4th Sunday in Lent Laetare Sunday

"The Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want"
~Psalm 23:1

Dear People of God,

What a difference a few days can make and what extraordinary times we are now living in. While I will likely have much more to say to you in the days and weeks to come, as your pastor I want to simply say this to all of you: We are people of faith and we cling to God, who is our Rock. May this time of uncertainty prompt us to spend more time in prayer. As well, may we make an honest assessment of our lives, particularly, what our relationship with our Lord really looks like.

May we pray for the grace to trust God through these trying times. I believe there is no better time than now to pray the Litany of Trust, which is included inside this bulletin. Additionally, if we are not doing so already, let us beseech God through the powerful intercession of our Blessed Mother by praying a daily rosary, as encouraged by our Holy Father, Pope Francis.

~ Fr. Russell Kovash

From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday is traditionally called "Laetare Sunday" for the Church is to express its joy in anticipation of the Resurrection. It is a short "interruption" within the season of Lent to remind us that joy is perfectly compatible with the prayer, fasting, almsgiving, self-denial and penance we carry out during this holy season. While many people today are looking for happiness in their lives, what they are really looking for is joy. You see, happiness is based upon the changing circumstances in life and so when the circumstances change for the worse, their happiness decreases or is gone. Joy, on the other hand, is essentially a Christian characteristic. We possess joy when we possess Jesus – when we are in relationship with him. And so despite sufferings, trials, tribulations and setbacks in our life – those things we call the cross – we can still possess joy because we possess Jesus. Why is this so important to understand? Because when we take our final breath on this earth, nothing else will matter except whether we possess Jesus and are in relationship with him. Got Jesus? It's not too late to get him.

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

March 22, 2020

To the Catholic Faithful of the Diocese of Bismarck,

The most serious health crisis we are now experiencing, the COVID-19 virus has required unprecedented measures be taken by our national, state and local governments and, as devout Catholics and responsible citizens, we all have a share in this responsibility not to spread this virus, but to do all we can reasonably do to stop its spread and to pray and work for its end. As Catholics this is our moral responsibility in justice and in charity. Thus, after long hours of prayer and consultation, I must make the hard decision to cancel all public celebrations of the Mass, the sacraments and devotions until further notice that it is safe for us to gather again for public worship. This is a great sorrow for me as your Bishop but, in justice and charity to you and to all in our diocese, I make this decision.

Thus, the following directives are to be observed in the Diocese of Bismarck and may not be changed or modified by anyone but the Diocesan Bishop:

Effective Thursday, March 19, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. and until further notice, all daily and Sunday Masses are cancelled in the Diocese of Bismarck. This applies to all parishes, oratories, and chapels used for public worship. The Catholic faithful within the territory of the Diocese of Bismarck are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days.

Confirmation - As a result, all of the scheduled celebrations of the sacrament of confirmation between Sunday, March 22, 2020 through Sunday, May 17, 2020, are cancelled and will be rescheduled for the fall between September and December 2020.

Communal Penance Services - All Communal Penance Services are cancelled. All parish priests are to keep the regular schedule of confessions in their parishes but both priest and penitent are to use a screen for the celebration of the sacrament until further notice.

Weddings - All weddings already scheduled may take place but are to be limited to the bride and groom, the two witnesses, the parents of the bride and groom and the priest or deacon who is to witness the marriage. The Church's Rite of Matrimony Within or Outside of Mass may be used.

Funerals - All funerals are to be private not public, that is to say, for the immediate family only and for the priest or deacon who is the celebrant. The Rite of Christian Funerals Within or Outside of Mass may be used. There is to be no wake and/or vigil observed the day before or day of the funeral. No luncheon or dinner is permitted in the church hall after the funeral.

Baptism - Infant baptism may be administered but may have only 10 persons including the priest or deacon present. All RCIA classes are cancelled. The sacramental initiation of adults by a Profession of Faith or by baptism may take place at the discretion of the priest but must be done individually and with no more than 10 persons present.

Religious Education - All parish religious education classes are cancelled until further notice. Our Catholics schools are following the directives of the State and will remain closed until such time as it is deemed safe to reopen. Parents are asked to follow the directions given by their local Catholic schools.

Televised/Livestream Mass - All pastors of parishes with the capability to livestream are to offer one daily and one Sunday Mass without a congregation or other ministers present and have that available for their parishioners on the parish website. If any parish does not have this capability, the parishioners may go to the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit website and view daily and Sunday Mass from there (as available). As always, the televised Mass is available on the FOX TV affiliate in your viewing area on Sundays at 10 a.m. and 11:30 p.m. Please check the diocesan website and social media for updates and more details about livestream Masses.

Chrism Mass - The Mass of Chrism will be celebrated without a congregation present on Monday, April 6, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. CDT from the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit and this will be able to be viewed on the diocesan website. In order to protect our priests, there will be no general concelebration of this Mass, but our priests are asked to participate in the Renewal of their Ordination Promises via live stream.

