ARCHBISHOP GUSTAVO MEDITATION

The Word of God sets before us a light that is kindled and invites us to walk forward. It is not a fleeting flash. It is a steady brightness that guides our steps, calms the heart, and gathers what was scattered. That light is Jesus Christ — alive and present in His Word. When the Word sheds its light, hope is born. On the border between Chile and Argentina, hidden high in the Andes, stands a monument known as Christ the Redeemer. At the beginning of the 20th century, it was cast from the bronze of cannons once aimed at each other by the two nations. Today it bears witness to the world that the Word made flesh remains a lamp for our feet and a seed of a peace that is truly possible. Every Christian is on a journey of conversion. To be converted is to allow the light to bring order to our lives, to transform the way we see, and to make us artisans of peace. The Word does not remain an idea; it becomes gesture, encounter, and life. This light also calls us into communion. May the Holy Spirit make us a reconciled and radiant people. May Our Lady of Guadalupe cover us with her mantle and teach us to follow her Son, the Light that never fades.

SPIRITUAL HEALING in the Bible refers to the restoration of a person's relationship with God, often involving forgiveness of sins and renewal of the heart. This form of healing is central to the message of the Gospel and is made possible through the atoning work of Jesus Christ.

Physical healing in the Bible is often a demonstration of God's power and compassion, serving as a sign of His kingdom and a foretaste of the ultimate restoration to come.

SECCIÓN EN ESPAÑOL

MEDITACION DEL ARZOBISPO GUSTAVO

La Palabra de Dios pone ante nosotros una luz que se enciende y nos invita a caminar hacia adelante. No es un destello fugaz. Es una luz constante que guía nuestros pasos, calma el corazón y recoge lo que se ha dispersado. Esa luz es Jesucristo — viva y presente en Su Palabra. Cuando la Palabra arroja su luz, nace la esperanza. En la frontera entre Chile y Argentina, oculto en lo alto de los Andes, se alza un monumento conocido como Cristo Redentor. A principios del siglo XX, fue fundido en bronce de cañones que ambas naciones apuntaron entre sí entre sí. Hoy da testimonio al mundo de que el Verbo hecho carne sigue siendo una lámpara para nuestros pies y una semilla de una paz que es verdaderamente posible. Todo cristiano está en un camino de conversión. Convertirse es permitir que la luz traiga orden a nuestras vidas, transforme la forma en que vemos y nos convierta en artesanos de la paz. La Palabra no permanece como una idea; se convierte en gesto, encuentro y vida. Esta luz también nos llama a la comunión. Que el Espíritu Santo nos haga un pueblo reconciliado y radiante. Que Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe nos cubra con su manto y nos enseñe a seguir a su Hijo, la Luz que nunca se apaga.

Las cenizas nos recuerdan la necesidad de la misericordia de Dios. El acto de poner cenizas simboliza la fragilidad y la mortalidad, y la necesidad de ser redimido por la misericordia de Dios. Lejos de ser un acto meramente externo, la Iglesia ha conservado el uso de las cenizas para simbolizar esa actitud de penitencia interna a la que todos los bautizados son llamados durante la Cuaresma
