From the Pastor's Desk

Our first reading today tells us that "the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." Before the coming of Christ ninety-eight percent of the human race lived in the darkness and hopelessness of paganism. They knew nothing of the good God who made them; they knew nothing of their real purpose in this life and did not know that there was a future life to look forward to. The two percent of Jews had a knowledge of the true God. But it was a limited knowledge and their service of him was motivated by fear rather than by love. Their belief in a future, endless life was weak in the best of them, and was not accepted at all by many.

The Incarnation (God becoming man) has changed all that. The darkness of paganism, and ignorance of the true nature of the God who created us, has been banished forever by the coming of the Great Light, the Son of God among us as man. In our Gospel today, we hear of the first men to receive the powerful influence of this Great Light. St. John Paul II said that "these men experienced the fascination of the hidden light that emanated from him, and they followed him without delay so that their path through life might shine with his brightness." Jesus the Great Light dispels our darkness and gives meaning to our lives, to our daily work, to our weariness, to our sorrow and our joy. Follow the Great Light.

- Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Be the Gift

"Grief is the guaranteed price we always pay for love."

January 26, 2020

Pope Francis @Pontifex · Jan 21

Through Baptism, we Christians are all anointed by the election of the Lord, and this is a pure gift. Today let us ask the Holy Spirit to be able to preserve this gift with faithfulness. This is Christian holiness.

Catholic Schools Week, January 26-31

"As a beneficiary of Catholic schools, I have had the amazing opportunity to pursue Christ in an incredibly deep way. My time at St. Joseph's Catholic School cultivated a foundation for my lifelong desire of knowledge and truth. It fostered a hunger for the Lord and aided in my pursuit of Christ in the beauty of daily prayer, sacraments, and a community within Christ. As I have chosen to continue my Catholic education at the University of Mary, it is clear to me that Catholic schools are unmatched for very specific reasons; they set incredible standards for academic excellence as well as the formation of the whole person which sets their students up for a lifetime of success and joy."

- Jacie Kohler, St Joseph alumna, current University of Mary student & 2019 Homecoming Queen

Matt and Mindy Dalton are the co-founders of Marriage Missionaries. They have been doing this missionary work full time for the past 9 years. Once Matt and Mindy invited Jesus to be at the center of their marriage and the primary source of their love, they developed a burning desire and passion to share God's glorious design with others. They do this through a process called Marriage Coaching: a mentoring friendship, one couple to another. They have also appeared on various shows on EWTN. Residing in Colorado, they have been married 25 years and are parents to 7 children, ages 23 to 6.