Priests will be expected to offer Holy Mass privately every day if possible and to be available to provide the anointing of the sick and viaticum to all the Catholic faithful. Please call your parish office with any special sacramental and spiritual need. Each Parish is to keep its Church open during the day for the benefit of those who wish to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. What all of us must do in these days is not lose hope in the merciful goodness of Almighty God. Even though we will not be physically close to one another at this time, by our fervent and humble prayer for each other and all who are ill and affected, we remain united in the powerful Communion of Saints. Let us continue to beg Our Mother of Perpetual Help and Saint Joseph, Guardian of the Holy Family and Patron of the Universal Church, to assist us in our time of need by their powerful intercession. I offer to all of you my daily prayers and my blessing. Let us accompany one another and everyone on this holy journey of healing and purification.

The Most Reverend David D. Kagan
Bishop of Bismarck

Masses and Spiritual Communion

Daily and Sunday Masses said by Fr. Kovash and Fr. Luger will be recorded and can be viewed on St. Joseph's website beginning Sunday, March 22nd. We are hoping to have the Mass available online by 9am daily, except Monday which will be online in the evening.

All Mass intentions that have been scheduled at our parishes will still be offered by our priests privately. Mass intentions will continue to be printed in our bulletin.

The Church encourages those who are unable to receive the Eucharist to make an act of spiritual communion, when we unite ourselves to God through prayer, especially while watching the Mass or making a visit to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. It can be done at any time, however. It is a beautiful way to express to God our desire for union with Him when we are unable to complete that union in the reception of Holy Communion.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Anointing of the Sick and Viaticum

If you or your loved one needs the Sacrament of the Anointing of the sick or are in danger of death, please call the office or the rectory (701)572-0236 if after office hours.

Cancellations

Until further notice, the following activities are cancelled:

- Stations of the Cross
- Fish Fry's
- The Encounter
- Faith Formation
- Prayer Groups
- Group Meetings
- Bible Studies

St. Joseph's Altar Band will postpone its annual spring rummage sale originally scheduled on Saturday, April 4th, to a pending later date. Additionally, Banquet West is suspending operations until further notice.

If you have a question about future group meetings or events, please contact the parish office.

Confessions

During Lent, we especially want to offer people the opportunity to experience the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Providing this Sacrament is an essential way in which the healing and merciful love of God is experienced. Confessions will be available at the following times:

St. Joseph:

- Saturday 3:30—5pm & 7:30—8:30 pm
- Sunday 8:00—9am

St. John:

- Sunday 10:30—11:30

St. Boniface

- Sunday 10:00am—11:00 am

Until further notice, Confessions will be heard only behind a screen.

Church Hours

Our three parishes will be open to individuals for personal prayer at the following times:

- St. Joseph's in Williston: 8 am-8 pm
- St. John the Baptist in Trenton: 8 am-7 pm
- St Boniface in Grenora: 10 am-7 pm

Please keep a distance of at least six feet from other persons while visiting the church.

Parish Office Hours:

At this time, the parish office will maintain its regular hours: Mon—Thurs, 8:00 a.m.—5:00 p.m., and Fri 8:00 am -3:00 pm.

Parish Offertory

Although we are experiencing changes in the way we bring Christ to you through the Mass and the Sacraments, the parish still has the same day-to-day operating expenses and is all the more reliant on your generosity. During this holy season of Lent, if you are able, please remain dedicated to supporting this great parish and the charities that are dear to you.

You can donate by mailing your donation to the parish office, dropping it off at the parish office during business hours, or by giving on our website through Parish E-giving located on the top of our website. If you are interested in giving electronically, please contact Ray Urbi at 701-572-6731.

Resources for Down-time

During this time of increased down time at home, we invite you to take advantage of excellent resources for growing in your faith and becoming centered on what is truly important in life.

1) Make an account with formed.org where there is content available for all ages.

- Watch family movies
- Do a family bible study
- Access E-books, and more

2) Listen to Catholic Radio during your daily activities.

3) Pick up lighthouse Catholic CD's or some books at the entrances of our Church to ponder this Lent.

4) Reaccess internet habits, personal or within family life, and sign up for an account with covenanteyes.com if pornography is an issue.

For more ideas on resources, contact the parish office.

10 TIPS FOR FACING QUARANTINE

The uncertainty and the necessary break during these days can easily bring about discouragement, boredom, apprehension and fear...
Here is an adaptation of the advice Saint Josemaria offered when he and others were besieged by war: maybe it can help you cope better during the days ahead.

1 BE OPTIMISTIC

God is allowing this situation for something, so to try to approach it with supernatural outlook, good humor and hope.

2 HAVE A SCHEDULE

Make a schedule to make better use of your time. Don't miss out on days that could be very enriching.

