FAITH FORMATION

DID YOU KNOW? EASTER IS MORE THAN ONE DAY

Easter Sunday, including its octave (first eight days) and entire fifty-day season, is considered one great Sunday, since the season of 'Pascha' commemorates and makes liturgically present the Resurrection of the Lord which occurred on a Sunday (the risen Christ remained on earth for forty days). The early Church designated Sunday as the "eighth day" (eight in Hebrew and Christian culture signifies redemption and a new beginning in God's plan of salvation).

OCTAVE: As with the first week of Christmas, the Catholic Church emphasizes the first week of Easter (first to second Sundays) as a one supreme celebration. Rest and joyful celebration are encouraged during the first week, and acts of penance on the Friday within the octave are not required. Eastern churches refer to it as "Bright Week".

SEASON: Eastertide consists of fifty days total (seven Sundays). Forty days after the first Sunday is the Solemnity of the Ascension (when Jesus returned, body and soul, to the Father), and fifty days after the first Sunday is the Solemnity of Pentecost (when Christ sent the Holy Spirit without limit to the Church who carries on Christ's visible mission of redemption).
