28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

- Mark 10: 20-22

From the Pastor's Desk

Today's readings remind us that we do not possess anything in our life that we refuse to surrender to the Lord. In reality these things often possess us, and we become the prisoners of our possessions. What we have really done is to give our "things" top priority in our lives. Thus we violate the first commandment, which demands that we give absolute and unconditional priority to God. In our Gospel today Jesus tells the young rich man, "You are lacking one thing." We all have something in our lives that serves as a major obstacle to happiness, peace, and holiness. It may be anger, greed, holding grudges, alcohol, drugs, lust, apathy, lies, unfaithfulness, theft, or fraud. Let us invite God into our lives and into our efforts to face and remove the obstacles to holiness.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a Catholic lay organization that meets regularly to grow in friendship with God and each other. Springing from this spirituality, we see the face of Christ in those we serve in person-to-person encounters as we follow what Jesus taught us when he said, "Whatever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters you do to me."

Self-Control is the virtue our school is working on for the month of October. Self-control is defined as a joyful mastery over one's passions and desires. This looks like: keeping your hands to yourself; listening to others while they speak and not interrupting them; walking in a straight line; not taking an extra cookie. Please take some time at home and reinforce the virtue of self-control.

No School: Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday (Oct. 17-19). All teachers will be in Bismarck on Oct. 17th attending the Diocesan Convocation. Thursday and Friday is Teacher's Convention. Have a fun and safe Fall Break.

From the Music Ministry Office

"I will go before you and level the mountains, give you treasures from out of the dark. Long hidden riches will stream at last from you for I am God."

It seems like a big "ask" when God tells us to give up our riches to follow him. And yet when we meet people that do follow this command, we often see that they not only subsist and survive, they also thrive. This has fascinated me my entire life. It seems that the truly successful people are the truly happy. And the truly happy people are the most modest, most giving people. It can't be coincidence. There seems to be a blessedness in generosity. When we look after those in need, God looks after us. When we open ourselves up to share what we have with others, we find that we had even more to give than we thought. It is called a "leap of faith" for a reason, and in this "ask," that is precisely what God expects from us. Give and give generously. As we do so, let us take comfort in what we see in those that have given much. When we give and give in selfless generosity, we empty ourselves out and make room for God to enter our lives and nourish us.

*"Be not afraid. I have made you. I have saved you. I have called you.
You are mine. You are precious to me and I love you.
Be not afraid."*

Jesus says, "Let the children come to me...for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these." This week, let us pray for the grace of spiritual childhood so that we may completely trust the benevolence of our Heavenly Father and share the childlike joy of our faith to those who are most in need of hope. Call Tony Fisher (7015-800-826) if you would like to share God's goodness with our neighbors who find themselves in need.

DOMINGO 14 DE OCTUBRE XXVIII DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO Marcos 10, 17-27

El evangelio nos ofrece una escena muy conocida: el joven rico y su pretensión de obtener la salvación ("heredar la vida eterna"). Es verdad que este texto es un conjunto no demasiado homogéneo. Los grandes maestros han pensado, no sin razón, que son varios textos en torno a palabras de Jesús sobre el peligro de las riquezas y sobre la vida eterna, las que se han conjuntado en esta pequeña historia. Es muy razonable distinguir tres partes: a) la escena del joven rico (vv.17-22); b) la dificultad para entrar en el Reino de Dios (vv. 23-27); c) las renunciaciones de los verdaderos discípulos (vv.28-30). Todo rematado sobre el dicho "los últimos serán los primeros" (v. 31). Las dos primeras tienen una conexión más fuerte que la tercera. Es verdad que todo el conjunto gira en torno a las claves del verdadero seguimiento. No se trata de una enseñanza sobre el voto de pobreza de los monjes, sino de algo que afecta a la salvación para todos.

Las riquezas, poseerlas, amarlas, buscarlas es un modo de vida que define una actitud contraria a la praxis del Reino de Dios y a la vida eterna: es poder, seguridad, placer... todo eso no es la felicidad. La alternativa, en este caso, es seguir a Jesús en vez de los preceptos de la ley, que le han permitido ser un hombre rico. En la mentalidad judía, ser un hombre de riquezas y ser justo iban muy unidos. Es eso, por lo mismo, lo que desbarata Jesús para este joven con su planteamiento del seguimiento como radicalidad. Pensar que el seguimiento de Jesús es una opción de miseria sería una forma equivocada de entender lo que nos propone esta historia evangélica. Este joven es rico en bienes materiales, pero también morales, porque cumple los mandamientos. ¿Es eso inmoral? ¡No! Pero esa riqueza moral no le permite ver que sus riquezas le están robando la verdadera sabiduría y el corazón. No tiene la sabiduría que busca, porque debe estar todavía muy pendiente de "sus riquezas". Siguiendo a Jesús aprenderá otra manera de ver la vida, de vez las riquezas y de ver la misma religión.

En este mes de septiembre, el Papa nos invita a pedir por la misión de los hombres y mujeres religiosos. Te pedimos que los consagrados experimenten un reavivamiento de su espíritu que los impulse a vivir en medio de los pobres, los marginados y aquellos que no son escuchados.