3 DON'T WASTE TIME

Avoid overusing technology to "pass the time."

4 LEARN SOMETHING NEW

Today could be a good day to practice a new language, try out a recipe or start an online course that's been pending for a time.

5 PRACTICE HOBBIES

Take the opportunity to practice a hobby: music, reading, writing, sports [better outdoors].

6 PRAY WITH MORE CALM

Moments of physical break can become moments of great inner growth, if we want them to be.
God never leaves us alone!

7 HAVE GOOD CONVERSATIONS

With those who are near, or—thanks to phone and video conferencing—with those who are far away.

8 BE A SUPPORT

Support those around you: fear and boredom are great temptations.
Try to notice the needs of others who are more vulnerable than you.

9 KEEP CALM

Try not to focus on the negative side of things, and be grateful for all the good around you.

10 SAY YOU'RE SORRY

Living together with others under quarantine is often complicated, so make sure to make amends with others when frictions arise.

Phishing email WARNING!

In recent weeks, several parishioners and office/school staff have received fraudulent attempts via email to share personal information or to follow directives from "Rev. Russell Kovash" to extend assistance to third parties. These are phishing (word coined as an analog with the sport of angling) attempts by scammers using e-mail lures, setting out hooks to "fish" for passwords, financial data, or direct assistance from the "sea" of internet users. There are four components to look out for in a phishing email scheme:

Generic greeting. In our local scenario, the scam is simply a greeting from someone pretending to be Father Kovash. Understand that your email addresses are readily accessible from public databases so how they got yours should not be surprising.

Forged link or Fake e-mail address. Even if a link has a name you recognize somewhere in it, it doesn't mean it originates from or points to the real person or the actual organization such as a bank or government agency. Roll your mouse over the link and see if it matches what appears in the email. If there is a discrepancy, don't click on the link. Also, websites where it is safe to enter personal information begin with "https" – the "s" stands for secure (with some browsers, a padlock icon  may take the place of the "https"). If you don't see these before the link, do not proceed.

Requests personal information. The point of sending phishing email is to trick you into providing private information. If you receive an email requesting personal information – or a note to "email me as soon as you get this message" – be on the alert that it might be a phishing attempt. If you know the person sending the email, call or text them to confirm the validity of the message.

Sense of urgency. Internet criminals want you to provide your personal information now. They do this by making you think something has happened that requires you to act fast. The faster they get your information, or to get you to comply with instructions, the faster they can move on to another victim.

In the reported instances where Fr. Kovash's identity was hijacked to phish, the originating emails were variations of his name and title. Anyone can create a fake email account such as kovashrevrussell@gmail.com or frkovashbismarcknd@gmail.com or any such combination simply by getting the relevant data from the parish or diocesan website. Coupled with a personal greeting, these hooks allow cybercriminals to get their target victims to reply and comply.

DO NOT readily reply without examining the email address from which the inquiry or greeting is coming from. Keep in mind that companies, agencies, and people can be impersonated online.

Fr. Kovash has two OFFICIAL EMAIL ADDRESSES:

rkovash@bismarckdiocese.com
pastor@stjparish.com

If in doubt, contact the pastor directly, or confirm the requests with the Parish Office if you're not able to reach him. Father Kovash will never place a direct, targeted petition via email.

Litany of Trust by the Sisters of Life

From the belief that I have to earn Your love.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear that I am unlovable.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the false security that I have what it takes.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear that trusting You will leave me more destitute.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From all suspicion of Your words and promises.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the rebellion against childlike dependency on You.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From refusals and reluctances in accepting Your will.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From anxiety about the future.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From resentment or excessive preoccupation with the past.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From restless self-seeking in the present moment.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From disbelief in Your love and presence.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of being asked to give more than I have.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the belief that my life has no meaning or worth.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the fear of what love demands.

Deliver me, Jesus.

From discouragement.

Deliver me, Jesus.

That You are continually holding me sustaining me, loving me.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That Your love goes deeper than my sins and failings, and transforms me.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That not knowing what tomorrow brings is an invitation to lean on You.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That you are with me in my suffering.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That my suffering, united to Your own, will bear fruit in this life and the next.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That You will not leave me orphan, that You are present in Your Church.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That Your plan is better than anything else.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That You always hear me and in Your goodness always respond to me.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That You give me the grace to accept forgiveness and to forgive others.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That You give me all the strength I need for what is asked.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That my life is a gift.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That You will teach me to trust You.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That You are my Lord and my God.

Jesus, I trust in you.

That I am Your beloved one.

Jesus, I trust in you.

Pope Francis
@Pontifex

Our God is near and asks us to be near to one another. Perhaps right now we cannot draw near physically to others for fear of contagion, but we can reawaken in ourselves a habit of drawing near to others through prayer and mutual help. #HomilySantaMarta
