5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Thus says the LORD: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own. Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your wound shall quickly be healed..."

~Isaiah 58:7-8

From the Pastor's Desk

Using two simple metaphors in today's Gospel, Jesus outlines the role of Christians in this world. The Christian's task is to be the salt of society, preserving, reconciling, adding flavor, giving meaning where there is no meaning and giving hope where there is no hope. As the salt of the earth, the Christian must have a certain antiseptic influence on life and society, defeating corruption, fighting against injustice and making it easier for others to avoid sin. As salt preserves foods, we have to preserve the religious Faith, Christian cultural values and moral principles, which Jesus has given us. As well, every Christian ought to reflect the light borrowed from Christ and radiate that light in the form of love, kindness, mercy, forgiveness and humble service.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Rome Ad Limina Pilgrimage, 2020

On a recent Ad Limina Pilgrimage of the bishops from region 8 (MN, ND, SD), our Director of Religious Education, Mary Evinger, was part of a group of Young Adults accompanying Archbishop Hebda and Bishop Cozzens from the Archdiocese of St Paul and Minneapolis to Rome. The photo on the left includes all the bishops from our region, the seminarians attending the North American College from our region, and the group of young adults.

One of the highlights for the young adult group was meeting Pope Francis, shaking his hand, and getting a photo with him. Two of the guys were also able to purchase and trade a zucchetto (the white hat) with Pope Francis. Mary is seventh to the left of Pope Francis.

Mary before the Basilica of St Mary of the Angels, Assisi, which houses the small church St. Francis rebuilt in response to Christ's command to him in prayer, "Rebuild My Church".

Do you know the date of your baptism?

Do you know what day you were baptized? Each one think about it. And if you do not know the date or have forgotten it, upon returning home, ask your mom, grandma, uncle, aunt, grandpa, godfather, godmother: what is the date? We must always keep that date in our memory, because it is a date of celebration; it is the date of our initial sanctification; it is the date on which the Father gave us the Holy Spirit who encourages us to walk; it is the date of the great forgiveness.
