From the Pastor's Desk

In our Gospel today Jesus does not sugar-coat his words as he tells us to be on guard so that we will not be the cause of another's sin. This sin, which is known as scandal, is doubly sinful because it involves one's own sin and the sin of the person scandalized. Scandal can be caused by word---that is, by teaching or propagating wrong doctrine, by giving sinful advice, or simply using inappropriate or offensive language. It can also be caused by one's own sinful deeds and bad example which may be imitated by others. As well, it can be caused by omission, where one fails to do or say something that should have been done or said. Let us pray that we would never be the cause of other's falling into sin.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a Catholic lay organization that meets regularly to grow in friendship with God and each other. Springing from this spirituality, we see the face of Christ in those we serve in person-to-person encounters as we follow what Jesus taught us when he said, "Whatever you do to the least of my brothers and sisters you do to me."

September 24, 2018

Your Eminence/Excellency:

The traditional storm season has only just begun and already we have witnessed the devastating impact of Hurricane Florence in the Carolinas. Five days after land-fall, torrential rain was still falling, and catastrophic flooding is predicted. Already, thousands of homes, businesses, and churches have been severely damaged or destroyed.

We offer our prayers to families who have lost loved ones or are among those injured. As is often the case, the poor are the hardest hit by these conditions, but many will have immense unmet needs. Staff of our Office for National Collections has been in touch with several bishops to learn about their situations and to offer our prayers and our desire to be of assistance in this time of need.

Given the patterns of recent years, it is reasonable to expect much more unpredictable weather and an increasing number of natural disasters. As we often do in these situations, I suggest we take up a special collection for the humanitarian, long-term recovery, and Church needs arising from these storms. In anticipation of more disasters awaiting us this year, I ask that we make a special appeal for the ongoing disasters of 2018 and that we each take up the collection as soon as possible so that those most in need can receive assistance quickly. I recommend the special collection be taken up on the weekend of September 29-30 or October 6-7 if at all possible.

The funds collected in this special appeal for 2018 Disasters will be used to support the efforts of Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services, the official relief agencies of the U.S. Catholic Church, as they and their local agencies respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, and medical care and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts, and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church. Funds will be used in response to Hurricane Florence and any other natural disasters that occur this year.

Your finance staff will be provided with information on this special collection and directions for remitting funds. Additional information on the U.S. Catholic community's response to this latest emergency and how U.S. Catholics can help can be found at www.catholiccharities.org and www.usccb.org.

Fraternally yours in our Lord,

September 30 – Twenty-sixth Sunday

in Ordinary Time: On September 27, the Church celebrated the feast of St. Vincent de Paul (†1660). He was a priest in France who dedicated himself to serving the poor. Pope Leo XIII declared him to be the patron saint of all charitable works. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul follow in their patron's footsteps as they aid the poor in their physical and spiritual need. Is God calling you to be a Vincentian? Call Tony Fisher, our Conference president, for more information (701-404-9986).
