30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.

This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

- Matthew 22: 37-40

From the Pastor's Desk

"You shall love the Lord, you God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." Wow – this is quite a daunting task. But the reason Jesus' words in our Gospel do not overwhelm us is because of a key truth that has taken hold of us; namely, that God does not want anything from us that he has not himself first given us. The utterance of this Great Commandment is a confirmation that God has first loved us in such a way that it is supremely possible for us to love him as he demands. The generosity of our charity toward others flows from our mindfulness that we "were once aliens," but then God's love came and claimed us. And because of this it is truly possible for us now to be imitators of God – and for us to love Him as deeply as he loves us.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Men, let's RISE! RISE is a powerful 30-day challenge for men by Chris Stefanick. It is for men who desire greater peace, balance, and fulfillment in their lives. It is 30 days of videos and challenges done individually online, although each man is encouraged to do RISE with a "brother," which builds accountability and friendship based on a common mission. Each day men experience a short and powerful video meditation, inspirational words and quotations, and are given a challenge based on their state in life. The goal is to help all men, wherever they are on their faith journey, to live life to the full as sons, brothers, spouses, and fathers. For more information and to accept the challenge, visit menriseup.org.

Catholic Charities Sunday, October 24-25! Please join us in your parish or online to celebrate Catholic Charities Sunday on October 24-25. This year there has been an increased need for our charity care and other services, and so we especially need your support! Watch our video to learn how we are adapting to reach those in need during the pandemic and increasing outreach by adding a new guardianship program for the elderly and mental health issues, starting telehealth for our counseling services, and expanding our AASK program and adding ND Post-Adopt services! You can help by letting others know about these exciting changes and assisting your neighbors in need with a generous donation! Together let's celebrate "US" – United and Strong! Learn more, watch the new video, and give securely online at CatholicCharitiesND.org or on Facebook.

Please remember to pray for Vocations! We are blessed to have Aaron Schmit in formation for the permanent diaconate. Aaron and his wife, Kristal, have just completed their first year of formation. Please pray for them, for all others in formation, and for an increase of vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and diaconate.

LECTIO: MARY

Why is Mary so important to Catholics, and why have so many people been devoted to her over the centuries? Dr. Brant Pitre, Professor of Sacred Scripture at the Augustine Institute Graduate School, examines what the Old and New Testaments, the life of Christ, and the early Church Fathers reveal about the life and identity of Mary.

PUT NOT YOUR TRUST IN PRINCES BY CHRISTOPHER CHECK

Speaking from his perspective as a historian, Christopher Check reminds us that the crisis of our age is cultural and, in the end, spiritual. He explains that a flourishing society is not achieved through legislation or at the ballot box, but instead radiates from the family out.

In Catholic teaching, the laity has the primary responsibility in political affairs. That means it is your responsibility to find out where the candidates stand on the issues. It is also your responsibility to make sure the candidates take a stand on the issues. Don't let the campaigns, newspapers, and special interest groups determine the issues. To know where your state legislative candidates stand on moral issues, you are encouraged to go to www.yourfaithyourvote.org. With this, you can find your district with the candidates contact info. Click on the candidate's email address. Your email program will open with a sample letter ready to send. The questions listed above can help Catholics make moral and prudential decisions about candidates and public policies. Some issues are more important than others. Some concern policies, like attacks on human life, that a Catholic can never support. Catholics can legitimately disagree about how to address some other issues. All the issues, however, deserve our attention.

Dear Friends in Christ Jesus,

October 12, 2020

You may recall that in October 2012 and again in October 2016, I wrote you about the right and privilege we have as citizens to vote. In this election year of 2020, I repeat that each Catholic citizen has the privilege and duty to participate in our Nation's governing by the exercise of our constitutional right to vote in national, state and local elections. As your Bishop I urge you again to exercise this cherished right.

As Catholics I remind you that along with the right to vote comes the equally grave responsibility to make certain that your vote will best serve and defend the common good of us all. What is the common good? The Second Vatican Council teaches that it is "the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily" (Gaudium et spes, n. 26a). That "sum total of social conditions" takes in many concerns and the "fulfillment" which the common good helps us to attain is not our personal, private self-fulfillment. It is rather the fulfillment of God's plan and destiny for us and for His world.

In considering the "sum total of social conditions" which make up our common good, there is a real and objective order of priority which we must know, accept and vote to uphold and follow. Conditions upon which other social conditions depend must come first in our consideration. In all things the first consideration for us is the protection of human life from its first moment of conception to natural death. This consideration must govern every law and action so that the person's life and dignity are always and everywhere protected and defended. Without this it makes no sense to consider any other social conditions. The common good as the Church teaches is founded on the inviolable good of the individual person's unique and unrepeatable dignity as created by God Himself.

For this reason, there are some actions that are never acceptable and should not be made so by any civil law, they include: abortion, euthanasia, embryonic stem cell research, the attempt to redefine the unique human relationship of marriage as the union of one man and one woman and racism. Each of these grave sins is an immediate attack upon Almighty God and on the person created by Him and there is never any reason that would justify any of these mortal sins. These intrinsic evils are such because they are directly opposed to the love of God and our neighbor, they are always opposed to the authentic good of every person and therefore they are the enemies of our common good.

In this election year the positions of the political parties and their candidates are very well known. What I ask each of you to do before you vote is to consider what our Catholic Church teaches about the issues and then consider how your vote for a particular candidate will contribute to the defense and strengthening of our common good. I ask you, please, vote as a Catholic citizen with your conscience informed by the Church's clear teaching. Those for whom we vote are supposed to represent us as Catholic citizens.

In closing I recall the powerful words of Pope Saint John Paul II: "The common outcry which is justly made on behalf of human rights – for example the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture – is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination" (Christifideles Laici, 38).

May God the Holy Spirit inspire each of you to do your duty as Catholic citizens who cherish and respect every human life as a gift from God, the Father of us all, so precious to Him that He gave us His Only Son to be our Lord and Savior.

May Our Blessed Mother continue to pray and intercede for us!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
The Most Reverend David D. Kagan
Bishop of Bismarck
