Christ became obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

PHILIPPIANS 2:8-9

Cristo se humillo por nosotros
y por obediencia acepto incluso la muerte y una muerte de cruz.

Por eso Dios lo exalto sobre todas las cosas y le otorgó el nombre que esta sobre todo
nombre

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

It may be Palm Sunday, but the Passion is far more prominent in today's liturgy, which invites us to follow Jesus from his triumphant entrance into Jerusalem to his crucifixion and burial. It simply overflows with the sorrow and intimacy that will be dominant themes in Holy Week.

The first reading from the book of Isaiah gives voice to the suffering of an innocent person—perhaps a prophet—or the people as a whole. The refrain for the Psalm is Jesus' cry from the cross (Mark 13:14), a cry of absolute, existential loneliness. The great kenotic (emptying) hymn in Philippians provides a stunning portrait of Jesus' ultimate emptying, simultaneously intimate and cosmological.

INTIMACY

All four Gospels have a Passion narrative. While there is agreement on the main events—an intimate meal shared by Jesus and the disciples, betrayal by Judas, prayer in Gethsemane followed by Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion—each Gospel has unique variations that give it a particular meaning or tone. In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus is anointed by an unnamed woman in the house of Simon the leper. All the Gospels have Jesus being anointed by a woman, but only Mark puts this scene just before the Last Supper. Jesus says the anointing is preparation for his burial; it is as if the woman could see a prophet's suffering in Jesus' life and feel it in his presence. Moved by compassion, she empties her jar of expensive nard on his head, pouring out her love in a profoundly intimate act. Perhaps she will also join the women who witness the crucifixion from afar (Mark 15:40–41), after the Twelve seem to be long gone.

Palm Sunday invites us to follow Jesus through the rest of Holy Week. By moving us to feel the injustice and the suffering endured by Jesus, this week's liturgies and devotions present us with those same choices. Perhaps, like the unnamed woman, we can open ourselves to others' suffering and respond with love and compassion. Or perhaps, like the Twelve, we will be conspicuous by our absence.

28 de marzo de 2021 Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor

Puede que sea Domingo de Ramos, pero la Pasión está mucho más notoria en la liturgia de hoy, la cual nos invita a seguir a Jesús en su entrada triunfante a Jerusalén hasta su crucifixión y sepultura. Simplemente desborda con el dolor y la intimidad que serán los temas predominantes en la Semana Santa.

La primera lectura del libro de Isaías da voz al sufrimiento de una persona inocente, quizás un profeta, o de todo el pueblo. El estribillo del salmo es el grito de Jesús desde la cruz (Marcos 13:14), un grito de absoluta soledad existencial. El gran himno de kénosis (vaciamiento) en filipenses ofrece un impresionante retrato del vaciamiento final de Jesús, simultáneamente íntimo y cosmológico.

LA INTIMIDAD

Los cuatro evangelios tienen una narración de la Pasión. Aunque hay concordancia con respecto a los principales eventos, una comida íntima compartida por Jesús y los discípulos, la traición de Jesús, la oración en el huerto de Getsemaní a la que le sigue el arresto, juicio y crucifixión de Jesús, cada Evangelio tiene sus propios detalles que dan un significado o señal particular. En el Evangelio de Marcos, Jesús es ungido por una mujer, de quien no se menciona su nombre, en la casa de Simón el leproso. Todos los evangelios mencionan que Jesús fue ungido por una mujer, pero sólo Marcos pone este evento antes de la Última Cena. Jesús dice que la unción es una preparación para su entierro; es como si la mujer pudiera ver el sufrimiento de un profeta en la vida de Jesús y sentirlo en su presencia. Movida por la compasión, ella vacía su costosa ánfora llena de nardo sobre la cabeza de Jesús, derramando su amor en un acto profundamente íntimo. Quizás también se una a las mujeres que presencian la crucifixión desde lejos (Marcos 15:40-41), después de que los Doce pareciera que se han ido ya desde hace mucho tiempo.

El Domingo de Ramos nos invita a seguir a Jesús durante el resto de la Semana Santa. Al movernos a sentir la injusticia y el sufrimiento padecido por Jesús, las liturgias y devociones de esta semana nos presentan esas mismas opciones. Tal vez, como la mujer sin nombre, podemos abrirnos al sufrimiento de los demás y responder con amor y compasión. O quizás, como los Doce, brillaremos por nuestra ausencia.

Class News from Ms. Floyd's 5 th Grade Class

Dear Parishioners, Family, Friends and Visitors,
The 2020-2021 school year is flying by very quickly this year! We pray each of you had an enjoyable spring break, and are enjoying this beautiful weather after the Big Freeze of 2020. We are certainly looking forward to seeing God's beauty in the blooming wild flowers, and other plants coming to new life in the coming weeks.

We are busy in American History continuing to learn about founding of our great nation as we explore the happenings which resulted in the American Revolution. We are busy learning our states and capitals of the United States. Ms. Floyd has been sharing a song she learned in 5 th grade to help with remembering the states: Fifty Nifty United States. It is amazing that after all the years that have passed, Ms. Floyd and her 5 th graders can still learn from the same song!

In science, we are continuing to explore physical science, and we are heading into our study of earth science. In our study of magnetism, students were able to create magnetic fields to feel a "shock" during experiments which all were able to conduct at home. We also made a compass using horse-shoe magnets at home.

We have also been busy learning to code through code.org, and we have increased our typing skills learning to keyboard properly. A year ago, none of us were concerned about Zoom, Google, etc...., but now we are fully engaged in our computer usage, and we continue to excel!

Last, but not least, thank you to everyone who is continuing to send in the soda pop tabs! The StG Ronald McDonald House is bulging at the seams! Tabs are now being put into large plastic jars because the baggies started to overflow! Please continue to collect your tabs, and send them to the school office. Ms. Floyd will be making a presentation to the Ronald McDonald House at the end of the school year. But keep saving those tabs! This will be an ongoing project to help support the Ronald McDonald Houses in San Antonio.

May your Lenten journey be filled with insight and awakening as we continue to prepare for the glorious Season of Easter.

Peace and blessings,
Ms. Floyd's 5 th Grade Class
