1st Sunday of Advent

"You, LORD, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever. Why do you let us wander, O LORD, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage. Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down..."

~ Isaiah 63: 16B-17

From the Pastor's Desk

At a certain point in life, the deep desires and cravings of our heart reach a point of eruption in us. Yet at the same time comes the awareness that we cannot bring about what we want – we do not have inside us what is needed to fulfill and satisfy our longings. And so, with our infinite yearnings we turn to the Infinite and cry, “Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down.” Our experience of helplessness before the fact of our boundless human need moves us to ask for fellowship with God’s Son, Jesus Christ the Lord. The nature of our desire assures us as we enter into Advent that we are not lacking in any spiritual gift as we wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. “The Lord of the house is coming.” “Be watchful!! Be alert!!” (From the Magnificat)

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Corazon Retreat: December 11-13, 2020

Who the program is for:

- Couples struggling to communicate
- Couples struggling to find reason to stay together
- Couples who are cold and distant from each other
- Couples who are living the single married life
- Separated/divorced couples, but who want to try again.

Corazon is a weekend experience in which couples will be challenged to soften their hearts by looking at what the Sacrament of Marriage is all about, next we look deeply into our own short-comings and failures, and finally to offer different tools to help heal from hurts we have caused each other and move forward.

Corazon is not a support group, a seminar, a social gathering, nor is it counseling. You will not be asked to share your problems with anyone else. You will be encouraged to participate with open hearts and minds and to come with an attitude ready to put the past behind you and look forward to what the future will hold.

Topics addressed:

Love Languages, Sacrament of Marriage, Communication Challenges, Conflict Management, Forgiveness, Unrealistic Expectations, Single Married Life, Hardened Hearts, Hope, Prayer/Praying Together/Adoration

To register go to: bismarckdiocese.com/corazon

For questions, to register, or for more information, contact Amanda at the diocese at 701-204-7205.

Psalm 91—Security Under God's Protection

A prayer for protection as we continue fighting the Covid-19 virus*

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High,
who abide in the shade of the Almighty,
Say to the LORD, "My refuge and fortress,
my God in whom I trust."

He will rescue you from the fowler's snare,
from the destroying plague,
He will shelter you with his pinions,
and under his wings you may take refuge;
his faithfulness is a protecting shield.
You shall not fear the terror of the night
nor the arrow that flies by day,
Nor the pestilence that roams in darkness,
nor the plague that ravages at noon.
Though a thousand fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
near you it shall not come.

You need simply watch;
the punishment of the wicked you will see.
Because you have the LORD for your refuge
and have made the Most High your stronghold,
No evil shall befall you,
no affliction come near your tent.
For he commands his angels with regard to you,
to guard you wherever you go.
With their hands they shall support you,
lest you strike your foot against a stone.
You can tread upon the asp and the viper,
trample the lion and the dragon.
Because he clings to me I will deliver him;
because he knows my name I will set him on high. He will call upon me and I will answer;
I will be with him in distress;
I will deliver him and give him honor.
With length of days I will satisfy him,
and fill him with my saving power.

Saint of the Week:

Feast day: Dec 3rd

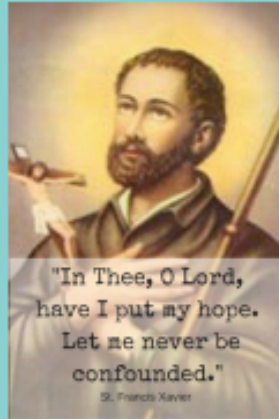

Birth: 1506

Death: 1552

Canonized: March 12, 1622

Francis was born in Navarre (now in northern Spain), at the family castle of Xavier. He was the third son of the president of the council of the king of Navarre. Francis grew up at Xavier and received his early education there. As was often the case with younger sons of the nobility, he was destined for an ecclesiastical career, and in 1525 he journeyed to the University of Paris, the theological centre of Europe, to begin his studies.

