COLLECTIONS

- ♦ No second collection today.
- ♦ Next Sunday, please place your offering for Haiti in a separate envelope and include in the first collection.

The Mardi Gras Committee is looking for donations of wine (minimum value $10). These will be used in a WINE PULL at Mardi Gras (NOT to be used at the bar). We are looking for 50+ bottles. The Mardi Gras team will purchase one NICE bottle of wine/Champaign to add to the donations. All bottles will be wrapped so no one knows what bottle is inside the wrapping. People will pay $20 to 'pull a bottle' from the group. They are guaranteed a bottle of wine with the hope of finding the premium bottle!!!! We really think this will be a big hit....since everyone gets a bottle – no losers!!!! We are also taking donations of silverware! We are trying to save $$ by eliminating some of our disposable costs. Knives, forks and spoons are a huge expense. If anyone has an old set of silverware (no color handles, etc. – all stainless steel), we will collect and use it during Mardi Gras. Thank you!!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By now, trees are beginning to appear in living rooms throughout the parish. To a complete outsider to our culture, it must seem an odd thing indeed. The "roots" of this custom are in liturgical drama: religious plays performed in the churches and town squares of medieval Europe. The favorite theme for this time of year was the "Paradise Play," a dramatic history of the human race from the Garden of Eden to the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem. The language and music varied from place to place, but one feature was always in place: a great tree decorated with apples. As a prop, it provided lots of material for the actors: the temptation, shelter for the manger, and a reminder of the wood of the cross. Soon people began to bring "paradise trees" into their homes, decorating them with gifts and lighted candles.

Many Germans give credit to Martin Luther for transforming the "Paradise Tree" into the evergreen Christmas tree. Walking home on a starry Advent night, he was so awed by the beauty of the night that he hauled a pine tree inside and decorated it with lighted candles. Americans were holdouts. It took until 1856 for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to decriminalize Christmas decorations, the old Puritan dislikes falling before the waves of Irish and German immigrants with traditions firmly in hand!

Pope Francis' December Intentions

Universal: Experiencing God's mercy

That all may experience the mercy of God, who never tires of forgiving.

Evangalization: Families

That families, especially those who suffer, may find in the birth of Jesus a sign of certain hope.

Prayers for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life.

In their loneliness, comfort them. In their sorrows, strengthen them. In their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by the Church; they are needed by souls; they are needed for the work of redemption.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT*THE WORD
IN OUR LIVES*Could Nachos Be Bad?

It seems the early Church had a different view of Advent than we do. After the resurrection, Christians looked for Jesus to return in glory. They expected this return to happen soon, so we see references in Paul's letters to the "coming of the Lord Jesus" (1 Thess 3:13) or to the "day of Christ Jesus." (Phil 1:6)

In the second reading this week, we hear what Paul recommends for the people of Philippi as they wait for the Lord to return. He prays that their love will grow and mature, so that they will be able to "discern what is of value." (Phil 1:10) This may sound vague, but is very good advice, even for us today.

As we grow to be better Christians, we learn to love what is important. As you grew up, you learned to like healthier foods. That doesn't mean that some foods are bad, (how could nachos be bad?) just that there are better choices. So Paul encourages us to make better choices: friends we like, books we read, how we spend our free time, causes we donate to, and values we teach to our children. With less than three weeks of Advent remaining, let us ask the Lord to help us "discern what is of value" in our lives.
