14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished.

They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him?"

-Mark 6:1-3

From the Pastor's Desk

Today's readings introduce Jesus as a prophet and explain how prophets and other messengers from God inevitably suffer rejection. The readings challenge us to face rejection and hardship with prophetic courage. Very often our friends, families, or childhood companions fail to listen to and refuse to accept the words of grace, love and encouragement that we offer to them, because they are too familiar with us. Hence, they are unable to see us as God's appointed instruments, the agents of God's healing and saving grace. But we have to face such rejection with prophetic courage, because by our baptism we are called to be prophets like Jesus, sharing his prophetic mission. As prophets, our task is to speak the truth and oppose the evils in our society without condoning or encouraging sinful behavior, even in our dear ones. Let us also acknowledge, appreciate and encourage the prophets of our time who stand for truth and justice in our society with the wisdom of God in their heads, the power of the Holy Spirit in their words and the courage of God in their actions.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

This July, we celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Church document Humanae Vitae.

Not only has the document stood the test of time, it's opened endless discussion about nothing less than giving of total self, according to God's plan. Humanae Vitae (Latin for "Of Human Life") is an encyclical written by Pope Paul VI and dated July 25, 1968 that centered around the Church's teaching about married love, responsible parenthood and the continued rejection of unnatural forms of birth control.

It's important to note that the document was immediately met with open dissent from the laity and public opposition. Criticisms came from multiple fronts including development organizations who said it limited ways to fight population growth and to stop the spread of certain diseases.

The Second Vatican Council had ended three years earlier, and there was a good deal of confusion and upheaval from that. It was also the era of the so-called Sexual Revolution and the free-spirited late 1960s. The social context of the era had to have played a role in how the document was received by the faithful.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of the document, the Diocese of Bismarck has devoted much of the June issue of the Dakota Catholic Action (pages 6-12) to offering different views surrounding its core message. It offers the theological viewpoint as well as those from our diocesan bishop and director of family ministry. For more consideration, three couples from different stages of single life and marriage offer their take on how the implementation of natural family planning has impacted their lives. It also features a "his and hers" look at a couple's complete conversion to God's plan for their marriage after coming back from the brink of divorce. These viewpoints and stories come from within our diocese, offering relatable situations from all walks of life.

The truth of the teaching of Humanae Vitae has played out in the 50 years since its release in positive and negative ways, and the anniversary gives us the opportunity to reflect and employ this teaching in our own lives and remaining faithful to God's plan for us and our divine partnership with Him.

If you would like a copy of the Dakota Catholic Action please visit bismarckdiocese.com or if you would like to read Humanae Vitae please visit our website news page at stjparish.com.

Novena for the Feast of Mercy

Meditation: Make a novena for the Holy Father's intention. It should consist of thirty-three acts; that is, repetition that many times of the short prayer — which I have taught you — to The Divine Mercy (Diary, 341).

"O Blood and Water which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a Fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You" (Diary, 309).

[This request of the Lord was in the context of making the Feast of Mercy known (see Diary, 341).]

My Prayer Response:
Lord Jesus, now that the Feast of Mercy has been officially declared as a feast day for the whole Church, may it be understood and celebrated throughout the Church. May the Feast of Mercy be an occasion of a flood of mercy poured out on the whole world so desperately in need of Your Divine Mercy!
