Third Sunday of Easter

Follow Me

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks Peter three times, Do you love me? Each time Peter responds that he does love Jesus. After each profession of love Jesus instructs Peter to take care of Jesus' flock. Peter is to feed and tend to the sheep of Jesus. The sheep will continue to belong to Jesus and not to Peter. Finally, Jesus says to Peter, Follow me. Jesus made it clear to Peter that service of his disciples must be rooted in love of Jesus. Love is the basis for Peter's ministry to leadership and must be the basis for all of us who minister to others in the name of Jesus.

REFLECTION

Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40b-41 Psalm 30
Revelation 5:11-14 John 21:1-19

Do You Love Me?

In this beautiful resurrection appearance story, the Risen Jesus teaches us some lessons about the universal nature of our following of Jesus; the necessity of forgiveness and rehabilitation and the ultimate cost of following Jesus.

Through the telling of the story of the great catch of fish we learn about the universal nature of the Church's charge and that the Church's mission is an extension of the Risen Lord's victory and power. By Jesus' coming at dawn, he is shown to be the light that dispels darkness and brings new hope. Even though the disciples were veteran fishermen they caught nothing without Jesus. With Jesus their mission would be successful. Their success was described in terms of the mysterious number of fish they caught – 153. This affirms that all peoples of the earth are welcome into the net of salvation and are drawn unto the boat of Peter.

The three questions asked of Peter by Jesus and Peter's answers have been called Peter's rehabilitation. Jesus' forgiveness of his triple denial of Jesus had the power to lift the burden of guilt and sorrow he must have felt. It gave Peter the humility to repent and the courage to begin again. He was reissued the challenge: Follow me. Peter's example continues to challenge the quality of our own discipleship. Jesus is saying the same thing to us:

Do you love me?

Tend my sheep. Feed my sheep. Follow me.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

EASTER ACTIVITIES AT ST. MARY'S

Dear friends,

The Spirit of the Risen Lord is evident among us! Our celebration of the Sacred Paschal Triduum was very spirit-filled and well attended. It was wonderful to see so many people actively participating, making it all come together.

Thursday of Holy Week (Holy Thursday): The Mass was very touching. Parishioners washing one another's feet. What a great sign of our willingness to serve one another as Church.

Friday of the Passion of the Lord (Good Friday): The Liturgy was marked by noble simplicity. It was a way of identifying with the sufferings of Christ, as our savior goes to his death.

The Easter Vigil in the Holy Night (Holy Saturday): The service was absolutely beautiful. What an example of full, conscious, and active participation in the liturgy. Travis, Amber & Cliff Haikenwaelder were received into the Church - We welcome them to our community of faith. The number of people who joined us in prayer was amazing. It was great to see so many participants in the service.

Sunday of the Resurrection (Easter Sunday): The Spirit of the Risen Lord was palpable in our midst. The balloons and Easter Egg Hunt with the kids were a big hit. All 3,087 eggs were gone! Who thought so many kids would show up in little Praha for Easter. It is all possible. I enjoyed every bit of it all.

While I thank God for the joyful celebration of the three days, I realize that all would not have been possible without the help of many cooperative parishioners.

The Liturgy - I thank our Lectors, our Organists, our Choir, our Cantors, our Altar Servers and our Ushers who performed their ministry so diligently.

Other helpers and donors - Thanks to the many who worked behind the scenes to pull it all together: Preparing for the Triduum – Lori Janecka, Robin Cerny, Georgie Cerny, Tracie Holub & the Altar Society members; Juan Vasquez for cleaning the church and school; Jerome Raabe's crew for cleaning the cemetery and church grounds; all those who donated canned goods for the needy and monetary donations for the poor and for the seminarians; Holy Saturday bonfire – Mary & Charlie Bartos Family; Easter Flowers – all those who donated towards the flower fund; Balloons – Donna & Hannah Perez; Easter Egg Hunt – thanks to Robin & Gary Cerny, Denise Greive, Judy & Stephen Lev, Tracy Holub & James Pfeil, Barbara & Larry Prause, Deloris Smolik, Kathleen & Martin Svatek, Bennie & Barbara Jasek, Leona Herzik, Pat Masek and the Staci & Scott MacDonald & Family for donating the eggs, and to Staci MacDonald for organizing the hunt; to the Delia & Mike Moeller Family for helping put out the eggs and James Pfeil for photography. Lastly, I am very grateful to all of you for your participation and words of encouragement. It is my prayer that the Spirit of the Risen Lord will continue to transform us into witnesses of his presence in our lives.

Peace be with you, F. Gabriel
