20TH Annual Mahoning Valley Slovak Fest: Can you believe this is our 20th Annual Slovak Fest? The Slovak Fest continues to be a success, each year growing and welcoming new people. It has become a true community event.

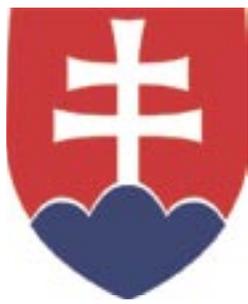

The Seniors help keep us hydrated with their pop sales. The ladies will greet you with their warm greetings and happy smiles as they sell soda (both regular and diet), ice tea and water.

The Infant Jesus Guild women, with the help of all parishioners, sell their delicious baked goods. If you have a sweet tooth, you definitely will find something tasty at the Bake Sale table. You will find some of the best kolachi in town, amazing cakes and a huge variety of cookies.

The men from the Holy Name Society prepare the best Kielbasa/Kraut Sandwiches in town.

Finally, there is the wonderful group of parishioners of all ages who work for weeks preparing Stuffed Cabbage which is included in the Slovak Platter along with Pirohy, Haluski, and Cucumber Salad.

Thank you to all for your hard work to make each Fest a success.
