make a difference as we work aggressively to preserve Catholic, traditional education for all who want it. Not a subject is taught without adherence to the truths of our faith and the moral compass represented by the mystical Body of Christ. Through prayer and planning, we hope you will discern how to share your blessings with Holy Cross Catholic School. With your help, we can and will continue to shape our community's future.

Thank you for your support of Holy Cross Catholic School. Any donations given in a family or student's name will go directly to their 2023 -2024 fundraising requirement. Please click the link below to donate and spread the word to your family and friends this holiday season!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

What does Jesus Christ do in the Eucharist? It is God who, as our Savior, offers himself each day for us to his Father's justice. If you are in difficulties and sorrows, he will comfort and relieve you. If you are sick, he will either cure you or give you strength to suffer so as to merit Heaven. If the devil, the world, and the flesh are making war upon you, he will give you the weapons with which to fight, to resist, and to win victory. If you are poor, he will enrich you with all sorts of riches for time and eternity.

— St. John Vianney
