ARCHBISHOP GUSTAVO MEDITATION

Dear sisters and brothers, alleluia! The stone is rolled away. The tomb is empty. The very stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. True peace is never the silence of fear. True peace, as Pope Leo XIV reminds us, is “the work of purified hearts, of those who see others as brothers and sisters to be protected, not enemies to be defeated.” Power transformed into service. Wealth into solidarity. Fear into trust. This is what the empty tomb declares over every war, every injustice. Mercy is stronger, and mercy wins. Everyone who believes receives forgiveness through His name. The Resurrection demolished every wall. Not by our own effort, but because our Paschal Lamb has been sacrificed, and his life is now ours. We have 50 days of Easter light. Do we truly believe that Jesus is alive? The question is whether we want to find Him. Do we truly feel our need for Him? Do we long to be restored? A true encounter with the Risen Lord Jesus changes everything: affection becomes service, service becomes discipleship, restlessness becomes rest. As St. Augustine learned, our heart finds no peace until it rests in the Risen Jesus. Seek Him in the face of your neighbor, in the breaking of the Bread, in the least of your brothers and sisters. He is risen. Go and tell. Alleluia!

PRAYER FOR SAFE TRAVELS

Heavenly Father We ask for your divine protection upon all pilgrims of St. Gregory traveling to Mexico—keep them safe from harm, grant them good weather and be a shield around them. We ask you to be their companion on their journey. Amen.

DEACON BERNARD CHAN MEDITATION

What have you experienced from Holy Week and Easter Sunday? The story of Mary Magdala and her encounter with our Lord Jesus is worth meditating to draw out a personal encounter with the Son of God. It will help build your relationship with him when you put yourself in her shoes. Read John 20: 1-18 and focus on 11-18. Mary whom Jesus released from her misery when he cast out 7 demons from her became his close follower. She pined for him after witnessing his suffering and death on the cross. She looked for him after the second night of his death and found an empty tomb. She was devastated. Not only is the Lord dead; now his body is missing. As she was turning to leave she encountered a man she thought was the gardener who asked her why she is weeping and she in turn asked if he has seen the body of Jesus. Finally Jesus called her by name to get her attention. Her eyes opened and she recognized the Lord. Tears of sadness gave way to joy for the Lord is alive. Jesus then asked her not to cling to his physical body as he has to return to his Father who is our Father, his God who is our God. What it means for us is not to cling to earthly possessions be it people or things and look to his Father whom he has given to us as our Father when we have accepted Jesus as our brother. This can only be possible because Jesus sacrificed his life on the cross to ransom us from our sins. When you understand this miracle that Jesus has brought us back to God the Father and made himself our brother, promising us a place in his kingdom you will glorify God and tell everyone this awesome news. Hallelujah, the Lord is risen.

DIVINE MERCY RETREAT / TAKING JESUS TO THE STREET

Friday, April 10—Sunday, April 12, 2026

With a truly grateful heart, thank you to the Divine Mercy Retreat team, our Deacons, and all the faithful of St. Gregory who took part in the retreat and procession. Your presence, prayers, and support meant a great deal.

MEDITACION DEL ARZOBISPO GUSTAVO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, ¡aleluya! La piedra se retira rodando. La tumba está vacía. La misma piedra que los constructores rechazaron se ha convertido en la piedra angular. La verdadera paz nunca es el silencio del miedo. La verdadera paz, como nos recuerda el Papa León XIV, es "la obra de corazones purificados, de aquellos que ven a los demás como hermanos y hermanas a proteger, no como enemigos a derrotar." El poder se transformó en servicio. La riqueza en solidaridad. El miedo se convierte en confianza. Esto es lo que declara la tumba vacía sobre cada guerra, cada injusticia. La misericordia es más fuerte, y la misericordia gana. Todo el que cree recibe el perdón por su nombre. La Resurrección demolió todas las paredes. No por nuestro propio esfuerzo, sino porque nuestro Cordero Pascual ha sido sacrificado, y su vida es ahora nuestra. Tenemos 50 días de luz de Pascua. ¿Realmente creemos que Jesús está vivo? La cuestión es si queremos encontrarle. ¿Realmente sentimos nuestra necesidad de Él? ¿Anhelandos ser restaurados? Un verdadero encuentro con el Señor Jesús Resucitado lo cambia todo: el afecto se convierte en servicio, el servicio en discipulado, la inquietud en descanso. Como aprendió San Agustín, nuestro corazón no encuentra paz hasta que descansa en el Jesús Resucitado. Búscalo ante vuestro prójimo, en la partida del Pan, en el menor de vuestros hermanos y hermanas. Ha resucitado. Ve y cuéntalo. ¡Aleluya!

MEDITACIÓN DEL DIÁCONO BERNARD CHAN

¿Qué has experimentado durante la Semana Santa y el Domingo de Pascua? La historia de María Magdalena y su encuentro con nuestro Señor Jesús merece la pena meditar para prolongar un encuentro personal con el Hijo de Dios. Eso ayudará a fortalecer vuestra relación con él cuando te pongas en su lugar. Lee Juan 20: 1-18 y céntrate en 11-18. María, a quien Jesús liberó de su miseria al expulsar a siete demonios de ella, se convirtió en su seguidora cercana. Ella suspiraba por él tras presenciar su sufrimiento y muerte en la cruz. Lo buscó tras la segunda noche de su muerte y encontró una tumba vacía. Estaba destrozada. No solo el Señor está muerto; ahora su cuerpo ha desaparecido. Al darse la vuelta para irse, se encontró con un hombre que pensó que era el jardinero, quien le preguntó por qué lloraba y ella, a su vez, preguntó si había visto el cuerpo de Jesús. Finalmente, Jesús la llamó por su nombre para llamar su atención. Abrió los ojos y reconoció al Señor. Las lágrimas de tristeza dieron paso a la alegría, pues el Señor está vivo. Jesús entonces le pidió que no se aferrara a su cuerpo físico, ya que tenía que volver a su Padre, que es nuestro Padre, su Dios, que es nuestro Dios. Lo que significa para nosotros no es aferrarnos a las posesiones terrenales, ya sean personas o cosas, y mirar a Su Padre, a quien nos ha dado como nuestro Padre, cuando hemos aceptado a Jesús como hermano. Esto solo puede ser posible porque Jesús sacrificó su vida en la cruz para rescatarnos de nuestros pecados. Cuando entiendas este milagro de que Jesús nos ha traído de vuelta a Dios Padre y se ha hecho nuestro hermano, prometiéndonos un lugar en su reino, glorificarás a Dios y les contarás a todos esta increíble noticia. Aleluya, el Señor ha resucitado.