In 1529, Ignatius of Loyola, another Basque student, was assigned to room with Francis. Ignatius had undergone a profound religious conversion and was then gathering about himself a group of men who shared his ideals. Gradually, Ignatius won over the initially obstinate Francis, and Francis was among the band of seven who, in a chapel on Montmartre in Paris, on August 15, 1534, vowed lives of poverty and celibacy in imitation of Christ, solemnly promising to undertake a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and subsequently to devote themselves to the salvation of believers and unbelievers alike. After all the members of the band had completed their studies, they re-assembled in Venice, where Francis was ordained priest on June 24, 1537. Having for more than a year sought passage to the Holy Land in vain, they along with fresh recruits, went to Rome to put themselves at the disposal of the pope. They had become so popular that many Catholic princes sought their services. One of these was King John III of Portugal, who desired diligent priests to minister to the Christians and to evangelize the peoples in his new Asian dominions. Ignatius designated Francis. The next day, March 15, 1540, Francis left Rome for the Indies, travelling first to Lisbon. In the following fall, Pope Paul III formally recognized the followers of Ignatius as a religious order, the Society of Jesus. Francis disembarked in Goa, the center of Portuguese activity in the East, on May 6, 1542. Much of the next three years he spent on the southeastern coast of India among the simple, poor pearl fishers. About 20,000 of them had accepted baptism seven years before, chiefly to secure Portuguese support against their enemies; since then, however, they had been neglected. Using a small catechism he had translated into the native Tamil with the help of interpreters, Francis travelled tirelessly from village to village instructing and confirming them in their faith. Shortly afterward the Macuans on the southwestern coast indicated their desire for baptism, and after brief instructions he baptized 10,000 of them in the last months of 1544. In 1548 he returned to India, where more Jesuits had since arrived to join him. Francis's eyes, however, were now fixed on a land reached only five years before by Europeans: Japan. His conversations in Malacca with Anjirō, a Japanese man deeply interested in Christianity, had shown that this people was cultured and sophisticated. On August 15, 1549, Francis and several companions entered the Japanese port of Kagoshima. Francis said of the Japanese as, "the best people yet discovered." In late 1551, having received no mail since his arrival in Japan, Francis decided to return temporarily to India. Back in India, administrative affairs awaited him as the superior of the newly erected Jesuit Province. Meanwhile, he had come to realize that the way to the conversion of Japan lay through China; it was to the Chinese that the Japanese looked for wisdom. He never reached China, however. On December 3, 1552, Francis died of fever on the island of Sancian (off the Chinese coast) as he attempted to secure entrance to the country, then closed to foreigners.

St. Joseph's School continues to look for any person interested in becoming a Substitute Teacher. We have very few substitute teachers this year and want to build our list in the event any teachers become sick. Please call Julie Quamme at 572-6384 for more information. Interested parties must at least have a 2-year degree and a substitute teacher license through the state of ND.

We are looking for 2-4 parent volunteers to work at the Spring Lake Park Holiday Drive. We have been selected for December 27 from 5:30 – 9:30. Each shift is two-hours in length and 2 people are needed per shift. All the proceeds from the gates go to St. Joseph's Catholic School. Please contact Mrs. Quamme at 572-6384 if you would be willing to help out.

Due to Covid-19 the annual St. Joseph's Christmas Concert will be virtual this year. The Christmas program will be on our Facebook page beginning on Dec. 17th.

Do you have an extra Christmas tree you are looking to get rid of? St. Joseph's school is planning a school-wide project and we are in need of two artificial trees that are about 5-6 feet tall. Please call Mrs. Quamme or Mrs. Lysne at 572-6384 if you have a tree to donate.

Please continue to keep our students and staff in your prayers as we are beginning to see positive cases of Covid-19 in our school.

I would like to wish you a blessed Advent season as we prepare to celebrate the birth of Christ! Advent Services are held each Monday morning in December, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Students in grades 1, 3, and 5 will be leading the Advent service each week. All families are invited to attend!
