WELCOME TO OUR PARISH!!!

Welcome to our parish!! You can register on our website or stop by the parish office. We are delighted you are here!!!

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal. But store up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay destroys, nor thieves break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
- Mt 6:19-20

We wish everyone a happy and safe Independence Day!

Let us continue to thank God for our many freedoms, especially that of freedom to worship God in America within our Catholic faith. Let us also pray for greater understanding of our God-given freedom so that we may "live as free men, yet without using [our] freedom as a pretext for evil; but [living] as servants of God." - 1 Peter 2:16

From the Pastor's Desk

In the second part of today's Gospel, Luke introduces three potential disciples who offered lame reasons that made Jesus' call to ministry "impossible" for them to accept, when Jesus had told them plainly what the commitment required and the cost involved. They were found unfit and unprepared to follow Jesus as his disciples. We too, are asked to follow Jesus, totally and immediately, without any reservation, by giving priority to him and to his cause and by surrendering our lives to God in humble and dedicated service to others.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

How many times, in prayer, do we limit ourselves to asking for gifts and listing requests, forgetting that the first thing we should do is praise God's name, adore Him, and then go on to acknowledge His living image in our brothers and sisters.

SACRED RELICS TOUR The University of Mary is hosting a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Thursday, July 11 at 7:00 PM at the Lumen Vitae University Center. Among the treasures will be relics of St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. In addition, there will also be present a portion of the veil of Our Lady, as well as one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. In the Church's history many miracles and healings have been worked in the presence of relics, and many have been healed through this ministry. Please do not miss this opportunity. ## LITURGY AND FAITH CROSSROADS

Water is a paradoxical element. All life depends upon it, yet it is one of the most destructive forces in this world. Thus, appropriately, Christ chose water as the instrument of our salvation through baptism, for we depend upon baptism as the means to receive spiritual life and, through it, sin is destroyed. But besides using water for our one-time baptism, the Church also consecrates water in a special way for our frequent usage. Thus, every Catholic Church has holy water available for us in which to dip our fingers and sign ourselves with the Sign of the Cross as we enter and leave, and every church should have holy water available for the faithful to take home. The water we drink is a thing easily take for granted in our lives because of its ready availability to us. But perhaps even more so do we take holy water for granted and use it mindlessly—or even not at all. So, let us briefly examine its significance for our lives. Holy water, first and foremost, directly symbolizes and points to Christ. Jesus calls Himself the living water in Scripture, and He invites us to "come to [Him] and drink" (Jn 7:37). In symbolizing Christ, it symbolizes Him as the source of every possible grace. Although holy water is not a sacrament and cannot give sanctifying grace, it is a means of actual grace. Its effectiveness comes through the prayers of intercession from the Church, and its use removes spiritual obstacles to the mind and will. We can even be forgiven of venial sins through its use. It is also very effective in repelling the Evil One who cannot stand the Person it represents and the power the Church has over him through its prayer. It is of wise practice to have holy water accessible in the home to every family member and to try to develop a habit of using it morning and night. For parents, it is also an important practice of blessing children with holy water before bed, especially since children commonly experience bad dreams. To learn more about further benefits of holy water, how to use it, as well as its biblical foreshadowing, you may read the brief book, Holy Water and its Significance for Catholics by Father Henry Theiler from Sophia Institute Press.

Kovash in exploring some of the greatest depths of the Catholic faith! The following topics will be discussed: creation, the existence of God, the role of Scripture in our Faith, sin and its consequences, how to pray, what is prayer, what are the Sacraments, why do we go to confession, marriage and the priesthood, contraception, homosexuality, death and the afterlife, purgatory, salvation, justification, Mary, the Saints, and the Eucharist. These classes will take place on Thursdays at 6:20pm in O'Neill Hall from September 12th, 2019 - April 30th, 2020. Invite a friend!

THE FORGOTTEN SACRAMENT: REVIVING ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Each of us will die one day, and for some reason we rarely ponder that day. The Church gives us the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as a means to strengthen and heal both physically and spiritually those who are dying, or those who are in danger of death through grave illness or undergoing a serious operation. If you are elderly, or even if you are young and in good health, express your wish to your family or friends that you wish to be anointed by a priest when in danger of death. Ask for the Last Rites (in addition to Anointing) when death is certain. If you know other Catholics who may be ignorant of this Sacrament, tell them about the fruits and healing possible through its reception.

VOLUNTEER WITH ST. VINCENT DE PAUL In today's Gospel we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent "messenger on ahead of Him." To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring his love to others. Does God want to work through you volunteering with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Contact Tony Fisher, our Conference President (701-404-9986)
