5th Sunday in Lent

"Master, the one you love is ill.' When Jesus heard this he said, 'This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it.'"

~ John 11:3-4

Anointing of the Sick and Viaticum

If you or your loved one needs the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick or are in danger of death, please call the parish office (701) 572-6731 or the rectory (701) 572-0236 if after office hours.

From the Pastor's Desk

In today's gospel, the raising of Lazarus is the final and greatest sign of Jesus – a sign that anticipates his own resurrection from the dead. Describing this great miracle, the Church assures us that we, too, will be raised into eternal life after our battle with sin and death in this world. Thus, resurrection hope is the central theme of the Scripture readings for the fifth Sunday of Lent. The readings assure us that our faith in Jesus, who is "the resurrection and the life," promises our participation in the resurrection and new life. While the Gospel centers on the theme of resurrection hope, it should cause us to think about death, particularly our own death. All of us know that we will surely die, but many often foolishly think that he or she will not die any time in the near future. Let us be wise, well-prepared and ever ready to meet our Lord with a clear conscience when the time comes. If I took my final breath this very day, would I be ready to meet Jesus face-to-face?

-Peace, Fr. Russell Kovash

Keeping Sunday Holy during a Time of Mass Suspension

While we have been dispensed from attending Sunday Mass at Church, we have not been dispensed from keeping Sunday holy. Therefore, let us be sure that we still keep the Lord's day holy by taking in Sunday Mass online or on TV. Daily and Sunday Masses said by Fr. Kovash and Fr. Luger can be viewed online at stjparish.com and on our Facebook page. Masses are available for viewing by 9am daily—except Monday which will be online in the evening. Please refer to the guide to the right to find ways to create a Mass environment similar to what one might experience at Church so that you may feel like you are actively participating in Mass.

Although we sadly cannot receive the Eucharist currently, the Church asks us to unite ourselves to Jesus in a spiritual Communion. May these days of not receiving His Body and Blood at Mass inspire in us a deeper longing for Him in our hearts.

Here is a prayer example for a Spiritual Communion. While viewing Mass, you may pray this at the usual time of receiving Communion in the Mass.

An Act of Spiritual Communion:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

HOW TO PRAY THE TV MASS FROM HOME

Creating a sacred space to reverently watch the mass in your home

Create a prayer altar under your TV or streaming device. Consider setting a crucifix or other sacred art in the prayer space.

Open your bible to the gospel of the day and place it on your "home altar" to remind you that the Word of God is among you.

Light a candle to symbolize the beautiful light that shines in the darkness and to help your home resemble the Church.

Set up chairs like a pew to help you engage in the mass and keep you from passively watching from the couch.

Get dressed as you normally would when attending mass. Keeping this routine is especially helpful for children.

If you have holy water at home, bless yourself and your family before you begin the mass.

Take a few moments of silence to transition from the busyness of your home to the sacredness of the mass.

Fully participate by standing, kneeling, sitting and responding according to the rubrics of the mass.

Engage in community by having coffee and breakfast with your family after mass or by calling your loved ones to connect.

The most up-to-date information regarding any changes at St. Joseph's can be found on our website, stjparish.com. We will continue to have bulletins available both in the Churches and online. It is our desire that our parishioners know that they can stay connected to God and their church during this unprecedented time. You may call the parish office (701) 572-6731 at any time or the rectory (701) 572-0236 after hours.

During this holy season of Lent, if you are able, please remain dedicated to supporting this great parish and the charities that are dear to you.

You can donate by mailing your donation to the parish office, dropping it off at the parish office during business hours, or by giving on our website through Parish E-giving located on the top of our website. If you are interested in giving electronically, please contact Ray Urbi at 701-572-6731.

10 TIPS FOR FACING QUARANTINE

The uncertainty and the necessary break during these days can easily bring about discouragement, boredom, apprehension and fear...
Here is an adaptation of the advice Saint Josemaría offered when he and others were besieged by war: maybe it can help you cope better during the days ahead.

1 BE OPTIMISTIC

God is allowing this situation for something, so to try to approach it with supernatural outlook, good humor and hope.

2 HAVE A SCHEDULE

Make a schedule to make better use of your time. Don't miss out on days that could be very enriching.

3 DON'T WASTE TIME

Avoid overusing technology to "pass the time."

4 LEARN SOMETHING NEW

Today could be a good day to practice a new language, try out a recipe or start an online course that's been pending for a time.

5 PRACTICE HOBBIES

Take the opportunity to practice a hobby: music, reading, writing, sports (better outdoors).

6 PRAY WITH MORE CALM

Moments of physical break can become moments of great inner growth, if we want them to be.
God never leaves us alone!

7 HAVE GOOD CONVERSATIONS

With those who are near, or —thanks to phone and video conferencing— with those who are far away.

8 BE A SUPPORT

Support those around you: fear and boredom are great temptations.
Try to notice the needs of others who are more vulnerable than you.

9 KEEP CALM

Try not to focus on the negative side of things, and be grateful for all the good around you.

10 SAY YOU'RE SORRY

Living together with others under quarantine is often complicated, so make sure to make amends with others when frictions arise.

Phishing email WARNING!

In recent weeks, several parishioners and office/school staff have received fraudulent attempts via email to share personal information or to follow directives from "Rev. Russell Kovash" to extend assistance to third parties. These are phishing (word coined as an analog with the sport of angling) attempts by scammers using e-mail lures, setting out hooks to "fish" for passwords, financial data, or direct assistance from the "sea" of internet users. There are four components to look out for in a phishing email scheme:

Generic greeting. In our local scenario, the scam is simply a greeting from someone pretending to be Father Kovash. Understand that your email addresses are readily accessible from public databases so how they got yours should not be surprising.

Forged link or Fake e-mail address. Even if a link has a name you recognize somewhere in it, it doesn't mean it originates from or points to the real person or the actual organization such as a bank or government agency. Roll your mouse over the link and see if it matches what appears in the email. If there is a discrepancy, don't click on the link. Also, websites where it is safe to enter personal information begin with "https" – the "s" stands for secure (with some browsers, a padlock icon  may take the place of the "https"). If you don't see these before the link, do not proceed.

Requests personal information. The point of sending phishing email is to trick you into providing private information. If you receive an email requesting personal information – or a note to "email me as soon as you get this message" – be on the alert that it might be a phishing attempt. If you know the person sending the email, call or text them to confirm the validity of the message.

Sense of urgency. Internet criminals want you to provide your personal information now. They do this by making you think something has happened that requires you to act fast. The faster they get your information, or to get you to comply with instructions, the faster they can move on to another victim.

In the reported instances where Fr. Kovash's identity was hijacked to phish, the originating emails were variations of his name and title. Anyone can create a fake email account such as kovashrevrussell@gmail.com or frkovashbismarcknd@gmail.com or any such combination simply by getting the relevant data from the parish or diocesan website. Coupled with a personal greeting, these hooks allow cybercriminals to get their target victims to reply and comply.

DO NOT readily reply without examining the email address from which the inquiry or greeting is coming from. Keep in mind that companies, agencies, and people can be impersonated online.

Fr. Kovash has two OFFICIAL EMAIL ADDRESSES:

rkovash@bismarckdiocese.com
pastor@stjparish.com

If in doubt, contact the pastor directly, or confirm the requests with the Parish Office if you're not able to reach him. Father Kovash will never place a direct, targeted petition via email.

The first requirement for prayer is faith, the second is perseverance, and the third is courage. In these days when we need to pray more, let us ask ourselves if we pray like this. The Lord never deludes! He makes us wait, but He never deludes. #HomilySantaMarta
